VOL. 68. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1906. NO. 16

WINDING UP

We are just winding up one of the greatest reduction sales our establishment has ever had. Every year the buying public seem to appreciate more fully our fair and square method of disposing of stock late in season.

We will continue this sale for a while longer and to make things even more brisk, have thrown into it a lot of Boys' Knee Pants Suits, that when you see them, you will agree that they are cheap enough to buy for next summer's wear.

MEN'S SUITS,
YOUTHS' SUITS,
BOYS' SUITS
UNDERWEAR,
SUSPENDERS,
HOSIERY

Everything in summer wear is included in this sale, which will continue but a short time longer.

You are welcome to come in and look around. The test of a thing's worth is comparison and unless you see these things and get our prices you don't know what a great saving we offer you.

Yours for business,
JAMES D. LUCAS.

WHAT IS SAID BY THOSE USING THE DEERING CORN HARVESTER:

CHESTERTOWN, Md., August 22, 1906.
INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER CO.—
Sirs: I purchased of Smith & Graham, your ocal agents, one of your Deering Corn Harvesters. I used it in all kinds of corn—light, heavy, weedy and wet—and it handled it very satisfactorily. I found that it was decidedly the cheaper way to cut off my corn.

Jewish Holiday.—Wednesday was New Years among the Jews. Abe Cohen and family spent the holiday in Baltimore and closed his Sandy Bottom store on that day. Mr. H. H. Beneman at Millington observed the holiday Thursday and will also be closed Sept. 29th until 6 P. M.

New Resort.—Thursday's Wilmington Evening Journal says: "The proposed resort, Chesapeake Haven, is located in Cecil county, on the shores of the bay midway between the Elk and Sassafras river, and the trolley line to be built extending from Wilmington will afford connection with Chesapeake Haven, the trip from here consuming about one hour and twenty minutes. Such a road is a possibility in the near future.

Ralph C. Lupton, of this city, is one of the incorporators of the company, the Chesapeake Land Improvement Company, which will manage the resort. A tract of land has been purchased and will be laid out into building sites for cottages. The company will build and manage its own hotels.

Broke His Leg.—Mr. John Tucker while cutting off corn on his farm near Golts fell over some corn stubble and broke his leg in two places. It was a singular accident and Mr. Tucker has suffered considerably.

LIVE LOCAL NOTES

Property Sales.—Mr. Phillip G. Wilmer, trustee, sold at public sale Tuesday the "Handy farm," of 86 acres near Fairlee to Mr. Clarence Miller for $740. For the separate tracts $500 and $210 was offered.

Mr. J. Frank Young has bought of Mr. W. H. Warram his property at Betterton. The sale was made through J. Waters Russell, real estate broker.

Queer Freight.—Supt. Matthews, of Adams' Express Co, says he carried a box of fried chicken weighing nearly five pounds to a young man in Philadelphia Thursday. At this writing he had not heard of its safe arrival, but was uneasy lest its odor might tempt someone.

Postmaster Harris, of Baltimore, was puzzeled to know how to deliver a cake of ice to President Roosevelt which had been mailed at his office!

To Sell Out.—Mr. A. L. Davidson proprietor of Chestertown's Marble and Granite Works, has concluded to discontinue business here, and in connection with his brother, Mr. Wm. Davidson, Jr., will take charge of Davidson's steam marble, granite and electric stone works, Wilmington, Del., now conducted by their father. This is one of the largest works in the East and these young men will add strength to it. The Chestertown yard furnishes an excellent chance for someone. It can be bought cheap now.

Wedding Events.—The wedding of Miss Jennie V. Copper to Mr. Lee G. Holliman was quietly solemnized at 913 St. Paul st., Baltimore, Sunday evening at 6 o'clock by Rev. W. F. Sheridan, pastor of Mt. Vernon M. E. Church, in the presence of a few friends from Baltimore. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. S. A. Copper, Chestertown, and for the most part of the past twelve years has successfully conducted the millinery department of the big department store of C. H. Jones & Co., Anderson, S. C. The groom is a popular young man of the same town but recently was appointed State Bank Examiner in which position he gives promise to succeed. Mr. and Mrs. Holliman after spending a few days in Washington, D. C., left for their future home in Columbia, S. C.

Rev. W. L. White, pastor of Chestertown M. E. Church, was called upon at 9.30 P. M. Friday to marry Mr. Alfred W. Dill and Miss Maud O. Lane, both of Worton, which request was granted.

Will Continue Sunday Trains.—Since the inauguration of Sunday trains on the Delaware Branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad, they have been so well patronized that it is reported they will continue the year round. It is also reported that the Sunday trains carry more passengers than the week day trains. This will give Chestertown a train every day throughout the year, something that it has not had since the construction of the railroads.

Convicted.—Lena Sewall, a colored girl of 14 years, indicted for setting fire to the outbuildings on the farm of Chas. W. Clark, near Earleville, in April last, was convicted of the crime in the Circuit Court for Cecil county Wednesday and sentenced by Judge Pearce to a term of five years in the penitentiary. The accused confessed to burning the buildings, but gave no reason for doing so.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Miss Carrie Hynson, maiden daughter of the late Richard and Mrs. Carolene Hynson, died at Atlantic City, N. J., Thursday at 2.30 p. m. after an illnes of some months. The deceased has been a sufferer for some months and went to the seashore with the hope of improvement. Everything that human hands and minds could do were lavished upon the beloved patient but all proved futile and she died as stated surrounded by her mother, sisters and brother. She leaves two sisters, Mrs. Marion Rogers, Mrs. Wm. M. Slay and a brother, Richard D. Hynson, Esq. She was a good woman inheriting all the characteristics of her parents and went about doing good. Her loss will not only be felt in the home but in her church and in the charity organizations of the town. The funeral will be held at 1 o'clock today, Saturday, interment in St. Paul's cemetery.

Mahlon Hudson Lee, the one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Lee, died at Pen Mar Sunday last. The remains were brought home by way of Tolchester on Monday evening and the funeral services were held from the home of the parents, near Fairlee, Tuesday morning; interment in Chester cemetery. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of arrangements.

Hannah Fountain, a well-known colored woman of Chestertown and Dave Blake, a respectable colored citizen were buried Tuesday.

Not Guilty.—Sheriff Medders arrested Daniel Miller, colored, last week charged with selling cider which was intoxicating. A sample of the liquid was analyzed and some surprising evidence produced but the justice did not deem it sufficient to hold him and he was released.

Changes.—Mr. Walter Bramble, harness dealer, has rented the S. F. Smith store room and will open a fine harness emporium there January 1st. Mr. Jos. Edwards will remove from the country and occupy the room now tenanted by Mr. Bramble.

Clean Sweep Sale.—Mr. Chas. E. Lane, of Galena, will begin a sale of all summer goods, clothing and furnishing goods next Thursday, Sept. 27. This will be an opportunity for Kent people to get bargains.

The Chestertown Strawboard Mill began operations Thursday after a shutdown of several months. The mill has been thoroughly overhauled and new boilers installed under the direction of Superintendent Clay.

THE will of Judge William R. Martin contains but five short clauses and leaves all property to his wife.
