A Christmas Sunday School entertainment is being prepared for by the scholars of Asbury M. E church. This entertainment will be held December 26.

Mr. Wm. Mallalieu and Miss Addie Sheppard were married at Crumpton last Wednesday, after the ceremony the happy couple drove to Millington and took the afternoon train for a trip North. They will reside in our town where Mr. Mallalieu conducts the livery business.

ROCK HALL ITEMS

The M. E. pulpit was well supplied on Sunday morning with Ministers Dr. Bolton, conference evangelist, W. U. Harris and Warren Burr. Dr. Bolton with zeal and warmth delivered a strong sermon on the necessity of and Faith in the death of the son of man, which was happily received by a large audience. The Sunday School here is preparing an elaborate program for its Christmas entertainment which will be held next Thursday evening in the M. E. church.

The Monday evening services of this church are very largely attended and much spiritual interest is manifest. If this interest continues over the holidays into the revival effort, that effort ought to be minus the unusual perliminary drag.

Butcher Casey has on exhibition the breast bone of the Almshouse thanksgiving goose, two thirds of it is very much colored and Abe says that denotes severe winter for January and February.

Many removals are taking place in our vicinity. Among them are Mr. Parsons from the Stevens farm on the Island to Huntingfield, and Mr Reese goes to the farm vacated by Mr. Parsons; Mr. S. J. Davis has moved to the proper tyrecently vacated by Mr J. A. Smith; Mr. H. G. Wilkins has moved to the W. T. Wilkins property; Mr. Finman Mulford has moved to the Fogwell property near Greys Inn.

Mr. R. S. Crew is the first in the field in distributing 1907 calenders. They are of an attractive design well gotten up.

Mr. C. H. Smith while his housekeeper was laid off for a few days concluded to be chief cook and bottle washer, in making up a batch of bread his hands became entangled with the dough and couldn't get clear of it except by immersing his hands in water and gave up the job, then he tried churning butter, the butter came alright but he couldn't mass it the more he tried the more the butter spread over everything in reach, that job he gave up too, then his daughter put in an appearance and after a hearty laugh soon had household affairs in good shape. Charlie is a pretty good clodhopper but no housekeeper.

One of the police steamers has been in our harbor this week looking after the enforcement of the oyster cull law, there seems to be much complaint from the city packers.

Ere another issue of the KENT NEWS Christmas with all its cheer will have come, our sincere wish therefore Messrs Editors is that this may be to you and yours the brightest and happiest Christmas of life's journey thus far gone.

Our young friend R. A. Shallcross has caught unto the simplified spelling, he now signs his name, ShallX.

About the biggest improvement in the interior of a building made in this place in years has been the papering of K. of P. hall by W. H. Greenwood this week.

DIED.

John Jeffries, beloved husband of Mary E. Jeffries died at Rock Hall, Dec. 9th aged 72 years. Gone but not forgotten.

Gone from earth, yes, gone forever,
Tear dimmed eyes shall gaze in vain,
We shall hear his voice never,
Never more on earth again.

Home is sad, Oh God, how dreary,
Weary, lonesome, every spot,
Listning for his voice, till weary,
Call him, for we hear it not.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of our sister, Tena Grant, died Dec. 3, 1906, age 20 years, 10 mon's and 15 days.

She was thoughtful loving and tender
With us each and everyone,
Here she suffered but is now rejoicing,
Her joy in heaven has just begun.

To all the dear loved ones now dwelling
In the home which shall knew her no more
As they will be constantly telling
Of the sister gone on before.

BY HER PARENTS AND SISTERS.

On Saturday morning, December 1, 1906, at the residence of her cousin, Mrs. Clarence Dadds, Daisy Pierce, age 16 years

In the graveyard, softly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one we love so dearly
In her lonely, silent grave.

Gone but not forgotten
Nor will you ever be
For as long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.

BY HER SCHOOLMATES.

THE WASHINGTON COLLEGE BANQUET.

Alumni Gathering at Hotel Rennert—Fine Menu Enjoyed and a Number of Excellent Addresses Stirred Up the True College Spirit—Dr. J. W. Cain, President of the College, Acted as Toastmaster of The occasion.

The second annual banquet of the Baltimore branch of the Alumni Association of Washington College, of Chestertown, Md., was held Tuesday night at the Rennert, where a fine menu was enjoyed and some excellent addresse heard. At the banquet last year was started a movement which resulted in a new $50,000 building for the college, a fact which gives some conception of the influence of the local branch. A number of distinguished men were present, including Dr. James W. Cain, president of the college, who acted as toastmaster.

The toast list was unique in that the speakers represented various institutions of learning, and emphasized in their remarks the spirit of fraternity which should exist between institutions. It was as follows:

John P. Poe, Princeton—"The State of Maryland and Its Colleges."

Dr. William Bullock Clark, Johns Hopkins University—"The University and the College."

Dr. George W. Ward, State Normal School—"The Fraternal Feeling Which Should Exist Between Maryland Colleges."

Prof. Thomas H. Spence, vice president of Maryland Agricultural College—"The College-bred Farmer."

Dr. J. Houston Eccleston is president of the association and J. Thomas Morris secretary. The banquet committee consisted of James W. Chapman, Jr., chairman; Sentor Clarence W. Perkins and John T. Morris.

Among those present were Rev. Dunbar Gould, Marion DeK. Smith, W. W. Hubbard, Prof. E. J. Clark, Lewin W. Wickes, David Ford, Roland Parks, P. G. Wilmer, C. W. Perkins, Allen Goldsborough, A. S. Goldsborough, Alfred McDonald, E. Rigby McDonald, Howard U. Clogg, J. H. Rose, Eben Perkins, James W. Chapman, Prof. James Roy Micou, C. F. E. Harley, Prof. Roland Watts, Dr. J. H. Eccleston, George H. Bunting, Col. William J. Vannort, Curtis W. Long and others.

THE sale of the Levine jewelry stock has been good. Messrs. Davis and Smith want to and must close the stock this month and for 10 days yet the price will be just cost and 5 per cent. off for spot cash.
