Saturday 4. Janr. 1817

A Slight frost last night Lewen & young Charles thrashing Rye, Pompy, & big Charles cleaning Staves, Chas. in the ew[illegible] Oiling Guns &c. &c. rained in the forenoon, & in the ev[illegible] clear & likely to freeze — I went to Mr. Tom[illegible] Reids &c. —

Monday 6th

Yesterday & last night a moderate frost last night Lewen ran off, Ephraim & young Charles thrashing Rye, Pompy & big Charles at Sundays yesterday raining & blustering Storm for the road a mild day & soft in the evening

Tuesday 7th

A moderate frost last night, Pompy went to W. Minter with a letter about Lewen to B. Mow. Ephraim, & the two Charles, cleaning Rye, & sent to the Mill 48 Bushels, a mild warm day Ephm hauled 4 loads of Stone, he & Charles put in some Stone equal to 7 loads.

Wedy. 8th

Very little frost last night, all hands employed in cleaning Rye, sent 38 Bushels to Price & co of scourings, put in some Rye in the evening — Jno. Walker hauled Stone in the forenoon, a mild day

Thursdy. 9th

A pretty keen frost last night, Lewen returned this morning having been at Baltimore — Lewen & young Charles thrashing Rye, Ephraim, Pompy, & big Charles with 2 Carts part of the day employed at getting & hauling Stone valued at 2.75 Dans. Snook at repairing the Barn floor &c. a dark day & threatning a fall —

Friday 10th

A very slight frost last night, Lewen & young Charles thrashing Rye ~~last night~~, Pompy at Sundys, Ephraim, big Charles, & the Cart hauling Stone, I went to Jos. Supples funeral, a cool fair day —

Saturday 11th January 1817

Last night very stormy & hard frost Lewen & young Charles thrashing Rye, Pompy at Sundry jobs, hard frost & cold throughout this seems to be in Winter the weather having been uncommonly mild, no snow & very little frost

Monday 13th

Yesterday & last night very hard frost Lewen & young Charles thrashing Rye Ephraim & big Charles cutting wood Pompy went for a Barrel of Whisky. Chop Mr. a. Lewen clear pretty day —

Tuesdy. 14th

hard frost last night Lewen & Charles thrashed Rye till 4 O'Clock Pompy, Ephraim & Charles at Sundry jobs cleaned up 21 Bushels Rye

Wedy. 15th

Set out for Baltimore with Charles & the Waggon dined at Dr. Fahrs & went to Baltimore, staid all night & on ~~Thursday 16~~ Friday 17th

Set out for Annapolis & arrived there about one O'Clock fine moderate frost On Friday night a little snow & very cold, on Saturday & Sunday exceedingly cold & hard frost on Monday 20th returned to B. Mow with Mayant in a Carriage a mild frost Remained in B. Mow till Thursday morning when it came on to snow rode to Dr. Fellis it having snowed incessantly during the day. staid all night & on Friday the 24 arrived at home by one O'clock & found all well, the people having been employed threshing, fodder, hauling some wood &c. in my absence a Cow calved & a Cow calved again this morning pretty day, Charles did not get the waggon home till this evening, he came to Lewis town last night