Monday 28th April 1823

yesterday cool & gloomy, a slight shower in the evening, Wm. Myers fencing, he & the Clarks boys hauling & spreading manure, Ephraim ploughing, Wm. Dunlap & Charles benching thorn in the forenoon in the evening ditching at the road, a cool day but fair —

Sunday 29th

Last night cool Wm. Myers fencing, Charles hauling manure, He. Myers & the boys hauling & spreading manure, Pompey throwing, Wm. Dunlap & Charles ditching, a cool gloomy day —

Wedny. 30th

Last night cool Wm. Myers sick, He. & the boys & Pompey hauling rails & fencing, Wm. Dunlap & Charles making thorn fence till about 11 O'Clock in the evening they finished, the Myers having rails, a cold day & wet mostly throughout

Thursday 1st May

Last night cold & wet Wm. Myers & Ephraim sick He hauled 1 load of posts, the Myers began to put up fence but cidy wet he quit & went home after breakfast, Wm. Dunlap & Charles throwing, the boys gathering stone He. a cold disagreeable rain mostly all day

Friday 2

Last night cold, Wm. Myers & Ephraim sick, He. & Joshua hauling rails stone He. Pompey & the boys fencing at P. Cauble's bridge forenoon in the evening joining Wm. Dunlap. & Charles finished throwing & cleared 25 bushels of Rye, afterwards put in thorns gloomy in the morning afterwards clear fair

Saturday 3

A gust of heavy rain last night Wm. Myers sick, He. hauling rails forenoon in the evening manure, Pompey fencing at P. Cauble's bridge forenoon in the evening after the shop he Ephraim ploughing Wm. Dunlap & Charles benching in the morning, at planting thorns from 10 O'Clock a fine day

Sday 18 plants

Monday 5th May 1823

yesterday fair & cold, last night a slight frost Wm. Myers absent being unwell He & Brother hauling Charles spreading manure, Ephraim ploughing, Joshua harrowing, Wm. Dunlap & Charles ditching planted 3 bundles thorn, Myers & Angel putting up fence after dinner, a cold clear day

Sunday 6th

Last night a smart frost Wm. Myers still absent He. & Brother hauling manure & stone, Charles spreading manure, Ephraim ploughing, Jos. harrowing Wm. Dunlap & Charles ditching, planted 1½ bundles of thorns, a clear & rather cool day

Wedny. 7th Myers & Angel

Last night gloomy, some rain this morning Wm. Myers went to the shop, he quit to put up water Rails He. He. & the boys hauling manure, Ephraim ploughing, young Charles spreading manure, Wm. Dunlap at the fence planted 1½ bundle thorn, in all 14 hundred Charles in the garden, planted 75 early York Cabbage plants fair from about 9 O'Clock some thunder in the evening but no rain

Thursday 8th

Last night much thunder & rain Wm. Myers went to Jamestown He. Myers & the boys hauling manure young Charles spreading Ephraim ploughing, Wm. Dunlap at the bridge & ditch, & Charles digging and transplanting Cabbage a gloomy day, heavy rain in the evening

Friday 9th Myers thin manure finished p. & rain fair

Wm. Myers, He. Ephraim & the boys hauling rails, manure &c. Charles in the garden, Wm. Dunlap at the thorn he after breakfast from breakfast both at the bed & fence till a day, a fine cool spring day —

Much rain last night