IMPORTANT NOTICE.

On and after SATURDAY, October 6th, 1906, Chestertown subscribers to the KENT NEWS will receive their papers from the Chestertown postoffice.

This innovation has become necessary because of the theft of papers, of non-delivery in some cases, of destruction by wind and rain, etc., etc.

The NEWS will be found at the post-office on and after October 6th, and in order to make the list complete we hope all who fail to receive their paper the first week will so notify us, and the mistake will be rectified at once and no further trouble in delivery will be experienced.

Known in Kent.

Both the candidates for Judge in Baltimore nominated by the two great parties are well known in Kent. Mr. Wm. A. Wheatley, who achieved such a decided victory over his five opponents in the contest for the Democratic nomination, is a cousin of Messrs. Charles, Joseph N. and Wm. A. Wheatley, of Chestertown, and is one of the brilliant young members of the Baltimore bar. He is extremely popular with the people and a man of high character and legal ability. Mr. Thomas Ireland Elliott, the Republican candidate, is a son-in-law of H. W. Vickers, Esq., and is also very popular with all classes, while his legal knowledge and high character are unquestioned.

Make a Case.

Since the decision of the court in the matter of the new assessments of property in Queen Anne county many persons are questioning the legality of the Kent assessment, although there is a vital difference between the cases in the two counties. In Queen Anne the assessment included real as well as personal property while in Kent only personal property was assessed, and this it is claimed to be the duty of the tax authority to reach at any time.

Whether there is any cause for questioning the legality of the Kent assessment or not is secondary now. The question is, do the people generally acquiesce in the act of the County Board in making the assessment? A great majority do, we believe. But there are many who do not, and if there is to be trouble and litigation over the collection of new personalty assessments it will come from that class who now question the authority of the Board for the new assessment. Why not then have the matter considered and passed upon by our Circuit Court at its October sitting?

Certainly some amicable arrangement could be had by which a case could be brought officially before the court and the matter definitely settled. We therefore suggest that such action be taken by the proper authorities.

Judge Martin's Successor.

At the request of Gen. Jos. B. Seth and others Governor Warfield, on Tuesday last postponed the appointment of a successor to the late Judge Martin until after his return from Jamestown. Accordingly upon the Governor's return on Thursday he announced the appointment of Wm. H. Adkins, Esq., of the Easton bar. Nine members of the Easton bar endorsed Covington and three were for Adkins. Five of the Kent bar also endorsed Mr. Covington and a majority of the Cecil bar. Caroline was for Mr. Deweese and Queen Anne was divided. One member of the Kent bar was for Mr. Deweese.

Judge Adkins is a member of the Easton bar, about 42 years of age, and a lawyer of high character. He has a lucrative practice and his personal character is beyond reproach. He is recognized as an "independent" in politics. He will make an exemplary judge without a doubt.

Judge Adkins will hold the position until the general election of next year when two judges will be elected for the full term of fifteen years—one to succeed Judge Crothers and the other to succeed Judge Adkins.

Registration days this year will be Tuesday, October 2, and Tuesday, October 9, from 8 a. m. to 7 p. m. Revision day will be Tuesday, October 16. Every person who has changed his residence since last election day must go in person to his old voting precinct and get a transfer certificate and take it in person to his present voting precinct and get registered, otherwise his name will be stricken from the books and he will lose his vote.

AN "inquirer" is informed that when oystermen are arrested for having a lot of little oysters these oysters become the property of the State and are carried to the beds and placed thereon. A violator of the law can be arrested as many times as he is caught.

THE New York primaries resulted in a victory for Tammany-Murphy over McClellan and Roosevelt, Parsons over the Odell-Quigg combination.

The Rev. C. T. Denroche, has found that a smaller parish than St. Paul's and I. ALONG THE RIVER NOTES.

Lost His Anchor and Rudder—Sold Interest in Boat—Fishing Parties—Oyster Roasts.

Capt. Leonard Rawleigh in charge of the sloop Lucy took Mr. Lowe and son down the river last week on a fishing trip but met with poor luck. He lost his rudder and anchor, but by good management kept the yacht off the shore.

Capt. Charley Johnson launched another fine bateau this week. He is becoming an expert in this business.

Capt. S. T. H. Pfeffer has sold the bugeye "Gerdes" to Centreville parties and a part interest in the "Cecelia" to Capt. Ephraim Dill. Capt. Pfeffer retains the "Maggie C." for his large trade.

Edw. Lambert, of Easton, and Frank M. Miller, of Chestertown, returned from a fishing trip to the "Bight" Tuesday with fifty elegant rock measuring from 10 inches to 20 inches. Mr. Walter Strong and Mr. Hoffman caught fifty pound of elegant rock one day last week in Lankford Bay.

Messrs. T. W. Eliason and W. S. & A. M. Culp have unloaded large consignments of lumber at Chestertown wharves this week. A three-mast vessel from Norfolk was about three weeks reaching here. The captain reported that his mate had stolen all his money and left in his yawl boat making it impossible to follow him.

The Beck, Walker Co. loaded the Bertie E. Tull with one hundred tons of fertilizer within five hours Wednesday for Buck Neck.

One of the "pastimes" on the wharf while waiting for the boat is to net the crabs that are attracted by the electric light and which come swimming along the surface of the water. Crabs are plentiful in Chester river.

The following party enjoyed a splendid oyster roast and scald at Cliff City Thursday: Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Evans, Miss Violet Evans, Mrs. Seward, Miss Grace Seward, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thompson, Misses Helen, Hettie and Maud Jefferson, Marian Lusby, Effie Townsend, Gladys and Rebecca Aldridge, Messrs. D. B Ford, T. D. Bowers, Jesse Medders, J. W. Russell, W. D. Maslin, H. T. Jefferson.
