WEDDING EVENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. T. Comegys, of Kent county, announce the marriage of their daughter, Mabel Woodland, to Morton McIlvain Dukehart, of Baltimore. The wedding took place Wednesday at Woodland Hall and was witnessed only by the family of the bride. The announcement came as a surprise to the many friends of the couple. After the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Dukehart left for Old Point Comfort. After Jan. 1 they will be at home at 9 East Biddle street, Baltimore.

STANLEY—JEWELL.

A quiet wedding took place at Weslyn Chapel M. P. Parsonage near Edesville early Thursday morning, Rev. J. W. Parris officiating. The contracting parties were Miss Elizabeth Jewell, the youngest and popular daughter of Mr. J. Parson Jewell and Mr. Wm. P. Stanley, of Wilmington. The ceremony took place in the presence of only a few close friends and relatives of the couple. The bride was becomingly attired in a tailor made traveling suit of dark blue chiffon broadcloth with hat and gloves to harmonize. After the ceremony the bridal couple boarded the Susquehanna at Tolchester on a wedding trip to Washington, D. C. Upon their return they will reside in Wilmington, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley have many warm friends here in Kent who wish them much happiness.

OYSTER PROTECTION.

Capt. Ashley, Captain of the Police Boat, Made 11 Arrests in One Day—One Man Fined Three Times.

MESSRS EDITORS:

I have been importuned by about ten oystermen, and two business men to write something for publication regarding the conditions of the efforts to inforce the Cull Law by Capt. Ashley but I have refrained from doing so for the reason that my article would find its way into the waste baskets. I have been urged to try other papers. I have urged those men to have an article sent in as an ad, but they feel that this would be adding insult to injury. Now for my non-compliance I am criticised

Certainly, conditions are most diplorable, to say the least. None condemn Mr. Ashley for trying to perform his duty, on the contrary, all give him credit, when that duty is performed in a gentlemanly manner, many times he exceeds his authority. He will curse and abuse the men when there is no occasion for such. He is partial, with some he is not concerned, when really there is ground for investigation. Those who are opposed to him he has spotted and goes for them with vengeance. He gets into their boats, kicks the oysters or any thing else about in a vicious manner. When there is no evidence of violations and if the owners protest they are cursed. He says his appointment was unsought by him, he didn't want it, he can make more money otherwise, he is not beholding to the party nor to the people, but since he is commander and since 20 or more letters from this section went to the Governor protesting against commissioning him, he is going to make it hot for the ——

He is said to be a man of ungovernable temper. Personaly I know nothing of these conditions by reason of an injury to my left hand received Sept. 3rd, I am not in the oyster business this season, I frequently hear the men talk and men whose word can be relied on have told me these things. My boys have had no trouble with Ashley save one who had some trouble last week when serious termination was barely averted The boy's oysters were O. K. and Ashley's conduct, I learn, was uncalled for. But this I know.

The Democratic party in this and other oystering districts is being hurt, and that bad.

A report that came here on Friday last that a letter came to Ashley urging him to give it to the oystermen hot because of their non-voting at the late election. Republicans while they deplore the existing conditions rejoice because of the prospects of future victory at the polls, &c. If the managers are anxious to save party from defeat next fall and for years to come, it behoves them to exert their influence in behalf of better conditions here. While it is true that many oystermen are disposed to violate the law, yet many others are, and ever have been desirous of obeying the law, but the conditions of the oysters are such as to make it difficult to comply with the law and the buyers, many of them, will take such stock as they know is in violation of the Cull Law. Many of the men understand that all small oysters adhering to larger ones that cannot be knocked off without injury are allowable to be passed, but Ashley knocks and chips them off when they become no longer useful because of injury to them.

Were it not for the leniency of our magistrate who allows the men several weeks in which to pay their fines, not a few would be placed in embarrassing circumstances for the winter and men too who are endeavoring to be law abiding. —OYSTERMAN.

[The above letter proves the truth of what the NEWS has charged repeatedly, —viz., that the oystermen are "killing the goose that lays the golden egg," and when officers are named who do their duty in preventing the killing of the goose they abuse and condemn him. The enforcement of the cull law is the best method to preserve this great industry to Rock Hall oystermen and to the county and they should stand together, good and true men, in encouraging Capt Ashley or any other officer in the arrest of violators. The above writer says there are others who violate the law. Then report them to Capt. Ashley and we are sure he will attend to their case as he does others.

The fear that Capt. Ashley will hurt the party should not enter into the question. There should be no faction, no party in this business of punishing violators of law and Capt. Ashley is to be commended for his allegiance to duty. There is, however, a right and wrong way to arrest law breakers and we certainly believe Capt. Ashley will observe the rules of impartiality, justice and gentlemanly conduct in making these arrests.—EDS. NEWS.]

DAVIS & SMITH call your attention to the cost price sale of gold filled and silver watches, also solid gold set rings. They are making most wonderful low prices on the above mentioned articles.

Fred Wilson, colored, while oystering in Chester river, Thursday afternoon, threw a stone at a wild goose and hitting it in the head killed the goose.

For that Dandruff

There is one thing that will cure it—Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is a regular scalp-medicine. It quickly destroys the germs which cause this disease. The unhealthy scalp becomes healthy. The dandruff disappears, had to disappear. A healthy scalp means a great deal to you—healthy hair, no dandruff, no pimples, no eruptions.

The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."
