Tuesday 23 Sept. 1817

Pompey & Ephraim cutting Corn Jodder Johnson, in the Evening went at Sundrys, by Charles ploughing all day A. Peppul, Phelix, Mr. Allister, young Charles, & I Cart at the road, a damp day with frequent slight rain —

Wedesday 24th

Much rain last night Pompey & Ephraim sowed Rye Sedy Charles took the gray mare to get cut for the Roots & afterwards sowed Rye A. Peppul, Phelix, Mr. Allister, little Charles & the 2 Carts at the Road, a fine moderate day

Thursdy. 25th

Pompey Ephraim & Charles spreading manure, A. Peppul, Phelix, Mr. Allister, little Charles & the 2 Cart. at the road a fine moderate day —

Friday 26

The 3 men spreading manure till breakfast, afterwd. Pompey & Ephraim topt Corn, & Charles ploughing, A. Peppul, Phelix, Mr. Allister, little Charles & one Cart at the road, a fine day

Saty 27

Charles ploughing, Ephraim & Pompey cutting Corn Tops A. Peppul, Phelix, Mr. Allister, young Charles & 1 Cart at the road, a fine temperate day

Monday 29th

I set out for Baltimore with 18 Bullocks, W. Sold the 6 of hundred & returned on Sunday, found that Charles had been ploughing, Pompey & little Charles at hauling manure &c. fine weather during the week.

Monday 6 Oct.

Charles ploughing, Pompey & Ephraim gathering Corn, Phelix Priently, little Charles & 1 Cart fixing at the road, but in the way

Sunday 7

Pompey ploughed in the morning it came on to rain in afternoon hard rain, Pompey & Ephraim trampled wheat young Ch. at Sunday Jobs Johnson in the way hauled stone went Jamaica fair in the way

Wednesday 8 Oct. 1817

Chiefly.

Pompey & old Jack gathering Corn, Ephraim trampling wheat — A. Peppul, Phelix, Priently, & little Charles at the road a very fine day, also James Wallace

Thurs. 9th

Charles ploughing, Pompey & Ephraim trampling wheat, little Charles, A. Peppul, Phelix, Priently, & James at the road a fine day —

Friday 10

Charles ploughing, Ephraim trampling wheat, Pompey all day, little Charles Johnson gathering Corn, little Charles in the evening Hack, A. Peppul, Priently, Phelix, & James at the road. a fine day —

Saturdy 11th

Big Charles harrowing, A. Peppul, Phelix, Priently, James, & little Charles Hack at the road a fine day

Monday 13th

Pompey & Ephraim at the Corn, the two Charles harrowing, only big Charles ploughed at the road yesday a fair day but gloomy Phelix, & Priently all day, A. Peppul a day at the road

Side roads

Tuesdy. 14

Rained nearly all last night, & during the forenoon the people employed in cleaning wheat, repairing fences &c. no work done at the road —

Wedy. 15

A smart frost last night Pompey & Ephraim sifting wheat, big Charles laying out for sowing in the forenoon in the evening, the all sowed planters, little Charles sick, A. Peppul, Phelix, & Priently at the road, 1 Cart in the evening, a gloomy damp day —

Thursday 16

The people cleaning wheat & spreading hay, A. Peppul, Phelix & Priently at the road 3/4 of a day little Charles unwell, rain from 10 till 12 fair in the evening — Pompey sowed 3 Bushels wheat