Friday 27th Feby. 1818

A Slight frost last night James Campble begun to work for one Month at the rate of ten Dollars p Month, he helped to load Manure & put in Bay, big Charles hauling, Eph. cutting wood H. little Charles hauling Stones for P. Snook Pompey feeding as usual, Mill & Jac. Lutz thrashing Oats a fine temperate day —

Saty. 28th

A Slight frost last night, the 2 Charlers, James with the waggon & cart hauling Stones, sent to Mill 29 bushels of Rye, saw M. Lutz 30 bushels of Rye, a fine mild day — Ephraim & Jac. Lutz thrashing Rye

Mondy 1st March

Last night rained, blew, & thawed, James spread Manure a part of the day, Ephraim & young Charles thrashed Oats Pompey fed Cattle H. the Old Gray Horse died yesterday this day Cory had a heifer Calf rain a great part of the day big Charles went to the Mill for Corn & flour H. —

Tuesday 2d

Ephraim helped James Campble to spread manure in the forenoon, & in the evening warped to make fence, Campble spread all day, big Charles took the cart & plough to D. Snook's, Jac. Lutz & little Charles thrashed oats all day pompey fed Cattle H. young Cory had a heifer Calf, a damp dark day, in the evening a little Snow —

Wedny. 3d

Some Snow last night, James Campble spread dung in the forenoon, Ephraim & young Charles thrashing & cleaning Oats, big Ch. spreading manure, cutting straw, & went for Mrs Baplat for Molly who had a Sow Rain, hail & Snow mostly all day, with a high wind —

Thursday 4th

A deep Snow & frost last night, Charles cutting wood, Ephraim took charge of the Horses, hauled 2 loads of wood & stripped Calves James & young Charles cleaning Oats, Pompey feeding H. I went to Mr. Upshaw's in a sleigh, a clear day —

Friday 5th March 1818

Hard frost last night, a cow died, big Charles cutting & Ephraim hauling wood, James & young Charles put in Oats & finished cleaning 106 p 13 bushels — Pompy feeding Cattle H. a clear pretty day —

Saty. 6th

Hard frost last night, the two Charlers thrashing Oats Ephraim went to F. Town with 1 Cow, 1 horse hide, 2 Calf & 1 sheep skin, & afterwards he & James hauled in Oats Cory calved, also Old Cory a clear day & pretty — yesterday & moderate thaw the poor steer & sheep's Calf died, so far I have lost 3 Cows, 4 Calfs, 1 Bullock & 2 horses value $200 last night a very moderate frost — the two Charlers thrashing Oats, James quarrying with P. Snook, Eph. went to haul Stones, could take out but about half a load, he brt. 2 loads of wood & hauled in some hay Pompey skinned the Bullock & Calf Hides W. 44 Calf skin 5/12. a moderate thaw by the Sun —

Monday 8th

Tuesday 9th

A Slight frost last night the two Charlers thrashing Oats, Ephraim at Tanstown with skins, Guns H. Pompy feeding Cattle H. a clear temperate day — James with P. Snook

Wedy. 10th

A Slight frost last night the two Charlers thrashing Oats, Ephraim cutting wood, Mauling Rails H. Pompy feeding H. James with P. Snook a temperate day —

Thursday 11th

A very slight frost last night, the Charlers thrashing Oats, Ephraim Mauling Rails, Pompy feeding Cattle H. a remarkably fine clear day —

Friday 12th

Scarcely any frost last night Ephraim went for Guns H. to F. Town the Charlers thrashing Oats, Pompy feeding H. James with P. Snook, a very mild day —