The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

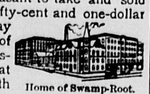

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co. Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Home of Swamp-Root.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, and the address, Binghampton, N. Y. on every bottle.

THE GREAT NUTBOY

Best Money-Winning Trotter of Season of 1906—Now Owned by Little Lotta.

Nutboy, the sensational trotter of the year and the largest money winner down the Grand Circuit this season, has had an eventful career since a 4-year-old, and over a dozen horsemen in Baltimore, Boston and other parts of the country, who handled, owned or drove the son of Neptune, parted with this horse fortune thinking he was a "gold brick."

Nutboy was bred by W. H. Barnes, Decatur, Ill., who sold him as a 4-year-old to Dr. Spalding, of Decatur, under the name of Benjaline, the horse being used for road driving by the doctor's son, says an account of the horse in the Philadelphia Record, which continues:

The colt was high strung and nearly incorrigible, and when going at speed sometimes had to be headed for a building in order to make him stop. Dr. Spalding, tiring of the animal, sold him for a small sum to a dealer named Bates, of Richmond, Va. Bates kept Benjaline only a short time, a man working in a locomotive works at Richmond becoming his owner.

The ironworker could drive an engine, but Benjaline was too much for him, and J. C. Smith, a Richmond horseman, got the horse. Smith soon found that the big bay gelding had lots of speed, but was uncontrollable. Thinking he had a two-minute trotter, he sent him to R. P. Souther, Dorchester, Mass., who tried the horse over the Readville track and also over the Boston Speedway. Benjaline could beat everything on the road and speedway easily, and he was placed in Henry Titer's hands to train. But Titer soon gave him up as a bad job, as also did James Carpenter, and the horse was returned to Souther.

Sold As A Mare.

In the winter of 1903, in the consignment of Mr. Carter, of Richmond, Va., and under the name of Ingham, Benjaline made his appearance at the Fasig "Old Glory" sale at Madison Square Garden and was purchased by John H. Shultz, of Shultzhurst Farm. It is claimed that Shultz in buying the horse thought he had purchased a mare, he wanting a daughter of Nupine for breeding purposes. The gelding was returned and again put up at auction, Paul Connelly, becoming his owner.

Connelly disposed of the horse to Eugene Ryenthaler for road and speedway purposes, but the gelding did not suit, and the next owner was Thomas S. Young.

Given Name Of Nutboy.

At one of Young's auction sales the horse was put up and sold to William MacFarland, after showing a faster burst of speed over the pavement down the back street than any other horse had ever shown. MacFarland changed the name of the horse to Nutboy, and B. F. Slater, of Crondale, Pa., soon became his owner. For a year Nutboy was driven 10 miles daily by Slater in his business. Finding that Nutboy had more speed than any horse he ever rode behind, and believing he would make a race horse, which was not in his line, Slater prevailed upon George Hildemeyer to buy the horse for $500. On May 8, 1905, right off the cars, Stote R. Clark, drove Nutboy a quarter over Belmont track in 33 seconds.

On May 25 Hildemeyer drove Nutboy down to Point Breeze track and requested C. N. Payne to work him out. Shod in heavy road shoes, Payne sent Nutboy a quarter in 32 seconds and a half in 1.03. The horse was then put into training, being handled by James Morris, but finally fell into Payne's hands. Payne campaigned him the season of 1905, starting 12 times and winning nine races

Purchased By An Actress.

In December last Hildemeyer sold Nutboy to Walter Cox, who was agent for J. A. Crabtree (brother of Lotta Crabtree, the actress), of Boston, Mass., for the alleged price of $5,000. Payne, who claimed he made the deal for Hildemeyer, entered suit for his commission, and the suit is still pending.

This season the horse was first in the hands of Driver Lafferty, who drove him in his half-mile track races, but at Buffalo the entire Crabtree string was turned over to Myron E. McHenry, who has since driven him in all his races.

At Buffalo Nutboy won the $2,000 Lafayette Hotel stake, in three heats, in 2.09¼, 2.10, 2.10¼. He won the 2.15 trot at Poughkeepsie in 2.09½, 2.11¼, 2.11. At Readville he won "the Massachusetts Stake," for 2.14 trotters, in 2.09¼, 2.10¼, after dropping the second heat to Dr. Chase in 2.10¼.

At Hartford he won the famous Charter Oak stake, $10,000, in 2.07¼, 2.07¼, finishing second in the third heat to Oro, in 2.09¼. He won the 2.08 trot at Syracuse in 2.07¼, 2.07½; the Ohio stake, $5,000, at Cincinnati, in 2.10¼, 2.09¼, losing the second heat to Mack in 2.08. Nutboy finishing second, and finishing the season by winning the classic $5,000 Transylvania stakes, at Lexington, in the mud in 2.08, 2.07¼, 2.09.

Nutboy is the fourth horse that has ever won both the Charter Oak and Transylvania. In 1893 Harrietta won both, in 1898 John Nolan was a double winner, and Lord Vincent won in 1899.

Grand Circuit Big Winners.

Nutboy classes near the top among the largest winners in history down the Grand Circuit line, with $17,072 to his credit. Anderson's Nightingale, in 1892, won $15,350; Harrietta, in 1893, won $12,875; Reinia, in 1897, won $13,225; John Nolan, in 1898, won $16,325; Lord Vincent, in 1899, won $14,600; Eleata, in 1901, won $18,100; Roralma, in 1900, won $11,150, and as a 3-year-old, in 1899, $12,000; Patron, in 1887, won $12,750; Alcyon, in 1889, won $15,500; Sira, in her best season, won only $5,550; Country Jay won $18,000 in 1901; Nera Simmons, the same year, won $11,075; in 1902 Rhythmic won $19,150, and Anzella $14,850; in 1904, Sweet Marie won $24,185; Grace Bond, $16,500; Alta Axworthy, $15,125; Dr. Strong, $14,600 and Consuelo S., $13,875.

Big Winners This Season.

Twenty-six trotters that raced down the Grand Circuit this season won over $2,000 each. Nutboy leads the list, with $14,772 to his credit, and he also won $2,500 at Lexington. He started at Columbus, Poughkeepsie, Readville (two meetings,) Hartfort, Syracuse and Cincinnati. Brilliant Girl, next in order, won $11,137 starting six times.

For the first time in light-harness history Nutwood leads the money-winners as a sire in the trotting brigade down the Grand Circuit, his grandson, Nutboy, carrying off the money and honors. Nutwood was sired by Belmont 64, he by Abdallah 15. Nutwood's dam was Grace, by Smuggler, a son of Blanco.

The Electioneer's, represented by Brilliant Girl, Governor Francis, Gay Bingen, The Abbe, Exton and Capt. Bacon, won $26,813. The Dictator's, with Mainsheet and Ann Direct, $8,144

As usual, however, the Wilkes family won the bulk of the money among the 26 horses, with over $62,000 to their credit.

FORSAKES ROYALTY'S STABLES FOR CIRCUS.

In Europe the name Herzog is inseparably associated with the horse. More than one hundred years ago a young Austrian of that name developed such qualities of horsemanship while serving as an officer in the Austrian army that he was made drill master of the Hungarian Hussars. It was while the Emperor Franz Josef was visited by the Czar of Russia, and his admiration for Herzog was so great that the 'Kaiser' offered his services to the Czar as a mark of his esteem. The Czar made Herzog Master of Horse at the Court of Russia and loaded with favors. In time he was given charge of the Imperial Circus. Since then his descendants have been the most noted horsemen of Europe. When the Barnum & Bailey show paid its visit of five years to Europe, one of its first engagements was that of Hugo Herzog, now the recognized head of the house of Herzog. He came to this country with it when it returned, bringing with him his splendid stud of horses, the best trained horses in the world

After remaining with one show for eight years Herr Herzog wanted to make a change and allied himself with the Frank A. Robins' show. He and his superb horses are to be seen at every performance given in this favorite show. Herr Herzog is one of the handsomest men living with the manner of a born gentleman, and his horses show their thoroughbred training as well as breeding. Ladies especially are delighted with the extreme elegance of this performance, surpassing as it does anything in the trained horse line,—anything ever seen in that most fashionable event of the year,—the horse show in New York.

HIGH-PRICED RACE HORSES.

A story comes from England that an offer of $92,000 was made for the 2-year-old unbeaten colt Slieve Gallion and that it was refused. This marks a record for the season in high-priced youngsters and eclipses the American mark made this spring, when P. J. Rainey bought De Mund for $45,000.

Great as these prices are they are not records by any means. R. S. Sievier rejected an offer of $120,000 for his great filly Sceptre when she was a two-year-old, and James R. Keene turned away an offer of $100,000 for Sysonby when he was only a youngster. Flying Fox brought $191,000, but this was at a period of his career when he had firmly established his prestige as the greatest horse in England.

There is scarcely a doubt in the minds of turfmen that Salvidere would have brought out an offer of $100,000 early in the spring if he had started and won the races that he did later in the year. But he came along at the close of the season, when the big events were nearly all decided. As he was not extensively entered in rich stakes, and as he is a gelding, he was not regarded as a good investment, great as he is as a race horse. But with all his drawbacks in the shape of good engagements, his owners, John E. Madden and T. Hitchcock, Jr., named $50,000 as his selling price.

Slieve Gallion, that caused the highest price of the year to be offered for a race horse, is well worthy of this distinction, as he is said to be many pounds the best colt of his age in England.

Negro Girls Cut Corn.—In order to get the corn cut in Ohio special inducements were offered and even the women induced to work.

Mary and Sarah Brooks, two big and strong negro girls, have beaten the best records of the male corn cutters in Clark county by making an average of 84 shocks apiece and receiving $15 a day for their work.

The average man cuts about 40 shocks a day. Corn cutters are being paid from 8 to 10 cents a shock, and, although the farmers are objecting to the price, they have to pay it to save their crops. The girls work in competition with several of the best corn cutters of the State.
