SATURDAY, - - OCTOBER 20, 1906

REV. SAM JONES, the noted evangelist, died suddenly on a train in Arkansas. His dictum was not of the best but his utterances contained solid truths which have saved many a soul. Sam Jones has done a great deal of effective work for good. He has lectured in Chestertown several times.

MRS. VARINA HOWELL DAVIS, widow of Jefferson Davis, died Tuesday night at her home in New York, after an illness of pneumonia, aged eighty years. She was a devoted wife to the man who was the President of the Confederacy, her devotion never wavering in defeat, and her firm character and gentle manners endeared her to all who knew her.

BALTIMORE CITY has undertaken to prove her grit by raising a half million dollars within thirty days to erect a handsome Y. M. C. A. building, and we predict success. But this is not all that the people of Baltimore are doing. They are raising $50,000 for a fire memorial, and we would suggest that this memorial be in the shape of a hospital rather than a useless marble shaft. Other public subscriptions are being raised and in every instance Baltimore citizens are proving themselves equal to the occasion. The NEWS is proud of such an exhibition of generosity. It means there is not, nor can be, any "Dead Sea" in Baltimore.

The Candidate That Bribes.

Mr. Wm. H. Jackson had a page of pictures and personal history in the Baltimore American on Monday last. Thereupon the American tries to make a statesman as well as a humanitarian out of him. But our city luminary can only make him a successful lumberman. As a Congressman he has been an utter failure. As a politician he is most noted as a standing candidate for "honors" ever since he left the Democratic ranks and joined the Republicans. According to his "American" history he was a candidate for the State Senate in 1897, but was defeated. In 1900 he was a candidate for Congress, and again in 1902 and 1904. His only claim and qualification for office has been his money. He is rich and is willing to use his money to buy votes. This is the great lever and the only merit he has for the positions he has heretofore sought and which he now asks for. He is rich, but this is no crime. His disposition to use his money to corrupt voters is the ugly blot upon his character. This is the vile stain which should discount him in the public mind. And yet this is his greatest merit. Vote for him because he is able and willing to buy votes!

IN PULPIT AND PEW.

[Ministers and other church workers are invited to send us brief, snappy accounts of interest to readers of this column, keeping within the limits of a single paragraph. When notices are too long they will be scaled down to meet the requirements of space.]

Sunday was missionary day in Christ Church Sunday school. Beautiful souvenirs were distributed to all present, the girls receiving "Watches" and the boys "Golden Rules." The banner was won by a class of young men and was awarded by Mr. J. D. Bacchus.

The State Christian Endeavor Convention was held at Salisbury this week and is said to have been the "best yet." Chestertown was well represented by Mrs. Chas. J. Reiche, Misses Nettie Russell, Clara B. Usilton, Fannie Baker, Dr. D. L. Greenfield delivered an address.

Christ Meth. Prot. Church: 9.30 a.m., experience meeting; public worship at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m.—"The Sermon of the Fading Leaf" and "The Session of the Final Court." Sunday-school at 2.30 p. m.; Junior Endeavor at 6 p. m.; Christian Workers' Song Hour 6.45 p. m.; special music by the choir and Young People's chorus. Come and bring another.
