More stockings—and more kinds of stockings—than any store you know.

YOU WILL GET MOST FOR YOUR MONEY IF YOU BUY STOCKINGS AT THIS STORE

Quality is the watchword of this stocking business, and good values its foundation.

WE ARE NOT ADVERTISING BARGAIN PRICES

But we want to say this: Do not allow yourself to be enticed into buying alleged 25c stockings for 23c or 24c—you will get stockings here for 25c that are equal to the 35c stockings of the stores that tempt you by apparently taking a penny or two off the price.

ROCK HALL ITEMS

Quite a large congregation assembled in the St. John's R. C. Church to greet Father Ott, a former priest of that church on Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Burr preached under difficulty on Sunday morning. He was quite a sufferer from back trouble.

November 11th is Church Debt Liquidation Day with the M. E. Society. It is requested that each member and friend of the church on that day give the proceeds of one day's work or income, in the meantime canvassers will distribute among the various families boxes for the purpose of gathering up the fragments of change, and a day is appointed for the opening of the boxes collected for the ascertainment of the total amount which is hoped, will be not less than $100 and will be added to the $120 realized from the late bazar and supper and the whole will be added to the amount collected on Liquidation day and it is greatly desired that the total amount shall be sufficient to wipe out the debt, which is a stigma on the church, unpleasant to pastor, membership and friends.

The Odd Fellows festivities on Saturday night was very limited by the coolness of the weather.

Capt. Ashley made another raid on the Swan Point oyster run on Saturday and succeeded in rounding up eight into the benevolent hands of Judge Hersch.

Among the stock questions of the past two months in this section are who gets the benefits of the oyster fines? When are they turned in? Does the Captain of the police boat get any part of the fines? It is due the tax payers It is due the oysterman fined. It is due the county officials that these questions be clearly answered.

The questions have been put to nearly all our business men and others, and so far a satisfactory answer has not been given. Some say the fines are supposed to be turned over to the oyster fund, others say they believe the money is used for political purposes. Again it is said the fines are used for defrayment of the expenses of the Police boat of the district where imposed. As a last resort, by request, an appeal is made to you, Messrs. Editors, for enlightenment. The KENT NEWS is the oystermen's and all tax payers friend. Will you kindly turn on the light on the above questions and let us see where we are?

[The NEWS takes pleasure in stating that the money from oyster fines is paid to the clerk of the court who pays it over to the comptroller. The fines during the past season have amounted to about $150 which amount has been received by the clerk.—EDS.]

Since the advent of Jack Frost much coughing is heard in public assemblies. Say, friends, is it a fad? If so, let's get rid of it. If it's the result of a cold, let's stay home and nurse it. Coughing is annoying all round.

Chestnut parties are the order of the day in this section, and great quantities of nuts are being bagged.

Our farmers are about done wheat seeding and corn husking is well advanced. All are looking forward to a happy Thanksgiving.

So much blustery weather is playing havoc with the interests of the watermen, and the near approach of a long, cold winter is anything but encouraging to them.

The most agreeable items of news coming to this place in a long time was the announcement in Saturday's paper that the bay strike was off and as a verification the B. S. Ford hove in sight soon after the news was received. All are now getting in good humor again and hope when these fellows deem another tie-up advisable they will let old Boreas do and undo the tieing.

Boreas made a desperate effort last Thursday and Friday to do some chilling and killing and succeeded pretty well in knocking out late potatoes, corn, and tomatoes in our part of the land. It was a most unwelcome spell.

Hon. T. A. Smith was among us on Saturday night, he made a hustling round of the town, he gave his card and picture to everyone he came in contact with, he was especially interested in the ladies. Mr. Smith made a good impression upon all. Ex-Treas. Hadaway did the chaperoning and did it well.

Mr. S. G. Lee accompanied by his nephew, Mr. Walter Wheat, of Oklahoma, was also taking in the events of the town on Saturday night. Mr. Wheat is a dyed-in-the-wool Odd Fellow and is as jovial as can be found. He talks enthusiastically of Oklahoma where prosperity reigns in all its fullness. Mr. Wheat is also an ardent republican and admirer of President Roosevelt, he is also an admirer of Wm. Jennings Bryan and predicts that if Mr. Roosevelt is not the next republican candidate for the Presidency, Mr. Bryan will be the next President and he will heartily support him in preference to any Eastern man of his own party. He thinks there are very few Eastern men who are in sympathy with the West, in fact, no prominent man outside of Mr. Roosevelt.

Mrs. J. W. Boyer is making an extended stay in Baltimore having been called there to nurse a friend who is quite ill.

The membership and friends of the M. E. Church proceeded in a body from the church on Tuesday evening to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Jeffres, an aged couple and tendered them a donation party. Many things good and substantial for both the outer and inner man was bestowed and a joyous hour spent.

Changes.—The store-room occupied by Mr. John C. Davis has been rented by Mr. James T. Ireland & Son who will conduct a meat and feed store. Poultry, eggs, butter and fresh meats will be on sale as also seed and feed of various kinds.

In another column will be found the sale of stock of Mr. Clement Jester on the Jewell farm. Mr. Jester has rented the property owned and occupied by Mr. Willard Melvin at the College, Mr. Melvin having decided to come to town on Queen street.

Mr. Lewin U. Skirven will sell his stock on October 31st and remove into the Barnet house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Plummer. Mr. Plummer will remove to the Gale property near St. Paul's.

Mr Spencer Walls, of Sudlersville, has sold to Mr. John E. George, of the same town, all his interest in the Canning Co. and Mercantile Co. This gives Mr. George two-thirds and Mr. William Anderson one-third interest in the two companies. It is reported that Mr. Walls will, for a while at least, devote his entire time to his farming interests.
