ROCK HALL ITEMS

One of the most timely and well adapted sermons preached here in a long time was delivered on Sunday morning in the M. E. Church by Rev. Warren Burr, from the text "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" The theme being Proof Versus Prejudice.

Pastor Burr and his official board are in fond anticipation as to the results of the final efforts of tomorrow Sunday in the liquidation of the church debt. There is a snug sum already in hand from several sources and the turning in of one day's income by the members and friends at tomorrow's services is fondly expected to wipe out the balance of the debt. Rev. T. A. H. O'Brien, one of the finest speakers of the conference will do the preaching tomorrow morning. Special choir service will be a happy feature of the day.

Messrs. Editors we have no depopulation scheme for our town, when your type said 200 oystermen are awaiting orders from Capt. Percy Benney to embark for Mississippi in last issue, it almost took our breath, twenty is the correct number.

Charley, old sport, before you move from our midst please drop down and place that portion of our public road opposite Mrs. Wilkins' in a passable condition, if you do you will rest much easier next winter.

Mr. J. A. Smith is unfortunate in the loss of one of his horses recently purchased. The cause of its death is a mystery.

The election here on Tuesday was a quiet one and since the count of the ballots very little surprise is manifest, as the result was a foregone conclusion. The interest in Tuesday's battle of the ballots was centered in New York and the result there is well pleasing to Democrats and Republicans alike here. About the happiest fellow among us over the election in Kent is "Cast Iron," he's happy all over and is already laying wires for next year's campaign.

Miss Mae Willis, of Rock Hall, has received an appointment as teacher of a school in Cumberland, Md. and will leave for that place Monday, Nov. 6th. She is a lovable girl and we wish her success.

The Knights of Pythias are erecting on their property a building for use of the store room below the hall.

Mrs. Alexander, our popular milliner, is very busy these days in her line.

Max. Alexander is much elated over the success of his former school chum, Harry B. Wolf in his candidacy for Congress.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

Mrs. Patrick Haily, of near Galena, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Galanger. She died from cancer and had been a great sufferer for a year.

The tournament that will be held at Cecilton today, Saturday, promises to be a most successful one. Alexander T. Laws will be chief marshall.

There is a most interesting revival being held under the auspices of the M. P. church at Mt. Salem, near Sassafras, conducted by our pastor, Rev. F. S. Cain, of Warwick.

Mrs. Louis H. Dreka and daughter, Miss Tressa, have been visiting relatives in Philadelphia for the past fortnight.

Miss Helen Davis entertained a large company of friends in honor of her cousins, Misses Mary and Edith Trueax of Wilmington, on Saturday evening last.

Miss Lydia Porter, of Smyrna, is being entertained by her cousin Mr. and Mrs. John R. H. Price, near Warwick.

Mrs. John F. Ernest and sister, Mrs. John R. H. Rice left on Wednesday morning for Philadelphia where they spent the week.

Mr. Fredrick Vansant, of Wilmington, has been visiting his family here for the past several days.

Miss Helen Stradly, of Philadelphia, who is going to school there is at home with her mother, Mrs. Rachel Stradley, here.

On Friday last Mr. and Mrs. James D. Davis, two of our most prominent and worthy citizens, celebrated their 25th. marriage anniversary, their silver wedding. The day was a golden one so beautiful and bright and we trust their future may be as bright as their past has been, and why should it not be? Surrounded by their five devoted children and their beautiful home they have everything to make them happy. There was a large gathering of relatives and a most elegant dinner was served and received many beautiful presents. We wish them happiness.

Mr. T. Othuson and nieces Misses Mary and Alice Walters, are entertaining Philadelphia relatives.

W. C. T. U. Lectures.

Mrs. Helen L. Bullock, of the National W. C. T. U. Lecture Bureau, will speak at the following places: Still Pond M. E. Church, Thursday evening, Nov. 15; Kennedyville M. P. Church Friday evening, Nov. 16; Chestertown M. E. Church Sunday, Nov. 18, 10.30 a. m. Subject, "From Darkness to Dawn." Christ M. P. Church, Nov. 18, 7.30 p. m. Subject, 'Sowing and Reaping."

Mrs. Bullock comes with the highest recommendation from both pulpit and press as well as from the National W. C. T. U., W. T. Henry, D. D., pastor of First Baptist Church, Elmira, N. Y., her native town, says: "Her consecrated spirit will be felt wherever she goes. I most heartily commend her to all pastors and Christian workers." N. Y. Tribune says: "Mrs. Bullock has lectured in every State in the union, never failing to interest her hearers." A press note from a Charleston, S. C., paper reads thus: "The subject of Mrs. Bullock's discourse was "Sowing and Reaping," which she handled with much skill and eloquence." While the president of the National W. C. T. U., Frances Willard, said: "I never heard a word of discount on her in any particular. She was a prize organizer in the competition of 1895, carrying off both prizes.

These lectures afford the public a rare intellectual treat, and the unions employing Mrs. Bullock ask that she be greeted with full houses.

DIED.

Bartus C. Legg.—On Oct. 19th, 1906, at his home in Rock Hall Bartus C. Legg in his fifty-sixth year.

The heavenly gates were open,
A gentle voice said "come,"
And with farewells unspoken
Thou calmly entered home.

By His Wife.

In loving remembrance of our mother, Margaret A. Matthews, who died Oct. 20, 1905.

Day by day we saw her fade
And slowly sink away.
Yet in our heart we often prayed
That she might longer stay.
Her trials are past, her work is done
And she is fully blest;
She fought the fight, the victory won
And entered into rest.
Farewell, farewell our dearest mother,
Hard was it for us to see you die,
But thou hast gone to the golden city,
Where we shall see thee bye and bye.

By Her Children.

In the midst of life we are in death, never were truer words spoken when our Father claimed for his own Landon Walter the beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walter a bright promising boy at the age of eighteen. Landon had a nice position in the Baltimore and Ohio office but gave it up to help his father in the plumbing business in Still Pond, he took such an interest in his work his father made him his partner and just when life seemed brightest he was called away in a moment of time to leave darkness where he was the sunshine, the idol of a mother and father's heart. What can we say in a time like this? words are powerless to express our feelings or bring comfort to the bereaved family. Landon was a good boy, a member of church and God took him, to be with him where there is no sorrow no disappointment, no death, their loss is his gain. Jesus is the only healer of sorrows like this and so we commend his loved ones to him who has promised to bind up the broken hearts. Funeral services were held at his home Monday afternoon and everyone tried to show their sympathy by attending. The pallbearers were the young men of his Sunday school class. Dr. J. B. Mills of the M. P. Conference former pastor and Bro. Holt conducted the services which were beautiful and impressive. Surrounded by sorrowing friends he was laid to rest in Still Pond cemetery. (H.)
