Saturday 11th Jany. 1823

I set out for Annapolis & returned on Friday the 24th I found the people had been employed hauling rails threshing, cleaning flax &c. the weather for the past month past, the last Wet & roads very bad

Monday 27th

On Saturday night some snow fell, Sunday rain & snow. the people employed about the yard at Sunday jobs, it rained & snowed mostly all day —

Tuesday 28th

Last night a slight frost, Charles at the road, Chas. breaking flax, Wm. Myers &c. putting in hay, Spreading flax &c. a moderate fine day, slight frost Alley a lamb

Wednesday 29

a pretty hard frost last night, Wm. Myers, Rev. J. Bristow & family, hauling wheat, Ephraim breaking flax, the boys Charles hauling wheat, a big storm, Pompy in the kitchen, a clear frosty day

Thursday 30.

Frost last night, Wm. Myers, Ruth & Bristow putting in wheat thrashing, Ephraim breaking flax, Charles in the stone in the forenoon, & in the evening hauled with the wheat & Young Charles sick a mild frosty day

Friday 31

Hard frost last night Wm. Myers, Charles hauling rails & making a sheep pen the rest thrashing wheat, Pompy in the kitchen a frosty day, cold & squaly in the evening

Lambs flying dead

Saturday 1 Feby

Last night hard frost Wm. Myers & the rest thrashing wheat &c. a keen frost all day 1 lamb

Monday 3

Last night a moderate fall of snow which continued till about 12 o'clock to day all hands cleaning wheat I went to Uniontown, a gentle thaw all day, a slight frost in the evg.

Wm. Myers to school

Tuesday 4th

Last night a keen frost, 2 young lambs, lot as hands cleaning wheat & preparing for hauling Rails &c. lent buckets of wheat to the Mill a clear frosty day throughout

Wednesday 5 February 1823

Hard frost last night Wm. Myers & Ephraim went to Brown's for rails, Charles & the boys thrashing, feeding Cattle &c. a cold frosty day —

Thursday 6th

Hard frost last night Charles & the boys thrashing attending to Cattle &c. Wm. Myers & Ephraim rel. Ford rails about 12 o'clock in the evening frost a very keen frost all day I went to Jno. Scott's

Friday 7th

Last night, a very hard frost Wm. Myers & Ephraim went for rails, Charles & the boys thrashing & feeding Cattle &c. 4 lambs last night 2 died a keen frost all day

Saturday 8th

Extreme hard frost last night, Wm. Myers & the rest thrashing jobs a very cold day hard frost with a high wind — a Calf died — Ephr. sick

Monday 10

Extreme hard frost on Monday morning yesterday & last night moderate Wm. Myers went for rails, Ephraim sick Charles the boys & I put in Rye attended stock &c. the day mild, but ocasionaly — 4 lambs yesterday

Tuesday 11

Last night moderate, Wm. Myers returned with a load of rails, Charles & the boys thrashing, feeding &c. Pompy mostly in the House, Ephraim sick I sick a damp day ocasionaly dull, snow in the evening 7 lambs last night & today

Wednesday 12.

Last night mild, Wm. Myers brought a load of rails Charles & the boys thrashing, feeding &c. Ephraim jobbing, also Pompy a mild day, & a considerable thaw 2 lambs today

Thursday 13

A slight frost last night Wm. Myers & Ephraim went for rails this morning, Charles & the boys thrashing &c. Pompy feeding sheep &c. a clear day, & considerable thaw, snow in the evening 3 lambs today