Tuesday 17th August 1819

Much rain last night, A. Peppel & Pompey ploughing, Charles Kelly & Charles throshing Oats, Ephraim sick, a gloomy day occasionally threatning rain, Therm. 82°

Wedesday 18th

This forenoon being mostly lost the people employed about Sunday jobs, cleaned 42 bushels of Oats Ho & in the evening fair, A. Peppel & Pompey ploughed Charles Kelly, & blacks Charles grubbing, filling gallows Stile warm. Ther. 80 @ 76°

Thursday 19th

Last night & this morning pretty cool, Charles Kelly & Charles throshing wheat, A. Peppel & Ephraim plough a fine day Ther. 74°

Saturday 21st

I ~~was~~ this day ~~called on~~ went by appointment to examine from 13 to 14 perches of a road made by Mr. Hoover over the Red hill; I found that it had not been shouldered, that it was at some places the breadth, & even broader than 20 feet, & in some places some feet to 18 inches too narrow, I tried the depth of the stone & found them in one instance 6, in another 13, in another 8½, & in in other 9 & 11 Inches deep, not sufficiently levelled, nor small enough broken — A. Peppel, & Ephraim ploughing, the 2 Charlesses throshing wheat, Pompey at Sunday jobs, a warm day & gloomy

this is Saturday upon

Friday 20th

the people employed as on thursday, I divided the Sheep 55 & 9 weathers for sale, with the 2 rams = 66 — For keeping 86 Ewes 19 weathers, & 40 lambs = 145 in all 211 Sheep a fine day

Monday 23 August 1819

yesterday & last night a great deal of rain, Charles Kelly, & Charles helping Kintz to clean grain at Warners took to mill 44½ bushels of Rye, 46 for Kintz, A. Peppel, & Ephraim ploughing Pompey employed driving a Carriage to G. Berg with Bennie, the children & I a fine cool day

Tuesday 24th

I returned from G. Berg, & found A. Kintz & the two Charlesses throshing Wheat A. Peppel, & Ephraim plough. a fine cool day

Wedesday 25th

Last night pretty cool, A. Peppel, & Ephraim ploughing, the Charles G. Kelly throshing wheat, Pompey & Charles at Sunday jobs a fair temperate day

Thursday 26th

Moderately cool last night, A. Peppel & Ephraim ploughing, Kintz & Charles Kelly throshing wheat. Charles harrowing, a moderate fair day

Friday 27th

A. Peppel, & Ephraim ploughing, Kintz, & Charles Kelly throshing wheat, Charles harrowing, Pompey at Sunday jobs, Say grubbing &c. Joshua assisting him a fair day but gloomy

Saty. 28th

Some rain last night, A. Peppel & Ephraim plowing; Kelly, & Kintz throshing wheat, Charles hauling wood, Shaw &c. Pompey at Sunday jobs, a moderate day with slight rain occasionaly

Monday 30th

~~A. Peppel, & Ephraim~~ ploughing, A. Peppel absent in the forenoon, Pompey ploughed in his place, went to the Shop for plough irons, Charles Kelly, & Charles throshing wheat Pompey Jacks, Joshua &c. pulling beans, a warm day I went to Mr. Reid's Mr. Kess &c.