THANKSGIVING.

Have you gotten all that you wished? If so you should hurry to give thanks. The buying of a suit of clothes or Overcoat is very much like the pulling of a "Wish-bone," that is, if you are not competent in your judgement of cloth and workmanship, or careful in your selection of a house where fair treatment will be handed out to you, you might get the small end of it. He is indeed a fortunate man who takes chances and never loses.

The beauty of dealing here is that you take no chance. We are ever alert to the best interests of our customers and buy only merchandise that has a virtue of valor and when we sell it, the purchaser has our reputation for fair dealing, as a protection that if there should happen any dissatisfaction, we are ready, and quick to make it right.

Our line of Mens', Boys' and Childrens' clothing, as in former years, is up to the highest mark of excellence. Prices as usual, unmatchable in lowness, consistent with good quality. Come early. Select your suit while assortment is the best.

Yours for business,

TREES! TREES!

I have a splendid lot of trees for this season—PEACH, APPLE and PEAR TREES.

Our Peach Trees are grown on the mountains of Tennessee on wild Tennessee pits. Scale is unknown and our Peach Trees are absolutely immune from yellows and prematures.

ABOUT 20,000 Peach Trees

TO DISPOSE OF.

The buds were selected from the best strain of each variety which were sent out from Nicholson's nurseries 25 to 30 years ago and many of these orchards were more healthier and vigorous the past season than quite a few orchards five and six years old.

The trees have been inspected by authorities from the State Entomologist, Professor Symons, and found entirely free from any root disease, San Jose scale or other insects.

Orders will be carefully attended to.

LIVE LOCAL NOTES

Accident.—Little Laura Crowding, 9 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Crowding, of Morgnec, fell while playing at school last Monday, badly fracturing her collar bone; the wound was dressed by Dr. H. B. Simmons, of Chestertown, and she is now rapidly improving, but will not be able to use her arm for about 3 weeks.

Announcement.—The marriage of Miss Marian Josephine Lusby to Mr. Thomas Dodd Bowers, associate editor of the Chestertown Transcript, is announced to take place at the home of the bride, on High street, on Thursday morning, Dec. 6th, 1906, at 7 o'clock. They will be "at home" on Washington Avenue to their friends after Tuesday, Dec. 18th. No cards.

Change of Schedule.—There will be a new schedule to go into effect on the Pennsylvania railroad Sunday. There will be no morning train Sunday and the afternoon train will leave at 4.04 p. m. arriving at 7 07 p. m. Week days the morning train will leave at 7.50 a. m. and arrive at 11.02 a. m.

Judgement For $80.—Mr. Wm. R. Clough through his attorney, W. W. Beck, Esq., brought suit before Justice Calder for $99 damages to his horse against the Commissioners of Kent county. It appeared that some pipe had been left on the roadside in the second district at which Mr. Clough's horse became frightened, ran off and claimed to have seriously injured himself. Justice Calder rendered a judgment for $80 in favor of Mr. Clough.

Real Estate Sold.—J. Waters Russell, Real Estate Broker reports sale to Frank E. Stevens of Mrs. Mary Wagner's dwelling at Edesville and 25 acres of land adjoining belonging to William Wagner.

The "Palmer Farm," containing 428 acres of land, which was sold in Centreville was purchased by Mr. J. H. C. Legg for $11,556.

Mr. James T. Earle, assignee, sold at public sale in Centreville, Tuesday, the Charles Legar Farm, situate in the First District, and containing 86 acres of land, to Mr. Richard Legar for $860.

Mr. D. B. Stewart, of Baltimore, has sold the farm, situated near Lynch's station, to Mr. Jacob Crowding, for $1500, posession Jan. 1st. It was advertised in the News.

Rat's Nest of Money.—In another column will be found the statements of two of Chestertown's strong financial institutions They show an excellent condition of affairs and there is no reason for anyone to horde their money about the house as did the lady in following instance: "Workmen engaged in tearing down a partition between two rooms in the farmhouse of Jacob Zimmer, in Bloomneld, N. J., discovered a rat's nest in a corner and found it had been constructed out of bank notes of various denominations The money was made up of bills ranging from $1 to $20, and all were in a badly mutilated condition. They were remnants of at least $150.

When the money or what was left of it was shown to Mrs. Zimmer, the frugal and saving wife of the farmer, she said it was a part of some of the savings from the sale of produce which she had kept in a dish in a closet."

Hay $20.—The price of No. 1 timothy hay in the local market has advanced to $20 a ton, and is scarce even at that figure.

According to a statement made by Mr. C. Bosley Littig, a member of the Chamber of Commerce, it is about $4 above what hay of a similar grade usually sells for at this season. Mr. Littig regards the advance as an indication of the small crop. He points out that in nearby sections scarce more than half a crop was gathered, as the rains of the summer injured it while growing. Climatic conditions elsewhere also had a tendency to shorten the yield, so that on the whole there is less stock available now than for some years past at the same period. Philadelphia is 50 cents per ton higher than the local market, while New York is $1 higher.

The same is true in the West, said Mr. Littig. The markets there are relatively higher than here, and in consequence little high grade hay is coming this way.

COPPAGE—GOLT.

Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church Miss Harriet Glanville Golt, only daughter of Mrs. Mary Frances Golt, of Centreville, and Dr. Wm. Guyther Coppage, of Church Hill, son of Judge and Mrs. Wm. S. Coppage, of St. Marys county, were married by Rev. Walter B. Stehl, rector of the church, assisted by Rev. James A. Mitchell. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, John P. Stelle, Sr., of Baltimore, and Mrs. Edward Bourke Emory, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. Dr. Arthur Hebb, of Baltimore, was best man. The ushers were John P. Stelle, Jr., and H. Ross Coppage, of Baltimore; Norman Dudley, Herbert H. Warren and W. Bourke Faithful, of Church Hill, and Edward Bourke Emory, of Centreville. After the wedding a reception was held at the elegant home of the bride. Dr. and Mrs. Coppage left on the 2.30 train for a Southern tour. They will be at home at Church Hill after December 15.

J. Robert Lewis and Miss Clara M. Donnelly, both of Rock Hall, were quietly married by Rev. J. W. Parris at the M. P. parsonage on Nov. 14, 1906.

The following marriage licenses were issued by Clerk Dixon: J. Fred Everett and Annie P. Everett, of Queen Anne's; Robert Culley and Arkie Davis; James H. Urie and Sarah J. Rigney, Baltimore; Thos. C. Rodney and Cornelia Crayton; Robert F. Mathews and Julia M. Crouch, of Rock Hall.
