IMPORTANT NOTICE.

On and after SATURDAY, October 6th, 1906, Chestertown subscribers to the KENT NEWS will receive their papers from the Chestertown postoffice.

This innovation has become necessary because of the theft of papers, of non-delivery in some cases, of destruction by wind and rain, etc., etc.

The NEWS will be found at the post-office on and after October 6th, and in order to make the list complete we hope all who fail to receive their paper the first week will so notify us, and the mistake will be rectified at once and no further trouble in delivery will be experienced.

RACE riots at Atlanta, Ga., resulted in the death of one white man and 18 negroes. All is quiet now.

CUBA should be annexed at once. The people there have proven their inability to govern themselves and the sooner Uncle Sam takes charge the better off all concerned will be. Annex Cuba. It will be a valuable asset, much more so than the Phillippines.

THE Kent County Teachers' Institute, held this week in Chestertown, under Prof. Milton Melvin's direction, has been a delightful affair and one of the best in the schools' history. The parents have every reason to be proud of the excellent corps of teachers now in charge of the children of this county.

W. R. HEARST, the noted journalist, has been nominated by the Democrats for Governor of New York. Ordinarily this would be a great honor, but coming to Hearst as it does from the worst elements of Tammany Hall and a "manipulated" State convention, the honor is at a vast discount. The Republicans have named Charles E. Hughes.

GOVERNOR WARFIELD is opposed to "campaign assessments" for election expenses. We think the Governor is off the track in this matter. The office-holders are certainly the proper ones to contribute to all legitimate election expenses and that there are heavy expenses to be met in every election- and perfectly legitimate too—no one knows better than the Governor himself. The Governor sanctioned all such assessments when he was a candidate. Why then taboo it now?

The Difference.

Without prejudice we seriously ask the voters who read the KENT NEWS to consider these facts:

Mr. Wm. H. Jackson has absolutely no qualification whatever as a Congressman. During his four years in Congress he was seldom at the Capital. He was not active in committee work nor in the routine and detail duties of a member. He told a persistent constituent once that he was "in Congress for glory, and had the money to afford it." In four years he did not once openly participate in legislative work.

When Mr. Thomas A. Smith went to Washington he gave his whole time to his Congressional duties, and his committee colleagues found him helpful in council and dependable in floor work. He spoke on the national educational bill and on the canned-good clause of the pure-food bill. There was no wild inflow of members to hear him speak, but the serious, earnest men who were in their seats found that the First Maryland district again had a Representative who had convictions, information on legislative subjects and the ability to express them in plain, forceful language. The biggest industry of the Eastern Shore is fruit and vegetable canning, and it interests the farmer who grows the crops, the "capitalist" who runs the cannery, and the man, woman and children who is employed by the one or the other; the merchant with whom is spent the profit of the farmer, and the earnings of the laborer and the many elements of the population which, consciously or unconsciously, are more or less dependent upon the packing industry. Mr. Smith was familiar with all phases of the subject both as a farmer, shipper and a past investigator of the industrial and manufacturing interests of the State, as he is with other interests of the Shore, economic, educational and governmental. The Democrats claim that an energetic, clean and plain man of the people like Mr. Smith is the type of Representative for the First district.

ALL SING.

The hymn was given out Wednesday at Ocean City "Uncle Billy" raised the tune and is now lustily singing: "Come on, my partners in distress." Bro. Ellegood, thinks that the second hymn given out will begin with "Let not conscience make you linger." In the meantime, Bro. Smith is sitting over in the "amen corner" quietly and contentedly humming to himself, "I've reached the land of corn and wine."—Port Deposit Press.

The following chorus is sung by the floaters; "If you've got no money you needn't come around."

THE electric railway, built by the Pennsylvania Railroad between Camden and Atlantic City was opened to the general public Tuesday. The trains, consisting of three cars each, are scheduled to make the run of nearly 60 miles in 90 minutes. Trains leave the terminals in Camden and Atlantic City on the hour from 7 A. M to 11 P. M. The early trains were well filled with passengers.

Base Ball.—Millington was the scene of one of the best played games of base ball last Saturday witnessed on the Eastern Shore this season, when the Church Hill team crossed bats with the Millington boys, and were defeated by the score of 1 to 0 The game was a pitcher's battle throughout, with honors in favor of Finnan for Millington. Finnan struck out 17 men and did not allow a single hit, while Jones, of Church Hill, struck out 14 men and allowed only four scattering hits, no two of which were in the same inning.

HAS THE PUBLIC FORGOTTEN?

Norman E. Mack, of Buffalo, a member of the Democratic National Committee, expressed some surprise that the public had forgotten a speech made by President Roosevelt last fall at Chautauqua, when the Chief Executive declared himself in favor of Government ownership of railroads under certain conditions.

Mr. Bryan, in advocating government ownership of railroads, used almost the precise language of President Roosevelt in a speech he made at Chautauqua last fall. President Underwood, of the Erie Railroad, and several prominent railroad men also heard the President's words.

On that occasion, President Roosevelt declared that if a satisfactory rate bill could not be prepared and Federal regulation of railroads accomplished in that way the Government would be compelled to take over the railroads.

The Tax Dodgers.

EDITORS KENT NEWS:

Explaining your editorial mention of my article in the Baltimore Sun of August 17th, I would like very much to say that what I objected to in the Sun's editorials on Eastern Shore political conditions is that the Sun seems to appease its conscience by attacks on our section of the State and condones by silence conditions in Baltimore City more conducive to political prostitution.

For instance: It was reported in February 1904, during my term in the Maryland Legislature, that a small section of Baltimore City had been destroyed by fire, causing an immediate loss of over $100,000,000 on buildings and contents of buildings, and Baltimore City asked for relief from the State Legislature.

I accepted the statement that the fire loss was $100,000,000 as correct and asked at the hearing before the legislature granted the City solicitor, Mayor, etc. what they needed and was told that the financial condition of the city would not permit them to take care of an emergency like the big fire and that the City needed State aid. I asked what the total loss accruing from fire and was told that about $80,000,000 of property had been destroyed on which only $30,000,000 insurance was in effect.

I asked what was the assessed valuation of the burnt district and was furnished a typewritten report stating that the total assessed valuation of land, buildings and contents of buildings and property of corporations in the Burnt Area was only $39,000,000. I stated that it seemed to me that if the City of Baltimore could afford to have lands in the Burnt Area worth not less than $80,000,000 and buildings and contents worth not less than $80,000,000 and assesses that $160,000,000 of property for only $39,000 000 or less than 25 per cent., it could certainly afford to provide for its own losses especially after robbing the balance of the State by illegal and inadequate assessments, but threw the burden of taxation on the Counties. No property in Kent County that I ever heard of is assessed at 25 per cent. of its value and I know of property in Kent that is not worth the assessed value.

So much for the past. As to the present a little statement in the third paragraph of the Greeting in the official program of Jubilee Week Sept. 9 16th, 1906, tells us that: "One hundred millions in splendid modern structures have taken the place of sixty five millions destroyed." I don't doubt it. But I doubt seriously that any large percentage of that $100,000,000 will ever get on the assessment books, unless the counties see to it that the laws are enforced on Baltimore assessments as they are in Kent and other agricultural sections of the State. The Sun not only neglects to remedy this condition, but I am prepared to prove for the benefit of the Sun and your Readers, that the Abells' estate shares largely in the looting of the balance of the State by tax dodging as well as by close association with that expert on tax dodging, "Soup House" Charlie Bonaparte.

Truly let the Sun get busy at home.

Very truly yours,
CECIL R. ATKINSON,
Sept. 8th, 1906. Chestertown, Md.

ROYAL Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Healthful cream of tartar, derived solely from grapes, refined to absolute purity, is the active principle of every pound of Royal Baking Powder.

Hence it is that Royal Baking Powder renders the food remarkable both for its fine flavor and healthfulness.

No alum, no phosphate—which are the principal elements of the so-called cheap baking powders and which are derived from bones, rock and sulphuric acid.

TIE-UP THREATENED!

Captains And Other Officers Ask For More Pay—Monday is Day For Resignations —35 Steamers Affected.

Unless some satisfactory agreement is reached within the next five days between the managements of the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic Railway Company, the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway Company, the New York and Baltimore Transporation Company and the Philadelphia and Baltimore Steamboat Company (the Ericsson Line) and many of the captains and other officers of the big transporation lines who have demanded an increase in their wages, one of the most serious tieups of shipping ever known in Baltimore is threatened. Seventy masters and lower officers of the lines named, it was stated, tendered their resignations on Friday last, to take effect on Monday next, October 1, and it was said that other masters of vessels are ready to throw their fortunes with the men who have virtually issued their ultimatum to the big lines which control 90 per cent. of the shipping along the Light street piers.

"For a long time it has been apparent," he said, "that a disparity has existed between the pay of deck officers and engineroom officers. For example, the chief engineers of the steamers involved in this discussion received 20 per cent. more pay than the master, and the first assistant engineers received the same pay as the captains of the boats, who shoulder all the responsibility and discipline of the crew, and who spend many years to attain the skill necessary to their profession, and who of necessity must be men of reliability.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company is paying the officers of its steamers in the port of New York for the same service from 50 to 75 per cent. more than it is paying in this port. The service in these waters is very difficult in its requirements Masters must understand thoroughly the different routes in the tributaries of the Chesapeake Bay, and must have the necessary qualifications to navigate them both day and night. Since the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has had charge of the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic and the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Lines their business has increased greatly. The routes and hours of duty have been increased, with no corresponding compensation to the men, some of the licensed officers being paid as low as $30 per month. With the exception of one or two cases licensed masters are receiving from $75 to $100, first mates from $40 to $60 and second mates from $30 to $40 per month.

The wages asked for are: On Chester River and Claiborne routes, masters, $100; first officers, $65, and second officers $45 per month. Choptank River routes, masters, $115; first officers, $70, and second officers, $59 per month. For routes below Cove Point, masters, $125; first officers, $80, and second officers, $60 per month, and for licensed quartermasters $35 per month."

About 35 steamers would be affected by the threatened tieup and a paralysis along the Light-street wharves second only to the great ice embargo of two winters ago.

The lines which would be affected are the Claiborne, or railway, division of the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic; the Piankatank River Route, the Choptank River route, the Wicomico route, the Nanticoke, the Pocomoke, the Potomac and the Chester Rivers.

A BALTIMORE special says that the banker's committee in charge of the assets of the unlucky tomato canners "combine" has decided to sell no more stock until the market improves. They are said to control 350,000 cases the withdrawal of which will have considerable effect on the market. A number of packers caught in the "corner" will, it is understood, fight bankruptcy proceedings with which they are threatened.
