Wednesday 17th July 1816

Lewen & Ephraim Cut the remainder of the Rye, the two Charlies raking, in the evening Ephraim, Lewen, & young Charles mowing the wet raking Hay, some Gusts in the forenoon in the evening fair — W. Hy. the or cart a pieces the Eng.

Thursday 18th

Ephraim Lewen & young Charles mowing, Charles ploughing Corn, Jack & Alley hoeing, Robt. in the Garden &c. a fine day all hands at the Quarry, Hagan Arr.d in the evening

Friday 19th

Ephraim, Lewen & young Charles mowing, Rips & Ally raking Hay, Robt. in the garden &c. big Charles ploughing & Jack hoeing Corn, a fine day — all hands at the quarry —

Saturday 20th

Ephraim, Lewen & young Charles mowing till dinnertime & in the evening hauling in Hay, Ally Jack Robt. & Rips raking hay & hoeing potatoes w.th Charles ploughed, fair forenoon in the evening some showers

Monday 22d

Ephraim ~~Lewen~~ & young Charles mowed ~~till breakfast~~ part of all day, Lewen a part of the day & helped in with 2 loads of Rye, big Charles ploughed potatoes in the morning, & helped in with Rye, Jacks, Ally, & Robt. moulding potatoes & their grain &c. a long spell of rain in the middle of the day Tempestuous

During the remainder of this week the hands were employed in hauling Hay, Grain, ploughing Corn &c. &c. the weather very uncertain being wet occasionally & mostly Cool

Monday 29th

Ephraim & Lewen hauled in 3 loads of Hay & Willed a stew, big Charles ploughed Corn & Pompey hoed it. the rest at sundry jobs say raking Hay &c. I went to E. Bury

Tuesday 30 July 1816

The men hauling Grain, & sundry other jobs, some showers & cool pompey not at work

Wednesday 31st

The people mowing, ploughing Corn, hauling grain &c. a gloomy dewly day but not much rain

Thursday 1st Aug.st

The people cutting Barley, hauling grain, & cutting grass &c — a fine cool fair day, the people began to the Bridge, two hands digging foundation from after dinner — 2 Sows supposed abt. this time 1844

Friday 2

The people cutting grass, hauling &c. a fair cool day, two hands at the foundation of the Bridge —

Saturday 3

Ephraim Lewen &c. raking Hay &c. big Charles ploughed at the road in the forenoon, in the evening hauled in ~~two~~ one load of Hay & 310 sheaves of Barley a shower about dinnertime & clear in the evening.

Monday 5th

Ephraim & Lewen & D.d Snook cutting Oats, Pompey Ally &c. raking & binding, big Charles went to Mr. Willis for 40 13 bushels of Lime, young Charles at the road a fair day two hands at the Bridge foundation

Tuesday 6th

Ephraim Lewen & Dan.l Snook cutting Oats, Elly Pompey &c. raking, big Charles went to Jamytown for 902 feet of boards & afterwards put in the rem.r of the Barley, two men digging foundations till dinnertime & afterwards quarrying stones a fine day & pretty warm

Wednesday 7th

Ephraim Lewen & Dan.l Snook cutting Oats, Pompey Elly &c raking & binding, young Charles at the road, two hands quarrying stones for the Bridge a fine day —