Tuesday 11th July 1820

All hands, Kirk included also Jno. Snook reaping, finished the strong wheat, in the evening all hands, together with Betsy Pepple and Polly Snook reading Rye, a moderate fair day, Thermr. 88°

Wednesday 12th

A. Pepple, Jno. Dodds, Ephraim, Charles working with P. Snook, A. Kirk Joshua, & Pompey howeing Potatoes, a warm day Ther. 82°

Thursday 13th

Ephram began to plough the Corn with the Shovel plough all hands with Jno. Snook his father, Sister & Betsy Pepple reading wheat & Rye a fair day & warm Ther. 87° about 8 in the evening a good deal of distant thunder, & a heavy rain

Friday 14th

This morning it rained & was likely to be wet, the people at sundry jobs in the forenoon, in the evening A. P. J. S. Charles cut wheat followed by P. Snook, his daughter, B. Pepple, A. Kirk, Jno. Dodds, & Joshua, Ephram was sick, Pompey hoed potatoes, filled a sheaf &c. I replanted some Potatoes, a cool day & fair from about 8 O'Clock

Saturday 15th

Last night cool, A. P. J. S. Charles reading wheat, J. Dodds, A. Kirk, Joshua, Betsy Pepple & Peter Snook, 1 day raking & binding, Pompey howeing potatoes &c. Ephram ploughing Corn, a moderate day, a little thunder & a heavy rain about 1 O'Clock —

Monday 17th

Yesterday moderate A. P. & Jno. Snook reading with Charles the breakfast, P. Snook, his daughter, B. Pepple, A. Kirk following Charles & Jos. gathering Rye from wheat, Jno. Dodds, & Pompey put in 4 loads of grain A moderately warm day & fair

Sunday 18th

Last night fair & moderate, A. P. & Charles reading, & Jos. taking at P. Snook's the breakfast afterwards all hands say A. P. J. S. P. S. his daughter, B. Pepple A. Kirk Charles & Joshua finished reading wheat, let it up, & commenced cutting Oats, Jno. Dodds, & Pompey hauling in wheat & Rye a fine day & moderate

Grain &c.	Rye	wheat	Oats	Buckwheat & peas	Corn
	Dos.
Jacob Mouthler	151.00	18.00	16.00	8.00
Mr. Dorn	761.00	557.00	1312 + 404 = 1716 = 22.4 } 563.01
Frederick Marks	161.00	49.00	78.00	11.00
Peter Snook	207.00
Dan. Flanand	489 + 177 } 666	70.00	35.00
Peter Ridinger					58.50
Marker				8 02.	114.00
Henry Hawn				8 2	10.00

Wedy. 19th

Last night very warm A. Pepple cutting Oats, Charles raking — Jno. Dodds, A. Kirk, & Pompey hauling wheat & Rye Joshua & cutting a very warm day Thermr. 86° — Ephram ploughing Corn,

Thursday 20th

Last night very stormy A. Pepple, Jno. Snook, P. Ridinger, Hen. a part of the day morning (Ch. being sick) Jno. Dodds, A. Kirk & Jos. hauling in grain & binding Oats &c. a warm day Ther. 82°. Ephram finished ploughing Corn about the middle of the afternoon, afterwards ploughed A. Pepple's potatoes some distant thunder in the evening

21st

Heard of thunder & some rain last night, A. Pepple, Jno. Snook B. Pepple & all the girls cutting Oats, in the evening brought in a load of wheat, a heavy gust from half past nine till nearly 12 O'Clock, another heavy gust about 6 O'Clock much thunder, lightning 3/4 of a day for J. S. & B. Pepple about 8 cleared up

Saturday 22

Last night moderate, all hands cutting & gathering Oats, including Jno. Snook, & B. Pepple from breakfast 1/4 day, a fine fair moderate day —

Monday 24th

Yesterday fair & cool, Thermr. 68°. All hands at cutting Oats with Jno. Snook, & B. Pepple, finished cutting Oats, & in the evening began to cut Grass, a fine fair moderate day Ephram harrowing