Z. P. LUSBY'S ESTATE.

Bequeathed To His Wife and Children—Will Probated On Thursday.

The will of Z. Porter Lusby, late of the First Election district of Cecil county, was probated in the Orphans' Court at Elkton, Thursday. The estate which is valued at about $40,000, is bequeathed as follows: To his wife, Mary E. Lusby, the Cruikshank property in Cecilton, and the Cochran farm, in the First district, but stipulating that she shall pay to his daughter, Emma V. Lusby, within three years from his death, the sum of $3,000 His wife is also bequeathed all the furniture and household goods contained in his late home. He recommends that his wife sell the Cruikshank property within three years after his death, but does not make the request compulsory. He further stipulates that should his wife re-marry after his death, her husband is to have no share in his real estate. To his daughter, Mrs. Annie Porter Davis, the home farm, known as Hazel Branch, situated in the First district, with the old mill property adjoining the same, and directs that she pay his daughter, Emma Lusby, $1000. To his daughter, Mrs. Maria Cox Davis, is bequeathed the Jones farm, with all growing crops, situate in First district of Cecil county. He stipulates that she pay his daughter, Emma Lusby, $2,000. To his son, Samuel Wills Lusby, his farm in Kent county, with all growing crops. He stipulates that he pay his daughter, Emma V. Lusby, $1000. He devises that his five shares of stock of the Cecilton creamery be equally divided between his wife and four children. He also makes the same disposition of five shares of stock he held in the Middletown and Cecilton Electric Railway. His remaining five shares of the same stock he leaves in trust to his grandson, Porter Davis. The rest and residue of his estate he stipulates shall be divided as follows: One-third to his wife, and the remainder equally between his four children. His wife, Mrs. Mary E. Lusby, is named as executrix, without bond. The will bears date of December 28, 1904, and it witnessed by Noble Ferguson and J. William Newton.

Exercise Both Muscles and Mind.

A writer in Medical Brief has this to say concerning physical culture: "An hour of useful, purposive work, involving muscular exertion, such as lawn-mowing, wood-chopping, sawing, shoveling, etc., is of more vital value to the individual than several hours spent in the indoor gymnasium or athletics. Usefulness, purposiveness, helpfulness, and general service furnish the keynote to the harmony and moral equipoise, strength and beauty, in human no less than in universal nature."

This is good advice. We always have believed that, if one's daily work could furnish him exercise, it was the best physical culture that he could possibly take. The doing of housework, sawing wood, shoveling snow from the yard—some work that has a purpose in it—is far better than just mechanically going through some set form of exercise, such as practicing in the ordinary gymnasium with dumb-bells, Indian clubs, etc.

The best benefit comes when the mind as well as the body is engaged in the exercise; and any exercise, whether indoors or outdoors, that engages both muscle and mind, is sure to be more beneficial than that exercise that is simply taken because one feels constrained to go through some mechanical mode of exercise. The mind and body must work together to secure the best results.—Medical Talk.

CLOTHING TAILORING FURNISHINGS

This man bought a supply of tobacco without acquainting himself with the distinctive taste of SCHNAPPS Tobacco, which has the cheering qualities that gratify his desire to chew, and at less expense than cheap tobacco.

SCHNAPPS has been advertised in this paper so that every chewer has had an opportunity to get acquainted with the facts and know that drugs are not used to produce the cheering quality found in the famous Piedmont country flue-cured tobaccos, and that SCHNAPPS is what he ought to chew. Still there are chewers who accept other and cheaper tobaccos that do not give the same pleasure.

Some day they'll get a taste of the real Schnapps—they'll realize what enjoyment they've missed by not getting SCHNAPPS long ago—then they'll feel like kicking themselves.

SCHNAPPS is sold everywhere in 5 cent cuts, and 10 and 15 cent plugs. Be sure you get the genuine.
