ESTABLISHED 1841.

FRED. G. USILTON. WM. B. USILTON, JR

WM. B. USILTON'S SONS, PUBLISHERS.

SATURDAY, - - OCTOBER 13, 1906

We are indebted to the Easton Star-Democrat for loan of cut of Hon. W. H Adkins

At the present rate of consumption it is estimated that the supply of hickory will be exhausted within a few years. The scarcity of hickory was the chief subject of discussion at the annual convention of the National Association of Agricultural Implements and Vehicle Manufacturers.

The good work done by Congresman Thos. A. Smith in the cause of stringent immigration laws brought forth the commendation of the State officers of the P. O.S. of A. at the reception in Chestertown Tuesday night. This was a high honor for the Democratic candidate and we are no doubt that the members of this order and all other good citizens will show their appreciation of his faithful services by returning him to Congress. He is a worthy representative and will look after the people's interests.

The voters of Cecil county will be called upon at the coming election to decide the liquor question. Kent county borders on Cecil and is concerned in the outcome. While prohibition does not stop the sale of liquor in Kent yet it greatly lessens the traffic and makes our people better. If the question ever comes up here again license would be defeated by an overwhelming majority. Public sentiment against liquor is increasing and as it progresses this evil of drink will be lessened. Do not license an evil.

Here is a refreshing item: "State's Attorney John J. Healey, of Chicago, turned over to Cook county all the fees of his office for the last two years, amounting to $51,213. Healey's act was in accordance with promises made by him before election, in which he declared that if elected he would accept the statutory salary of $10,000 as his compensation and would turn over all the fees to the county. This is the first time in the history of this county that a State's Attorney has surrendered the fees of his office.

At the recent Conference of the religious society of Friends at Mountain Lake Park, Maryland, where many thousands of Friends assembled for a week under the privileges courteously bestowed by the Methodist corporation owning the grounds, it was noted with surprise that after the first day of the Conference all policemen and deputies for order were dismissed for the week and given a vacation. This was said to be unprecedented Another occasion for surprise that had no precedent for such a large gathering, was when the railroad officials were amazed that in the large requisition for passenger coaches no smokers were included or needed.

CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS.

The Unaccountable Attitude of a Republican Editor.

From the Concordia (Kan.) Empire Repub.

We have been invited to send a dollar contribution to the Republican campaign fund that is being raised by popular subscription, and to which President Roosevelt recently subscribed. We would like to have our dollar in such select company all right, but we've done all the contributing we intend to do this year.

We recently have completed building a house at a cost of something more than $4,000, and for every foot of lumber, every pane of glass, every sack of cement, every pound of nails, and in fact for nearly every bit of material that went into it we made a good, liberal contribution through the trusts that control them, and we guess we have done our share.

It may be treason for a Republican newspaper to talk this way, but facts are facts, and it sort of relieves our conscience to tell the truth about the trusts once in a while. We'll just let the several trusts to which we have had to pay unwilling tribute in the past year pay our dollar for us. We need it and they don't.

W. C. Wins.—Washington College won from the Dover Conference Academy team at Chestertown Saturday by 10 to 0. All the scoring was done in the first half, the bad footing and wet ball preventing either side from making consistent gains during the second half. On straight football Washington outclassed the academy and was able to make two touchdowns, mostly on old-style football. During the second half the academy worked some clever kicks and passes allowable under the new rules, but was unable to carry the ball over.

For Washington, Captain Long, White and Porter did excellent work. Johnson, fullback for the academy, was very strong both on offense and defense.

In the strenuous practice game on Tuesday afternoon Young Cordry, of Princess Anne, severely hurt his arm and left the next day for his home.

Mr. Daniel J. Mahoney, athletic instructor, is giving the squad daily practice and has a good second team to give them excellent work.

[illegible] is the schedule of Washington football team:

ASSOCIATE JUDGE WM. H. ADKINS.

Appointed to Fill the Vacancy on Bench of Second Circuit.

William H. Adkins, attorney-at law, is one of the influential professional men of Easton, where he has engaged in practice since 1859. He is director of and counsel of the Easton National Bank, the Easton Water Company, the Easton Ice Company; and is counsel for the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic Railway Company, the Workingman's Permanent Building and Loan Association, the Shannahan & Wrigatson Hardware Company, the W. W. Tunis & Brother Lumber Company, the Oxford Savings Bank, and several other corporations. In addition to other interests he has given considerable time to the settlement and management of his fathers estate.

Mr. Adkins was born at Woodland, the family homestead near Easton, July 21, 1862, and received his education under private tutors, in the Bishop's school of Easton and at Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, from which he was graduated in 1885 with the degree of A. B. While in Baltimore, in connection with his literary studies, he took a law course in the University of Maryland, and also studied in the office of Machen & Gittings. In 1853 he received the degree of LL. B., and was admitted to the bar, after which he engaged in practice in Baltimore until 1889. At that time, his father having died, he returned to Easton to look after the settlement of the estate, and he has since been active in the profession here. October 8, 1891, he married Mary H., daughter of the late Mordecai M. Dawson, who was vice president of the Easton National Bank, and one of Easton's oldest and most respected business men.

IN PULPIT AND PEW.

[Ministers and other church workers are invited to send us brief, snappy accounts of interest to readers of this column, keeping within the limits of a single paragraph. When notices are too long they will be scaled down to meet the requirements of space.]

Rev. Eben N. Baldwin, of Claymont, Del., preached at St. James Sunday morning, Lynch's in afternoon and at Christ Church at night. He is a forcible exponent of the religion he professes and greatly pleased his auditors. The reverend gentleman says he believes in the aggressive kind of religion. "I love to see a horse go, an engine run and if I have anything to say I believe in saying it and sit down," was a striking sentence in his spicy discourse. He was the guest of Mr. Samuel Vannort while in Kent.

The first of the Christian Workers service for the fall was held in Christ Church Sunday evening, Miss Hattie Bacchus and Mr. Clinton Jones in charge.

Rev. Ralph T. Coursey, stationed at Milton, Delaware, has gone to Kansas to engage in Holiness Camp Meeting work.

Father Ott, of Newark, Del., will have charge of the services in Sacred Heart Church and at Rock Hall on Sunday.

Rev. Harris, of Piney Neck Church, will deliver a sermon to the Knights of Pythias on Sunday night, 14th inst., at 7.30 o'clock. Come everybody and hear something that will do you good.

Public Worship at Christ M. P. church at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Themes: "A Sermon of the Plow" and "Some Inquiries About Young Men". Testimony service at 9.30 a. m. Sunday school at 2.30 p. m. Christian Workers and Junior Endeavorers in joint service at 6.45 p. m.

Kidwell Bros. Fail.—James McEvoy, was Tuesday appointed by Judge Morris, in the United States Court, receiver for the Kidwell Bros. Company, a Delaware corporation, engaged in the canning business at 2331 to 2339 Boston street, Baltimore. The receiver, who bonded for $30,000, was appointed after the company had been adjudicated a bankrupt, with its consent. The following are the petitioners who asked that the company be adjudicated a bankrupt, with the amounts of their claims: Richard H. Diggs, trading as Samuel J. Diggs & Son, $619.90; the Simpson & Doeller Company, $255.40, and Jenness & Taylor, $218.41, all on open account. The assets of the company consist entirely of fixtures, machinery and stock in its plant on Boston street, valued at $50,000, and open accounts to the amount of about $25,000. In order to preserve the stock and prevent loss, the appointment of a receiver was necessary, it was claimed. The company had a branch plant in Mobile, Ala., which was destroyed in the recent Southern tornado. Many attribute the company's financial embarrassment to the loss sustained in the South.

MARVELOUS HORSES.

A circus without fine horses would be like an opera without fine singers, and the Frank A. Robbins new and greatest all feature shows which is to exhibit in Chestertown on Thursday, Oct. 25, has just added a whole troupe of the most superb performing stallions, saddle and trick horses ever seen under a circus tent. Ten truly magnificent specimens of equine perfection, all ridden, driven and performed by that master of equestrianism, Herr Hugo Herzog, who brought to this country the greatest stud of high school trick horses ever on exhibition. These marvelous animals do almost everything but talk, while their drills, quick steps, cake walks and general divertisement, under saddle and at liberty in the arena never fail to excite rounds of applause. They waltz, march, maneuvre, walk erect on their hind feet, cavort and obey every wink, nod or wish of their skillful trainer, and deport themselves in a way that would drive the horse show set wild with envy.

The overall plant has been closed for several days, pending a change in management. Mr. Charles S. Smith was elected superintendent Tuesday, vice Mr. T. D Larrimore who removed with his family to Baltimore Wednesday. Mr. Smith is a hustler and it is hoped the new industry will prosper under his direction.

The estate of the late Judge W. R. Martin was appraised at $15,005.58. The principal items are 100 shares of the Easton National Bank stock, 40 shares Talbot Savings Bank stock, 24 shares Moreland Block stock and his new law library, which is valued at $1000

ENGINE CRASHES THROUGH PIER.

No. 5 Is At The Bottom Of The Bay At Love Point.

Engine No. 5 of the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway, Frank Mahoney engineer, crashed through the pier at Love Point, Tuesday, and is now in the bay. No. 5 is the largest engine on that division of the road, and while shifting on the pier some week timbers were encountered about 30 yards from shore. The engine sank through on one side and turned completely over in 10 feet of water. So quickly did it turn that the engineer barely had time to spring from the cab into the water and keep himself from being caught under the machinery. He swam ashore. The fireman was not on the engine at the time. Twelve cars loaded with fertilizer were standing on the siding on the pier, but none of these went into the water. The pier is a wreck, the steamboat landing being entirely cut off from shore. The damage to the pier is estimated at about $2,000.

Capt. John T. Covell Retired.—Conductor John T. Covell, who has for thirty years been in charge of the passenger train between Centreville and Townsend, Del., on the Queen Annes and Kent division of the Pennsylvania railroad was retired on Monday last, having reached the age which entitles him to be placed on the pension list. On account of his health he has been unable to perform his duty for several months. His place was temporarily filled by Mr. Jacob Bice. Mr. Ernest Maddox, of Lewes, Del., has been appointed permanently to the place made vacant by Mr. Covell, and Mr. Bice has been appointed to the place made vacant by Mr. Maddox. Mr. Covell is one of Centreville's best and most prominent citizens. His successor has been on the lines running from Harrington to Franklin City and Lewes for several years and is said to be very popular with the traveling public.

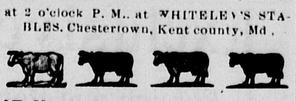

The Frank A. Robbins shows will be in Chestertown on Thursday, Oct. 25th, on W. W. Hubbard's lot.
