Tuesday 1st April 1823

A moderate frost last night, the people employed in sinking a drain from the Cellar, putting up lawn at the lane &c. a clear sun & a great decline of Snow the Cabbage seem as the fly appears —

Wednesday 2

A slight frost last night, the Brindled Cow had a bull calf. Charles & Thrashing Rye, Wm & Hu. Myers, Ephraim, Joshua, Barlow, & I making fence, a clear soft day — I have to day

Thursday 3

Last night Bull the Charles thrashing Rye, Wm & Hugh Myers, Ephraim, Joshua, Barlow & I hauled rails & laid the worm of a fence 198 panels a mild fine day —

Friday 4th

Last night some rain, & very Stormy in the beginning of the night, latter part cool the Charles thrashed & cleaned Rye forenoon, the rest hauling rails forenoon & in the evening all hands laying fence, a cool clear day

Saturday 5th

Last night fair — Wm Myers, & the rest digging Stumps Stone &c. except Charles who was clipping & repairing the thorn fence at the road, a fine clear cool day —

Monday 7th

Yesterday clear & moderate, last night some rain Charles at the thorn hedge, Wm Myers & the boys digging Stumps, hauling Stones &c. Ephraim came from G. B. the forenoon a good deal of rain, the afte. Glooming & one seven showers

Sunday 8

Wm & Hu. Myers Ephraim & the boys gathering & hauling Stones, Charles at the thorn Hedge, Pompey as usual a fair cool day

Wednesday 9th

Frost last night, Wm Myers, & the rest gathering Stones, & hauling Stumps, Charles & I at the road fence, Pompey attending Cattle, a fair cool day

Thursday 10th April 1823

Last night pretty cool, Wm Myers & Ephraim fencing forenoon, in the evening Ephraim commenced ploughing Corn ground, Charles digging in the garden & Barlow wheeling manure, Hu. Myers & Joshua & Charles hauling in Rye, Pompey attending Cattle, Cags &c. a clear cool day Wm Clingan boring posts

Friday 11

Last night cool & dry, Wm Myers & Jos. Stumps forenoon Hu. Myers & Charles hauling in Hay, & Stumps, in the evening Hu. Myers, Jos. Charles, & I laying out a fence Hu. Myers, Joshua hauling posts from the Mill — Ephraim ploughing, Wm Clingan boring posts, & Charles & Barlow in the garden fall day, Cool in the forenoon, in the evening warmer, about Sun set a long shower Cool —

Saturday 12th

A good deal of rain last night, the ground too wet for labour Wm Myers the Charlies & I making a hedge, & ditch from the gate at the road down west the Creek in w. I planted Crabtree, & thorn quickes raised by myself — Ephraim & Barlow thrashing Rye, Hu. Myers & Jos. hauling Rails Wm Clingan mortising posts Lee dressing horses Pompey attending Cattle &c. glooming in the forenoon, the evening Clear & warm

Monday 14th

On Saturday night a shower white frost yesterday a fine temperate day, last night a slight frost Ephraim went to G. Bay yesterday, & came home late this evening — Wm Myers, Charles the boys & myself finished the fence at the road, in the evening the Charlies & I in the garden, planted a row of Acorns, beans planted a row of Crab, & thorn quickes & sowed 2 beds of Apple seeds, Hu. Myers ploughing all day, a fine Spring day —