Saturday 8th January 1820

Last night mild, A. Peppel & Charles cleaned 28½ bushels with 35 lent by Dan'l Flannard matter 63½ Bushels, Ephram carried grain to Mill, put in Rye, hauled wood &c. the out at Sunday jobs in the evening, a mild day with a slight thaw but no rain — a sharp wind last night —

Sunday 10th

Yesterday a mild thaw, I set out for Gettysburg with Mr Thomson & Ellen, last night a slight frost, in the forenoon it began to snow & continued all day, thawing the night with a moderate frost, we remained in G. burg till Sunday about 9 O'Clock and got safe home by 12 O'Clock I found the people had been employed in thrashing, cutting wood &c.

Wednesday 12th

Last night frost & blew pretty hard Charles Kelly & Charles thrashing and cleaning Rye, A. Peppel & Ephram cutting & hauling wood — Pompey feeding as usual a cold frosty day

Thursday 13th

Last night it froze extremely hard, A. Peppel & Ephram cutting & hauling wood, Ch. Kelly & Charles, & Joshua cleaning Rye, Pompey feeding as usual, a clear calm, & hard frost all day

Friday 14th

Last night a moderate frost cleared & sent to Mill 96 bushels of Rye, the people employed in putting up Rails, hauling wood, hanging bacon &c. a mild day —

Saturday 15th

Last night a thaw the people putting grain, hanging bacon &c. &c. a moderate day, I went to Fairy Town —

Monday 17th

Last night it thawed, snowed & rained all night Ch. Kelly & Charles thrashing, Ephram cutting straw &c. A. Peppel cutting wood for chimney rain & snow forenoon in the evening frost & cold —

evening clear & day

Tuesday 18th Jany. 1820

Last night froze excedingly hard, Chas. Kelly & Charles thrashing Rye, A. Peppel providing wood for Mr Henry, Ephram at the Smith's shop, hauling wood &c. a New-year all day

Wdy. 19th

Some snow fell last night, Charles Kelly thrashing Rye all day Charles in the forenoon, in the evening broke flax — Ephram went to Baltimore with 14 barrels of flour, 1 keg of lard 133 lb. of butter — Pompey feeding as usual, a fine clear moderate day —

Thursday 20th

Hard frost last night, Charles Kelly thrashing Rye, Ch. breaking flax, A. Peppel cutting & hauling wood, some snow, in the evening clear —

Friday 21st

Last night mild, Ch. Kelly thrashing Rye, Charles breaking flax, A. Peppel at Sunday jobs, a clear day, I went to Town & Mr Reid's with Doctor Hutton —

Saty. 22

Last night mild, A. Peppel morticing posts, Charles Kelly thrashing Rye, Charles went to the Smith's shop, & afterward broke flax Pompey feeding &c. Ephram came from Baltimore about 12 O'C. a damp day, and a slight thaw

Monday 24th

It froze very hard last night, Charles Kelly thrashing Rye, A. Peppel & Charles cutting wood, Ephram sick, Pompey feeding &c. a cool day & clear frost

Tuesday 25th

Hard frost last night Charles Kelly thrashing, putting in Rye &c. A. Peppel & Charles cutting wood, Ephram hauling, Pompey feeding &c. a clear frosty day —

Wedny. 26th

Hard frost last night. Charles Kelly thrashing Rye, Ephram, & Charles cutting wood, Ephram hauling, Pompey feeding &c. a gloomy cold day, in the evening snow —

Thursday 27th

A slight frost last night, A. Peppel sawing Rails, Charles Kelly, & C. thrashing Rye, Ephram hauling wood, a gloomy day, and a small thaw —