Saturday 13th March 1818

The two Charlses thrashing Oats, Ephram quarrying gus Pompey feeding &c. James with P. Snooke a fine mild day

Monday 15th

A keen frost last night This day Abm. Pepple commenced working agreable to his bargain — Little Charles thrashing, Ephram hauling manure, Stones, & Oats, big Charles helping Abm. Pepple to fence, Pompey feeding Two Bieffes calfed, James digging in the garden, helping to load manure &c.

Tuesday 17th

A frost last night pretty keen, big Charles fencing with A. Pepple, little Charles thrashing Oats, Ephram hauling manure, wood &c. James in the garden, planted peas. Beans, & Currant Bushes, a cool clear day —

Wedy. 18th

A keen frost last night, big Charles fencing with A. Pepple, little Charles thrashing Oats, Ephram went to Mill hauled wood. & Hay, James hauled & spread manure in the garden a very cold dry day —

Thursday 19th

A keen frost last night, big Charles & A. Pepple half the day fencing near Mouse's, the other half at A. P. Ephram & little Charles with waggon & cart hauling Stones, Pompey feeding &c. James digging in the garden sowed some Cabbage, & lettice had a fine clear cool day

Friday 20th

A moderate frost last night, big Charles & the Ox Cart with A. Pepple fencing, Ephram & little Charles with the cart & Waggon hauling Stones, Pompey feeding, James in the garden planted Currant Bushes, Asparagus &c. a fine temperate day —

Saturday 21st March 1818

No frost last night, the two Charlses thrashing Oats, & Ephr. cut wood in the forenoon, James dug in the garden in the forenoon, A Pepple went to the Shop for the plough & commenced ploughing, it came on to rain about 12, he & James broke off about One, Ephram cleaned his horses &c. Pompey feeding as usual, it rained all the evening —

Monday 23

This being Easter & a wet day, all hands were idle —

Tuesday 24th

The two Charlses thrashing Oats, Ephram & James hauling earth from the drains in the meadow, Abm. Pepple mauling Rails, Pompey feeding as usual a fine clear drying day

Wednesdy. 25th

The two Charlses thrashing Oats, Ephram, & James hauling hauling Earth from the drains &c. Pompey feeding &c — A. Pepple mauling rails, a fine day — the Mould Cow & warner's Bieffe C.

Thursday 26th

The Charlses thrashing Oats, Ephram went to Woodies for things bo. at auction & afterwards to the Smith Shop & Mill for Chop, put in Hay &c. James helping A. Pepple to fence a dark day & slight rain occasionaly —

Friday 27th

The Charlses thrashing Oats, Ephram hauled wood, hay, & prepared for W. Minster, James dug in the garden & a piece of a drain, A. Pepple dug down gullies, & mended the plough, & commenced ploughing, a dark cold day with some rain —

Saty. 28th

A considerable fall of snow last night the two Charlses thrashing Oats, Ephram hauled 70 Bushels of oats to W. Minster, wh. I sold to Mr. Shrive with the remainder at 50 Cents pay — in the first of June, a very cold frosty day, but fair —