Tuesday 18th March 1873

Much rain last night Ephram Sick, Wm Myers & Charles making a water Rack the boys cleaning Stables &c. Pompey after the Cattle &c. a cold Wet day a Violent thunder Storm about 2 O'Clock with hail & rain

1 lamb died of Cold & diarr

Wednesday 19

Last night mild, Wm Myers, Ephram, Charles & the boys quarrying & hauling Stones &c. a fine clear day

2 lambs to day

Thursday 20th

A considerable fall of snow last night - Wm Myers at the Smith Shop, Mill, Hampton &c. Ephram, Charles & the boys building Stone fence &c. Lambert making Water Rack &c. a cold ap-greeable day but fair

1 lamb to day

Friday 21st

Hard frost & high wind last night. Wm Myers, Ephm & the boys hauling Chestnut Rails, Charles making Stone fence Pompey as usual - a clear but cold day Lambert repairing Sills &c.

1 lamb died today

Saturday 22

A slight frost last night - Wm Myers & Ephram hauling rails, Charles & Barlow hauling Stones, big Charles in the garden. Pompey attending Cattle &c. Hu. Myers went to Frederick for Worthy - a fine clear temperate day

Monday 24th

Sowed in a hot Bed

6 rows Early York
4 " Green Savoy
3 " Sugar Loaf
3 " Red Cabbage
2 " Lettuce Mixt

12 dou rows beans
5 " Early peas
5 " Late do
6 rows Lettuce

Wm Myers & the boys hauling rails, Ephram ploughing, Ch. in the garden, Pompey jobbing, a very fine day

1 lamb died

Sunday 25 March 1873

A small frost last night. Wm Myers, Jos. & Charles hauling rails, Ephram Oats, Ephram ploughing, Charles digging in the Garden planted White Potatoes in the lettuce border

Barlow whitling in barn, Pompey as usual

A fair but cool day

Wednesday 26th

A slight frost last night, Ephram finished ploughing the hill, Mr Myers commenced laying out Oat ground, Jos. & Charles hauled Stones, Charles dig & planted blue potatoes in the garden in the forenoon, it began to snow about 11 O'Clock & continued all day pretty heavy, in the evening the people employed in hauling Oats &c. Cold in the forenoon, in the evening warm & mild

2 lambs alive to graft

Thursday 27th

Wm Myers & all hands ~~working~~ ~~laying out a new fence~~ engaging rails the snow mostly gone a cold day but fair

Friday 28

All hands had frost last night laying out & making a new fence a blowing cold day but fair

Saturday 29

all hands employed in fencing a fair cool day

4 lambs which died

Monday 31

~~Last~~ Last night a heavy fall of snow which continued all day yesterday, 2 lambs died yesterday morning, 3 last night 1 lambed on Saturday night This being earlier Monday ~~little was done except hauling~~ in some hay, & a load of straw from Mr Flanards a fair day but cold rather inclining to freeze in the shade, but a great thaw from the sun

1 lamb died today from cold & wet