Saturday 1st Nov. 1817

The people employed in Hunting Cows, thrashing Rye &c. a cloudy rain —

Monday 3

Cleaned & Sent 9 Bushels of Rye to Mill the people at Sundry Jobs a fine day, F. Priestly ditching over the River a fine day

Tuesday 4

All hands taking up the remainder of the Potatoes F. Priestly ditching a fine day

Wedy. 5th

All hands Hunting Cows, F. Priestly ditching a fine day Ephraim Cut & Charles hauled some wood

Thursday 6th

All hands hunting Cows, thrashing fodder, till dinner when it came to rain, F. Priestly digging till dinner

Friday 7th

Big Charles & Ephraim fencing, Pompey & little Charles, hunting remainder of the Cows, put up 25 hogs to fatten &c. Frank Priestly ditching a warm clear day —

Saturdy. 8th

Big Charles hauling wood rails &c. Ephraim & little Ch. fencing, Pompey at Sundry jobs a fine day —

Monday 10th

Big Charles hauled rails in the forenoon, Ephraim & little Charles fencing, in the evening big Charles ploughed, Ephr. breaking & little Charles hauling stones, a warm dark day, with slight rain occasionaly

Tuesday 11th

Big Charles ploughing, Ephraim & Pompey killed a Bullock, & afterwards quartered, repaired the road &c. little Charles hauled stones, a mild day, the Dun Cow

Wedy. 12th

Big Charles ploughing, Ephraim, Pompey, & young Ch. hauling stones, & making French drains a mild fair day —

Thursday 13th Nov. 1817

A slight frost last night, Big Ch[illegible] & young Charles & Pompey hauling sto[illegible] French drains, a fine day —

Friday 14th

A smart frost last night, big Ch[illegible] Pompey went to Town for [illegible] from Ben Jones for 30 lb. of Wool 23½ of which I sent him & Ephraim & little Charles thrashed in the morning afterwards hauled stones & made French drains F. Priestly digging drains, I sent 8 Hides & 1 Calf skin to Luke Rudysie — a fine day —

Saty. 15th

Some rain fell last night big Charles ploughing Ephraim & little Charles thrashing in the morning, hauled stones & made drains forenoon, in the evening Charles went to Mr. Ross for 2 hogs & Ephraim did Sundry jobs, Pompey went to the fullers for cloth &c. & fed the Cattle a dark day with slight rain occasionaly — The Merino C[illegible]

Sunday 16th

I set out for Baltimore & returned on Friday the 21st when I found that the people had been employed as Worthy's report as follows viz on

Monday 17th

Ephraim & little Charles thrashing Rye, big Charles cleaning stables, Pompey at Sundry jobs, rained all day

Tuesdy. 18

Ephraim & little Charles thrashing Rye till dinner time, afterwards hauled stones for drains, big Charles cutting wood, Pompey at Sundry jobs took the Ox Cart to the Smith Shop —

Wednesdy. 19th

Ephraim, Pompey & little Charles hauling stones forenoon, in the evening little Charles hauled stones at the road, big Charles hauling wood &c —

Ephraim the cutting & big grandson Cow Rachel who has big C[illegible] by feeding