Sowed 3 Bushels Barley produce 69 Sheaves — Bushels
Beyond the potatoes Oats — 2640 do.

Thursday 8th Aug.

Ephraim Lewen & Danl. Snook finished Cradling Oats say Acres in two days & a half, Danl. Snook helped with a day Stack till 11 O'Clock & then went to making Centers the rest employed in pulling Flax & raking oats, Ephraim Sick

Friday 9th

Pompey, Lewen &c. raking & Binding Oats, Danl. Snook finished making Centers about 11 O'clock, two handsing under the anchors the Carts hauling Stones a fine day

Saty. 10th

All hands employed in hauling in Oats, Danl. Snook stacking a warm fine day, a little gloomy towards evening —

Monday 12th

All hands raking & binding Oats, in the evening Ephm. & Lewen killed a Steer, Charles at the Road, a warm day big Charles went for 41 Bushels of lime from Mr. Hamilton

Tuesday 13

All hands raking & binding Oats, big Ch. in the forenoon got the Waggon mended, a warm day —

Wedy. 14

All hands employed in raking & hauling Oats, Charles & the carts at the road, fair & warm Therm. 82

Thurs. 15

The people employed in binding & hauling the remainder of the Oats, pulling hemp Flax &c. a fine day, 5 hands digging at the Bridge & Lewen in the garden

Friday 16

The people employed in hauling in ~~Oats~~ Flax, spreading Hemp & threshing Wheat &c. a warm day, 5 hands at digging about the Bridge

Saty. 17

Lewen Sick, the others cleaned 11 Bushels of Wheat & threshing Corn, &c. a warm day, 18 Road people & Carts at Bridge

Monday 19th August 1816

Monday the Therm. stood at 88° the people threshing & cleaning Corn, loping the Oat Stack &c. a blowing fair day but cloudy killed a Steer

Sunday 20th

The people employed in threshing & cleaning Corn & sundry Jobs, ~~[illegible]~~ sent 77 Bushels of Corn to Mill yesterday 18 a°. & today; fair but cloudy windy, & very cold in the eve.

Wedy. 21st — qr. 3 / Bus. 2 } 5 — 92 / 83

Last night extremely cold, Ephraim & Lewen cutting wood, Charles & Pompey threshing Rye, repairing fence & ch. took the waggon to the Shop; in the evening Mr. Stover lent his four Horses & my mine by an to plough at Pipe Creek hill but it was too hard, tho. a Stand plough a Side road say from ½ past 12 to 5 O'clock a Clear & tolerably cool day.

Thursday 22

Pompey & big Charles threshing Rye, Ephm. & Lewen Cutting wood, Charles at the road — a fine day

Friday 23

Pompey & Charles threshing Rye &c. Ephm. & Lewen Cutting wood fair day — Charles at the road —

Saty. 24

all hands employed as yesterday a little shower in the evening —

Monday 26

Lewen & Ephraim Cutting wood, Pompey & Robt. threshing Rye &c. big Charles at sundry Jobs, I went to Mr. Reids funeral, a heavy rain about 1 O'clock I was unable to work from being soaked —

Killed a Steer

Tuesday 27

Pompey & Lewen cleaned Rye forenoon, in the evening Charles took 16 Bushels, & the rest of Corn to mill Lewen & Ephm. Cutting wood, Adt. with Mr. Stover from 12 O'clock a fine day —