IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE "NEWS."

THE BAY SHIPPING TIE-UP.

To the Editor of THE NEWS.

The proceedings a day or two ago against, Capt. James R. Corkrin, master of the steamer Joppa, in which it was clearly shown that the master and not the Company is the responsible party of the steam vessel, is the strongest argument yet produced that the captains should receive a wage equal to or even greater than they have asked from the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic and Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway Companies.

Now the public can see how these corporations and their masters and pilots stand in their positions. Here was a case where this master was hurried from his boat—the Joppa—immediately to the Love Point without time to think of anything and undoubtedly forgot to expose his master's and pilot's certificate in his haste, and he has put up more than a month's salary as a penalty.

This able body of masters and pilots has appealed to these companies before, individually, as did the engineers a few years ago, and were treated with utter contempt, their appeals not even being answered in any form. They then saw that as individuals they could not be heard, and began at once to organize that they might have some one to represent them as Captain Thompson represents the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia and Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic Steamboat Companies, and now Captain Thompson says they have no right to have a representative. If not, why not? Because it interferes with discipline. Pooh! Discipline is in this day only found where unity and respect predominate.

Captain Thompson evidently has let his thought run back to the days of the shackle and belaying-pin discipline, the days before he became connected with the family of Samuel Harlan, who placed him in charge of the Eastern Shore Steamboat Company several years ago.

As a patron of these two big lines, the writer has been a close observer of their management, and has about come to the conclusion that the discipline this manager speaks of and fears is to be destroyed does exist only on his boats after they leave their home ports, because the turmoil that exists on the wharves when the steamers are in port is something almost intolerable to anyone who is accustomed to discipline.

As an observer, this contest looks to me to be decidedly a one-sided affair, and that the companies are exercising sheer stubbornness, because the masters and pilots refuse to allow Captain Thompson to assume an autocratic position over them.

Exclusive Millinery

Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods

The new fall woolens are all here. Artistic care has been used in their selection and you will be sure to find your own particular desire among them.

Our well-known LOW PRICES reign supreme in this department and our constant effort is to give you "better goods for less money" than you can find elsewhere.

Our Millinery Exhibition

Medium Hats predominate ostrich plume and bird-of-paradise feathers are chief ornaments. But there are small hats a plenty. The fine clipped beaver felt varieties lead; and they are preferably trimmed with pheasant tails, merle birds, wings and quills. But details are tedious and it is much easier to show you. Do not fail to look at our millinery when in need of your fall hat.

We have fortunately secured the services of Miss M. Kynast, of Baltimore, as trimmer, an artist who stands in the very front ranks of her profession and her work will speak for itself.

CLOTHING TAILORING FURNISHINGS

FLUE CURING IMPROVES TOBACCO LIKE ROASTING IMPROVES GREEN COFFEE

Flue Curing Develops the Stimulating Aroma and Taste Found in Schnapps that Satisfies Tobacco Hunger

There are three ways used by farmers for curing and preparing their tobacco for the market; namely, sun cured, air cured and flue cured. The old and cheap way is called air cured; the later discovery and improved way is called flue cured. In flue-curing the tobacco is taken from the field and suspended over intensely hot flues in houses especially built to retain the heat, and there kept in the proper temperature until this curing process developes in the tobacco the stimulating taste and fragrant aroma found in Schnapps tobacco, just as green coffee is made fragrant and stimulating by the roasting process. Only choice selections of this ripe, juicy flue cured leaf, grown in the famous Piedmont country, where the best tobacco grows, are used in Schnapps and other Reynolds' brands of high grade, flue cured tobaccos.

Hundreds of imitation brands are on sale that look like Schnapps; the outside of the imitation plugs of tobacco is flue cured, but the inside is filled with cheap, flimsy, heavily sweetened air cured tobacco; one chew of Schnapps will satisfy tobacco hunger longer than two chews of such tobacco.

Expert tests prove that this flue cured tobacco, grown in the famous Piedmont region, requires and takes less sweetening than any other kind, and has a wholesome, stimulating, satisfying effect on chewers. If the kind of tobacco you are chewing don't satisfy, more than the mere habit of expectorating, stop fooling yourself and chew Schnapps tobacco.

Schnapps is like the tobacco chewers formerly bought costing from 75c. to $1.00 per pound; Schnapps is sold at 50c. per pound in 5c. cuts, strictly 10 and 15 cent plugs.

TO THE VOTERS OF KENT COUNTY.

As a candidate for the Democratic nomination to the State Senate of Maryland in 1907, I desire a large Democratic majority as possible for the HON. Thomas A. Smith for Congress in 1906

* * *

I have predicted that Kent will give Mr. Smith five-hundred majority, but against such a candidate as William H. Jackson, Mr. Smith should get a thousand majority at least.

* * *

I am prepared to debate before an audience composed of the backbone and voting strength of the Republican party, the colored people of Kent County, the proposition that since the death of Abraham Lincoln to the present day, the Republican party has never made a single sincere effort to protect or foster the interests of the colored race, but has all these years relied on the faithful support of the colored voters to keep that party in power and the Republican party has used and abused the franchise privilege and power resulting therefrom to pass laws of special privilege and have resulted in monstrosities like the Carnegie and Rockefeller accumulations of unearned wealth at the expense of the real producers of this nation's wealth.

* * *

This challenge to debate is especially directed to Mr. Wm. H. Jackson personally, or to any Republican leader in Kent County from the party's most successful leader, the Hon. John David Urie, down.

Very respectfully,

CECIL R. ATKINSON,

Box 33, Chestertown, Md.
