The wheat was fully covered by insurance in Mr. Tilghman Shafer's agency but there was no insurance on Mr. Clendaniel's rig.

A fire was noticed in Mr. John Gale Usilton's stubble field Saturday soon after the afternoon train left, but fortunately the section men were near and extinguished the blaze There were eight shocks of corn fodder burned.

P. Church, where funeral services were held on Tuesday morning, conducted by Dr. D. L. Greenfield. The pall bearers were: Messrs. James W. Lambert, R. D. Hynson, John F. Howard, George W. Day by day we saw her fade
And slowly sink away,
Yet in our hearts we often prayed
That she might longer stay.
Her trials are past, her work is done
And she is fully blest.
She fought the fight, the victory won
And entered into rest.
Farewell, farewell our dearest mother,
Hard was it for us to see you die
But thou hast gone to the Golden City
Where we shall see thee bye and bye.

BY HER CHILDREN.
