Friday 14th Feby 1823

Last night moderate, some snow fell — Wm Myers, J. McCombridge & Isaac brought home a load of rails & went for more, Charles & the boys thrashing, Pompey attending Cattle, Sheep &c. it snowed in the forenoon & in the evening thawed & rained

1 lamb smothered 6 lambs last night & today

Saty. 15th

Last night a very high wind, & a slight frost towards morn. Wm Myers, Ephraim, & Isaac came with rails, Charles & the boys thrashing, Pompey attending cattle &c. a fine frosty day

Monday 17th

Saturday night 2 dead lambs, yesterday 1 lamb yesterday a very cold day — Wm Myers at the mill & the smithshop, Ephraim at the shop & day thaw &c. Charles Pompey & the boys at Sunday jobs, Pompey attending cattle last night a fine frost 3 living & 1 dead lamb

4 living lambs

this day mild &c

Charles	3	Pompey	3
ditto	2	do	3
		do	6

Tuesday 18th

Hard frost last night Wm Myers & Ephraim went for rails Charles Pompey & the boys thrashing, attending sheep cattle &c. a hard frost & windy with extreme cold

2 lambs last night, 3 today 2nd dead

Wednesday 19th

A hard frost last night the waggon came home with rails about 12 O'clock an axletree broken Pompey attending sheep &c. Charles & the boys thrashing &c. the afternoon by Wm Myers & Ephraim spent in preparing feed, fixing the waggon &c — a mild day, a slight thaw in the evening last night 3 living lambs, 1 dead

this day 2 do do

33¼ Qs

Thursday 20th

Last night mild, some snow fell towards morning Wm Myers & Ephraim at Schriver for rails, Charles & the boys thrashing, Pompey attending cattle & sheep &c. a mild thaw all day

1 lamb last night 1 died

4 do today 2 killed by the dogs

Friday 21st Feby 1823

A slight frost last night, the waggon came home about 12 O'clock, Wm Myers went to the mill in the evening & brought some wood to himself — Charles & the boys thrashing &c. Pompey attending sheep &c. a mild day & a considerable thaw

1 lamb last night & 3 today

2 found 1 killed by the dogs

Saturday 22

A slight frost last night Ephraim went to G. Bay mills Mr Cobb then, the rest at Sunday jobs I & Wm B. went to J. Jones, & came home on Sunday — A soft day & a considerable thaw —

Monday 24th

Saturday night & Sunday 6 lambs, 3 died

A considerable fall of snow yesterday Wm Myers & the men cutting wood, took a saw log to the mill, &c. &c. Pompey attending sheep &c. a considerable thaw but cold & like frost in the evening

1 lamb today

Tuesday 25

Last night a very slight frost Wm Myers & the men hauling wood &c. I went to Uniontown with the sleigh a mild thaw

2 lambs since last night 1 stowed

Wedy. 26

Last night moderate, Mr Myers & the rest at Sunday jobs putting in hay &c. a damp disagreeable day since last night 3 lambs, 1 of them dead lamb.

Thursday 27th

A pretty fine frost last night Wm Myers & the rest putting in hays, hauling wood &c. a fine frost all day —

no lambs last night or today

Friday 28

Hard frost last night Mr Myers Ephraim, Charles & the boys cutting, hauling & hauling firewood &c. I went to Laughtown, a cold blowing frosty day —

this day 3 lambs, 2 old ones died