Tuesday 23 Decr. 1817

Hand of F. Pr. his mark

played thrashing, putting in Hay, feeding moderate frost —

Wednesday 24th

Worthy putting in Hay forenoon, in the ev. Charles went for Chop Ephraim & young Charles thrashing Rye, little Charles went to Tanytown & got Jack Shod a soft day slight rain in the evening Cut the red Cow

Thursday 25th

Much rain last night, this being Christmas day there was no work done except feeding the Cattle &c. a moderate thaw, & a considerable swell in the Rivers —

Friday 26th

This was also as a Holiday, Ephram, & young Charles went to Tanytown, Pompey & Charles staid at home & attended to the cattle, a moderate day & damp

Saturday 27th

A moderate frost last night Ephram & young Charles put in & began to thrash Rye, big Charles cut Straw, Pompey attend cattle a soft damp day

Monday 29th

Rain last night, Ephram & young Charles thrash Rye, big Charles hauled a load of wood, I went to S. P. for Sundays, Pompey feeding Cattle &c. a wet day a Ewe lamb —

Sunday 30 29

Much rain last night Ephm. & Charles thrash Rye, big Ch. cutting straw &c. Pompey at Sundy jobs, rain mostly all day —

Wedy. 31st

A Slight frost last night, Ephram & little Charles thrashing Rye, big Charles hauled two loads of wood, Pompey feeding Cattle &c. &c. a fine fair mild day, rather inclining to frost —

Thursday ~~January~~ 1st January 1818

A smart frost last night Ephram & young Charles put in the remainder of Rye & thrashed, big Charles hauled manure Pompey feeding Cattle &c. a fine clear day, 1 Lamb today

Friday 2

A Slight frost last night, 3 lambs this morning, Ephram & young Charles thrashing Rye, big Charles hauling manure, Pompey as usual feeding Cattle wood &c. a mild day, no frost

Saturday 3

A little rain last night, Ephram & young Charles thrashing Rye, Charles at Sundry jobs, Pompey feeding cattle &c. a gloomy day with some rain —

Monday 5th

Yesterday a Lamb, a moderate frost last night Ephram & Charles thrashing Rye, Charles hauled in Hay &c. Pompey at Sundays a fair mild day

Tuesdy. 6th

A Slight frost last night the hands cleaning Rye, sent 37½ Bushels to the Mill a mild day —

Wedy. 7th

A moderate frost last night, & 1 Lamb — Ephram & young Charles cleaned the Rye, hauled 2 loads of stone last, & put in some Hay — big Charles took one load of Rye 46½ Bushels to Mill & brot. a load of wood, a fine temperate day

Thursday 8th

A smart frost last night, 1 Lamb — Ephram & young Charles hauling wheat, big Charles helping to haul in wheat & Hay, Pompey feeding &c. a fine moderate day

Friday 9

A Slight frost last night Ephram & young Charles hauling wheat, Charles went to W. Minister with 44½ Bushels of Oats & 4 Barrels of wheat flour, Charles returned late in the evening & did not sell the Oats some snow in the evening —