IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, Mrs. Emily A. Stradley, who departed this life January 29, 1909.

Dearest mother we must lay thee,
In the peaceful grave's embrace,
But thy memory will be cherished
'Till we see thy heavenly face.

We often think of her sweet smiles,
Her ever faithful love,
Our weary hearts she will soothe no more,
She dwells with God above.

THE SHOE STORE.

ARE YOU ONE OF THE SEVENTY?

$4.00 IS A POPULAR PRICE for a pair of Dress Shoes and seventy men out of a hundred think this about the right figures.

Are you one of them? If so we offer you the All America Shoe, their style lines are just as distinct as shoes selling for $5.00.

We won't tell you its the best shoe on earth—even if we do think so, because best is a much abused word.

There's one thing certain though if you can beat it at the price you'll be getting more than a bargain.

For your your own satisfaction at least examine this shoe before you buy—you owe it to yourself. We have them in all leathers and made on the newest lasts.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

The Patriotic Order Sons of America of this place attended divine service in a body on Sunday morning in the M. E. Church and found the pastor, Rev. J. T. Richardson, at his best, who delivered a most charming sermon on "Only Source From Eternal Life," from the text "Then Simon Peter answered Him, Lord, to who shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life." The choir service, too, was at its best. Altogether the morning service was specially enjoyed by a large assembly.

The long-expected occurred here on Saturday night. A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sims was run down by a team in charge of Henry Mercer, near C. Frank Wheatley's store, the wheels passing over the child's body. There were a number of heavy men in the wagon. Dr. Selby was called in and upon examination found that while the injury was exceedingly painful, it was not thought to be serious there being no broken bones or internal injury. The large gathering of people here on Saturday evenings and the narrowness of the thoroughfares makes it very important for both pedestrians and vehicle drivers to be very cautious.

There is a building boom now on at G. E. Leary & Son's milling plant. Additions to the proprietors and tenants dwellings are being made. Mr. T. B. Durding has removed the osage orange fence along the road line of his farm root and branch, and in lieu thereof he is erecting a substantial wire fence.

Many here are exceedingly pleased at the announcement of Rev. D. J. Moore's assignment to a pastoral charge. We all thought long ago that such a step should be taken and in view of the fact that he married one of our finest young christian ladies, we concluded that such result would soon follow. All here wish the young couple well.

This section had the pleasure of meeting Messrs. Joseph Dunn and Harry Griffith, of Sassafras, while they were on a visit to their friend, Mr. R. A. Shallcross, the past week. As they freely mixed with our people they expressed themselves as being pleased with the social and hospitable entertainment accorded them. As Mr. Griffith is a candidate for Register of Wills, the kindly expressions of the citizens of this place showed in no uncertain sound that Mr. G. will poll a handsome vote in the coming primaries, in fact, the indications presage the disappearance of factionalism in the old Fifth which has long been an evil in the Democratic party here. May this benevolent work go on, and so long as Mr. Griffith or any one else can solidify the ranks of the grand old Democratic party, they will always find the latch strings of this community hanging on the outside. Come often and stay longer, gentlemen.

B. Kramer and family have returned from the city and say there is no place like Kent. He has bought 2800 lambs and has shipped 500 at $4.50 already.

THE MUSICAL COMEDY

"Bi-Bi"—Popular in Other Towns, To Be Presented Here.

Bibi, a spectacular musical comedy of toys, will ge given in Stam's Hall, May 4 and 5, for the benefit of the Ladies' Town Improvement Association, under the direction of Miss E. June Breimier, of the Central Entertainment Bureau, Harrisburg, Pa.

Seventy-five of the best local characters having been secured, it promises to be one of the best entertainments ever given in Chestertown. Some of the amusing features of the evening will be the Jumping Jacks in their real Jumping Jack suits, making funny grimaces as they slide up and down the poles. The little boys in their letter-block costumes, as they spell words, to the delight of the audience; the tiny tots trip lightly across the stage, and when cut apart, execute a pretty little song and drill.

One of the best features of the evening will be the Mexican and Tambourine drill by nine young ladies in Mexican costume. Another pleasing feature will be the "So Long Mary" drill by a double sextette. Even the animals that come from Noah's Ark and Jack-in-the-Box are brought to life by the magic smelling salts. The entertainment, while it is musical and spectacular, bristles with wit and humor, and there is not a dull moment the entire evening.

All seats will be reserved at price of 35 cents.

The supper tickets will be 35 cents each.

Anniversary.—Mr. and Mrs. James H. Groves, Sr., of Morgnec, Kent county, celebrated the silver anniversary of their wedding at their new home on Frazier farm, Saturday, April 24th. The house was beautifully decorated with apple blossoms and the table was tastefully adorned with clusters of violets and arbutus. Supper was served in the evening and refreshments at midnight. Singing was an enjoyable feature of the evening. Miss Marie Romoser and Messrs. George W. Kramer, Albert B. Groves and Richard Baker rendered solos. Piano solos also were rendered by Miss Romoser and Mr. Kramer and Master Arthur Groves. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. James H. Groves, Sr., Morgnec, Kent county; Mr. and Mrs. J. Cordray Lond, Chestertown; Mr and Mrs. Frank Lamb, Sr., Tolchester; Mr. and Mrs. William Shriley, Lankford; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Russell, Chestertown; Mr. and Mrs. William Lee, Kennedyville: Misses Mary A., Blanche S., Messrs. Albert B., William B., J. Wilson, James H. Jr., Richard B. and Arthur A. Groves, Morgnec; Miss Emma E. Groves, Parkville, Baltimore county; Misses Bella A., Sarah C. and Margaret Groves, of Baltimore city; Mr Richard Baker, Lankford; Miss Mettie Loud, Chestettown; Miss Bertie Lamb, Tolchester; Miss Helen Shriley, Lankford; Messrs. Charles Shriley, Bayard Sutton, Misses Elmira and Helen Sutton, Rock Hall; Messrs. Norman, William and Robert Lee, Kennedyville; Mr. Thomas Conner, Jr., Misses Julia, Mamie and Maggie Conner, Millington; Miss Sadie Huston and Mr. T. R. Joiner, Tolchester; Mr. George W. Kramer, Jr., Lansdowne, Baltimore county; Miss Marie Romoser and Mr. John Cleary, Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Groves were the recipients of many handsome anniversary presents.

MR. SIMPLER, who resides on "Peach Bud," one of Andrew Woodall's farms, had nine horses sick at one time with distemper recently, one of which died, although the services of a skilled veterinarian were employed.

To Re Open Brice Estate.—Redmond C. Stewart and Caryle Barton, Esqs., of Baltimore, representing the heirs of the late John Brice, of Kent, filed a petition in the Kent Orphan's Court on Tuesday last asking that the administration account of R. D. Hynson upon the estate of John Brice be re-opened. The Court will hear argument in the matter May 6.
