Monday 10th August 1818

A gentle rain mostly all day yesterday — The Charlses thrashing Rye, Ephraim thatching Pompey attending him &c. a numberof people dined here a gloomy but fair day

Tuesday 11th

Big & little Charles thrashing, Ephraim thrashing forenoon Pompey attending, in the evening they put in the remr. of hay & oats, a fine fair day

Wedny. 12th

Big Charles thrashing, Ephraim & Pompey thatching &c. little Charles hauling manure with A. Pepper a fine day a slight frost in the evening

Thursday 13

Little Charles hauling manure with A. Pepper in the forenoon in the evening went to J. Soum with the family Pompey & big Charles thrashing Rye Ephraim commenced ploughing a very fine day

Friday 14th

Big Charles & Pompey thrashing Rye, Ephraim ploughing Charles also commenced about 10 O'Clock & A. Pepper in the evening a fine day the ground extremely dry and difficult to plough

Saturday 15th

Big Charles & Pompey thrashing Rye, Ephraim & little Charles ploughing the ground very hard, a fine fair day. lady

Monday 17th

Big Charles & Pompey thrashing Rye Ephraim & little Charles ploughing a fair gloomy day

Tuesday 18th

Last night it came on rain & rained all the forenoon in the evening slightly, the people employed about sundry jobs say clearing Rye &c. Ephraim thatched in the evening

Wedny. 19th

Little Charles ploughed all day, Ephraim thatched forenoon, ploughed after dinner, Pompey at sundry, big Charles sick forenoon, in the evening got the Canada day

Thursday 20th Aug.t 1818

The two Charlses ploughing, Pompey & Ephraim gathering Corn fodder &c. a fine day

Friday 21st

All hands hauling manure a fine warm day

Satury. 22

All hands hauling manure fine weather Cart & Sud

Monday 24

All hands hauling manure with the Cart & Waggon I sold 4 Cows & Calfs for £90 a fine day, a little rain in the evening

Tuesday 25th

All hands hauling manure with the Cart & Waggon a fine day

Wedy. 26

~~Eph.~~ by Eph. & young Charles ploughing, Pompey & Eph.m spreading manure, a fine day

Thursy 27

Eph.m & big Charles ploughing, Eph.m got with a boyle on his back, Pompey took his plan, young Charles spreading manure — a fine day

Friday 28

Big & little Charles ploughing, Pompey filling gutters Ephraim unwell a fine day

Saty. 29

The Charlses ploughed forenoon, Pompey filled gutters with straw &c. in the evening all hands haul. manure a fine day

Mond. 31st

I set out for York & returned on Wedy. 2d Septr. found the hands had been employed in hauling manure & ploughg. Wm. Henry assisting in spreading &c. fine weather

Thursday 3 Sept.

The 2 Charlses ploughing, Ephraim Pompey, & Billy Henry hauling & spreading manure, a fine day, cool in the morning