VOL. 68. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1906. NO. 20

...INDING UP

We are just winding up one of the greatest reduction sales our establishment has ever had. Every year the buying public seem to appreciate more fully our fair and square method of disposing of stock late in season.

We will continue this sale for a while longer and to make things even more brisk, have thrown into it a lot of Boys' Knee Pants Suits, that when you see them, you will agree that they are cheap enough to buy for next summer's wear.

MEN'S SUITS,
YOUTHS' SUITS,
BOYS' SUITS
UNDERWEAR,
SUSPENDERS,
HOSIERY

Everything in summer wear is included in this sale, which will continue but a short time longer.

You are welcome to come in and look around. The test of a thing's worth is comparison and unless you see these things and get our prices you don't know what a great offer you.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Sarah Scotten, widow ot the late John Scotten, died on Saturday afternoon last very suddenly at her home near Locust Grove of heart failure aged 68 years. She leaves two sons, James and Harry and six daughters to mourn her loss. Funeral services were held from her late residence Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. T. C. Smoot, of Galena, officiating; interment was made in the M. E. cemetery at Galena. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Frances Walmsley, widow of the late Captain Benjamin Walmsley, of Fredericktown, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Geo. R. Ash, Holly Hall, Elkton, on Thursday night last, in the 75th year of her age.

The deceased was a daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth Wilmer Briscoe, of Kent county, but had resided in Cecil county since her marraige. She was a lady of many virtues, energetic, affable, fond of society and a general favorite. She is survived by six children—Clarence Walmsley and Mrs. F. J. Murphy, of Baltimore; Mrs. W. A. Mitchell and Mrs. Geo. R. Ash, of Elkton; Mrs. S J. Weiant, of Dumont, New Jersey, and A. B. Walmsley, of New Haven, Conn.

The funeral was held on Monday and was private; services at St. Francis Xavier Church, near Warwick; interment in the adjoining cemetery.

Bartus C. Legg died at his home in Rock Hall early yesterday morning. He had been sick for several months and confined to his home. He was about 45 years of age and leaves a widow who was Miss Sarah Hersch before marriage, and two brothers. The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon from Rock Hall M. E. church.

GEN. RICHARD THOMAS.

Gen. Richard Thomas, cashier of the Easton National Bank for many years, died Sunday morning, aged 90 years. He had been ill for several months. He had been cashier of the Easton Bank ever since 1849.

General Thomas was born in Queen Anne's county. His paternal grandfather was an officer in the Continental Army. The father of General Thomas was an officer in the United States Navy during the War of 1812, and after the war, engaged in business at Queenstown.

General Thomas started in business at Centreville when a young man, and after several years moved to Easton.

He was a Whig and during the Civil War was a Union man. After the war he became a Democrat. He was a brigadier general on the staff of Governor Hicks. For many years he was much interested in the State militia. His wife died in 1884, and he left no surviving children.

Sale of Property.—Mr. I. W. Bailey, of Reedyille, Va., has purchased of Mr. P. A. M. Brooks his country home, situated near town, at private sale. The tract of land contains 17 acres, and is improved by an excellent residence. Mr. Brooks will remove to town and build a handsome home on Washington avenue, next door to Prof. Clarke, he having purchased the Graham lot.

Judge Crothers Gives Warning.—In the Henry Smith local option case, Smith, who is captain of a Rock Hall oyster buy boat, was on trial accused of purchasing whiskey for Rock Hall oystermen. It seems that Smith merely took the money, bought the whiskey in Baltimore when he carried his oysters over and brought it back, just as a convenience to the oystermen, and received no compensation. He was found not guilty. Judge Crothers, in delivering the opinion of the court, said that while under the law nothing could be done for this offense, the court wanted to give such persons warning to "be careful," and that they had better "go slow" in all such traffic, as they were liable to overstep the limit and that they would be dealt with accordingly.

COURT DOINGS

Judge Adkins on Bench—George Beck Foreman—Grand Jury Into Whiskey Cases—A Long Term in View.

The October term of the Circuit Court for Kent County was convened on Monday with Chief Judge James A. Pearce on the bench. Associate Judges A. L. Crothers and W. H. Adkins arrived on the 11 a. m. train and took their seats either side of Judge Pearce. The latter left to attend the Court of Appeals at Annapolis, on the afternoon train.

This was Judge Adkins first appearance in the local court. He and Judge Crothers were escorted from the train to the Court House by Messrs. L. W. Wickes, W. W. Beck and H. W. Vickers, Jr.

At the opening of Court Judge Pearce designated Mr. George Beck to be foreman of the Grand Jury and the other members of that body were drawn as follows: Grand Jury—George Beck, foreman; James W. Chapman, James D. Kelley, R. Snowden Thomas, John H. Weist, George S. Biddle, Charles H. Skirven, Samuel F. Cooper, Laurence Stevens, Frank H. Greenwood, Wm. M. Hurlock, John B. Parrott, A. H. Malsberger, Jefferson D. Bacchus, Albert Jervis, Wm. Hepbron, J. F. M. Woodall, A. Wilson Cochran, Daniel Hill, Lewin S. Fowler, Walter B. Barnes, Robert S. Crew, Jacob B. Crowding.

The remainder of the regular panel comprises the petit jury, as follows:

Petit Jury—John T. Stevens, Thomas A. Parsons, Philip G. Wilmer, Edgar P. Beck, Wm. E. Wilson, William H. Bowers, Benj. I. Taylor, Joseph W. Howard, Thomas J. Willis, Henry Tonkin, Wm. T. Hepbron, Charles England, Samuel Burgess, John Brice, J. H. C. Maslin, Jacob Sbriley, C. Romie Skirven, Thomas D. Bowers, Wm. D. Pennington, George D. Lofland, William A. Whitaker, Charles D. Wood, John M. Toulson, Thomas D. Glenn, Jacob T. Shallcross.

The morning session of Monday was largely occupied in calling over the several dockets, marking cases for trial, etc.

The case of Peeples vs. McClenahan, removed from Cecil county, was set for trial, Wednesday, Oct. 24th.

At noon court took a recess until 1 o'clock.

On motion of W. W. Beck, Esq., E. Lawerence McClary, of the Baltimore bar, and S. Scott Beck, were admitted to practice in this court.

The case of W. C. McNatt vs. County Commissioners was called for trial. L. W. Wickes, Esq., for county commissioners and John D. Urie, Esq., for McNatt. This is a case where McNatt obtained judgment for $60 damages before Justice Calder for injuries to a horse on public road of Kent county. The commissioners appealed from judgement of Justice.

TUESDAY'S SESSION.

The damage case was concluded the jury returning a verdict for McNatt for $40.

Case of R. Groome Parks vs. Mrs. Lydia C. Shaw for commissions on sale of house at Melitota and for other matters amounting to $28 was a spicy trial. H. W. Vickers, Jr., represented the plaintiff and Herbert E. Perkins the defendant.

A motion was made asking for the removal of the Blake damage suit to the United States Court and the W. T. Crow damage suit to another county.

WEDNESDAY'S COURT.

The Court rendered a verdict of $10 in favor of Mr. Parks. Perkins represented Mrs. Shaw and Vickers for Mr. Parks.

M. S. Ford sued Harry S. Dempsey for alleged balance due on salary as clerk in his store in Galena. Tried before court and verdict given in favor of Dempsey. Smith for Dempsey, Beck for Ford.

E. F. S. Jarrell, administratrix, of Geo. H. Snitcher, sued the Second National Bank to recover from anattachment on judgement. Court squashed the attachment. Parks for Jarrell, Barroll for bank.

State vs. Capt. Henry Smith charged with selling intoxicating liquor at Rock Hall was tried before the court. Verdict not guilty. Hynson for Smith, Beck for State.

The grand jury returned indictments as follows: Jos. Downes for rape; Geo. W. Parks, Rock Hall, these cases for alleged violation of local option law, J. Thos. Lamb, of Fairlee, five cases; and Mrs. J. P. Thompson, Graditude, one case. Henry Mercer, Rock Hall, for violating local option law.

The case of N. Lieberman vs the Bertie E. Tull Freighting company, for money due on tomatoes delivered by J. Walter Fowler was decided in favor of Mr. Lieberman. Beck and Vickers for freighting company, Wickes for Lieberman.

The W. T. Crow case has been removed to Easton.

Thursday and Friday were occupied in hearing the case of Mrs. Hester Stoops vs. L. B. Russell for $4,000 for alleged deception in the sale of a farm in Broad Neck. Beck and Wickes represented Mrs. Stoops, Smith and Urie for Mr. Russell. Tried before jury and at hour of going to press was on trial.

An Important Ruling.

The case against Benjamin Kramer, of Rock Hall, charged with buying and selling stock without license was submitted to the court by Messrs. Hynson and Beck attorneys, upon an agreed statement of facts. The Court decided that Mr. Kramer had violated the law but sentence was suspended for a year. He has since obtained a license. The Court held that all stock dealers and other traders must procure a license from the clerk of the court as required under the general law in regard to trading in goods, chattels, &c. Under this ruling about a dozen buyers in Kent as in other counties will have to procure a license costing about $12.50

KLAIR & HOLLINGSWORTH will sell 60 head of bulls and heifers at Milllington on Tuesday, October 23rd and 100 head at Chestertown next Friday, Oct. 26th. This firm are the largest dealers in cattle in Pennsylvania or Delaware and offer some excellent stock to Kent farmers.

WEDDING EVENTS.

Announcement of Coming Nuptials of Well-Known Persons—Marriages of Recent Date.

Judge Charles H. Jefferson and wife have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Ruth Hester, to Mr. Harry Tilden Tucker, on Wednesday, October 24, 1906, at 7.30 p. m., at their home, "Lillingston Castle," near Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Keating, formerly of Centreville, Md, but now living in Scranton, Pa., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Eleanor Goldsborough Keating, to Mr. Frank Delos McGowan, of Scranton, Pa.

Miss Keating is a member of the Keating family, which has been conspicuous in Maryland politics. Through her mother, who is the daughter of the late Robert Goldsborough, of Queen Anne's county, Miss Keating is connected with that well-known Eastern Shore family.

Mr. McGowan is a member of one of Scranton's most influential families. At present he is at the head of one of the most important departments of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company of Scranton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Watson announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Susanna Hanson, to Mr. Edward Bourke Emory. The ceremony will take place Wednesday, October 31st, 1906, at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Centreville, 5.30 o'clock P. M. No cards.

Mr. Fletcher Caulk, of near Sassafras, was quietly married in Philadelphia, to Miss Marie E. Williamson, of that city, Thursday and returned to his home with his bride on the 4.30 p. m. train. The wedding was a very quiet one, none but the immediate relatives of the bride being present.

A wedding of interest to all the Wilmington Conference is annouced to take place in Camden shortly before Thanksgiving Day. It is that of Miss Pauline Nelson, daughter of Rev. E. H. Nelson, formerly of Still Pond but now pastor of Camden M. E. church, and a young woman of striking beauty and grace of carriage, to Rev. W. L. S. Murray, probably the best-known minister in the Wilmington Conference. Miss Nelson made public announcement of the prospective wedding, Sunday, but gave no date. Dr. Murray is well known in Kent his first wife being Miss Janvier, of this county.

The engagement is announced of Miss Mabel Woodland Comegys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Comegys, of this county, to Mr. Morton McI. Dukehart, of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Washington Woodall, of Crumpton, announce the marriage of their daughter, Jessie Mcbeth to Sudler G. Weist on Tuesday, Oct. 30, 1906.

JOBSON—DODSON.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Dodson, daughter of Mrs. E. Frank Dodson, of Moore, Pa., and Mr. Raymond LeRoy Jobson, of Philadelphia, took place quietly on Thursday evening, Oct. 18th. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Watchorn, of the Spruce street M. E. Church. The announcement will be a surprise to their many friends, but owing to the recent death of the bride's father it was the desire of the family to have the wedding as quiet as possible. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Jobson left for the South where they will make their home. The bride is a neice of Mrs. Tilghman Shafer, of Kennedyville, and has made many friends during her frequent visits to Kent.

PERKINS—PETERSON.

A telegram from Prince Frederick-town, Md., Oct. 18, says: The marriage of Miss Wheeler Brooke Peterson, daughter of School Commissioner John W. Peterson, of Wallville, Calvert county, to Mr. Eben Francis Perkins, of Chestertown, which took place this morning at St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church Prince Fredericktown, was one of the social events of the season. Rev. Benjamin B Lovett performed the ceremony. Miss Jeannette Peterson, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Senator Clarence Perkins, brother of the groom, best man. The ushers were Mr. Thos. W. Perkins, of Chestertown, Mr. George Perkins, of Philadelphia, and Dr. George Peterson, of Washington, brother of the bride; Mr. Luther Mackall and Mr. Charles Peterson, of Baltimore. Miss Maude Newnam, of Baltimore, played wedding marches.

Public School Notes.—Capt. C. A. Leary has purchased the land on which stood the school near Rees' corner for $120.

The new school building being erected at Edesville nearly finished under contractor Walter R. Pippin. The building will be quite an improvement to that section.

The Kent county commissioners on Tuesday gave the school board an increase over their school fund of $1200 with which to build a school building at Worton station. This building will likely be built soon as bids have already been received for its erection and a very creditable building can be erected.

Debating societies are a most excellent thing for schools. Such a society is doing good work at Rock Hall and one in Chestertown would be a good idea.

CAPTAINS WIN FIGHT.

After being Tied Up for Two Weeks Steamers Arrive at Chestertown and Rock Hall—The People with Captains and Mates.

The bay tie-up was broken last Friday night shortly after 11 o'clock, when Capt. Thompson and his counsel and a committee of the masters and pilots, composed of Captains Geoghegan, James Gourley and Taylor, accompanied by their counsel, made a final agreement as to a settlement, and it was announced that as fast as possible the steamers, which have lain idly at their wharves for the last fortnight, would take on cargoes and steam down the bay, the first one to move being the B. S. Ford, Capt. Wm. Taylor. It is a singular fact that Capt. Taylor was the first to tie-up.

The settlement of the tie-up was a complete victory for the mariners. Captain Thompson, representing the M. D. & V. and the B., C. & A. Railways, assented to the terms first proposed by the committee from the masters and pilots.
