Monday 6th July 1818

A. Peppel, Pompey, Ephraim, & little Charles mowing, big Charles & Patrick raking & hay &c. a dark day but a good deal of rain occasionally —

Tuesday 7th

All hands mowing till breakfast & from thence till dinner raking & loading one load of hay, about 2 O'Clock, it came in a heavy thunder storm, Patrick half a day, in the evening the two Charles thrashed, Ephraim cleaned the stables, Pompey salted cattle &c.

Wedesy. 8th

All hands mowing & hauling hay, gloomy in the forenoon but afterwards favourable — Paid off Patrick 3½ days

Thursday 9th

All hands mowing forenoon, in the evening hauling hay Phelix at work, a fine day —

Friday 10th

A. Peppel & Pompey cradling wheat 96 Doz. the rest raking binding &c. in the evening got in two loads of Hay, Phelix at work, a fine day —

Saty. 11th

A. Peppel, Pompey, & young Charles mowing, Ephraim big Charles, & Phelix raking & hauling hay &c. the day very fine but extremely hot, Ther. in the evening 92°.

Monday 13

Yesterday Ther. 93° — A. Peppel & Pompey cradled till about 11 O'Clock when Pompey gave out, the rest all tied & bound; Phelix quit about 8, after dinner all hands carried hay & thrashed wheat 62 Doz. about 3 O'Clock came on a violent thunder gust with heavy rain & some hail which continued till late in the evening, in the forenoon Ther. 90° in the evening 78°

Tuesdy. 14th

A. Peppel & Pompey cradling wheat, the rest raking &c. W. Henry from breakfast, Phelix till 4 O'Clock, a warm day & fair —

Sowed Immy field

Wedesday 15 July 1818

Pompey, Ephraim, & young Charles mowed in the morning, & afterwards all hands, loading, hauling hay &c. Phelix at raking, Wm Henry 1/2 day, very warm a fair —

Thursday 16

All hands with W. Henry, & Phelix cutting wheat, Chs went to W. Winter with Kate & Worthy a fine day & not so warm as formerly —

Friday 17

A. Peppel cradling, the 2 Charles attending, & Phelix in the afternoon, Ephraim & boy hoeing potatoes, Pompey & Johnia hoeing a moderate day but gloomy in the evening & likely to rain

Saty. 18

All hands went out to cut wheat it came on at 6 O'C & rained a little during the forenoon, the people mowed in the evening fair A. Peppel cradled wheat & the rest cut out the meadow below the yard W. H. & Phelix half a day

Monday 20th

The people went to cut grain it began to rain before breakfast and rained very heavy it cleared a little before dinner, they went out again but did nothing it rained heavy the Charles thrashing Pompey & Ephraim at sundry jobs Ephraim began to thatch the Barn a warm day —

Tuesday 21st

The people mowed till about 10 O'Clock, & then went & cut the remainder of the wheat, in the evening they carried the hay in the lower Meadow, foggy in the morning & fair & warm in the evening —

Wedesy. 22

The men mowed till breakfast time & then all hands to harvesting wheat, hoeing potatoes &c. got in 179 Dozen 2 Sickmen from 9 O'Clock, Jan Mowlw, M. & Eliz Lutkin in Rye a very fine temperate day —

The Girls came home from Baltimore