Saturday 1st March 1823

Hard frost last night. Wm Myers & the rest cutting and hauling firewood &c. & preparing feed for Monday's cold in the forenoon in the evening mild

5 lambs today

Monday 3.

Last night blew & froze hard, five lambs dead today Wm Myers & Ephraim went for rails today Charles & the boys thrashing, Pompey attending sheep &c. a very cold day — Weather Cold Ewes & lambs clean fed

3 lambs today

Tuesday 4th

Hard frost last night Wm Myers & Ephraim came home with rails about 10 O'Clock, in the evening preparing feed, Mr. Charles & the boys thrashing a clear cold frosty day

1 lamb.

Wedy. 5th

Frost last night, but mild. Wm Myers & Ephraim went for rails, Charles & the boys thrashing &c. Pompey attending sheep &c. a wet day mostly but moderate —

1 lamb, 1 died

Thursday 6

A great deal of rain last night Wm Myers & Ephm came home about 12 with rails, Charles & the boys cleaning up &c. Pompey as usual a dark day, about 12 a severe shower of hail & rain thunder & lightning the evening fair

3 lambs today

Friday 7th.

Hard frost last night, Wm Myers went to Mill & hauled a load of wood for Mr ~~Barnes~~ Reid Charles & Ephraim cutting up firewood, a clear cool day

5 lambs last night & today

Saty. 8th

Hard frost last night, Wm Myers at Sunday jobs, Ephm & Charles hauling wood &c. Pompey as usual a fine temperate day

this day 6 lambs 2 died

Monday 10. March 1823

yesterday very mild, a slight frost last night, Wm Myers left today. Mr Rankin & wood in his place, Ephraim & Charles hauling & flooding. Pompey as usual, a dark cold day. some sleet & snow

5 lambs since Saturday eve

Tuesday 11th

A hot night last Wm Myers unwell &c. Ephraim & Pompey Gone &c. Charles boring bar posts, the boys & Pompey at Sunday jobs a cold wet disagreeable day

4 lambs last night 2 lost in the field yesterday & cow calved

Wedny. 12th

last night a slight frost Wm Myers absent unwell &c. Ephraim, Charles & the boys hauling rails & thrashing fence, Pompey as usual, a clear mild day & cow calved

Thursday 13th

A very slight frost last night. All hands employed in hauling rails, thrashing fence a fine mild day last night 1 lamb

Friday 14th

Last night damp, the people employed in boring posts Water Ranks &c. it being too wet to work out cold & wet all day —

one lamb today

Saturday 15th

Last night a slight frost Wm Myers went to Mill & the men put in Hay &c. in the forenoon, in the evening all hands at fencing Pompey picking potatoes &c. — a fine clear moderate day

Monday 17

Yesterday & last night mild Ephraim sick, Wm Myers & the two boys hauling, Charles & I quarrying, in the hill near the old house, a gloomy mild day sowed some early York Cabbage seed in a box

1 lamb Saturday night

1 lamb today