FOR CATTLE ONLY
FAIRFIELD'S
Milk Producer and Blood Tonic

The digestive organs of our domestic animals differ as greatly as their use and purposes; for this reason no Conditioner can be so compounded as to have much value if fed to more than one kind of animal. Any preparation professing to be equally well suited to two or more kinds of animals must, for its own safety, omit from its formula some ingredients that would greatly benefit one kind of animal but injure another. This renders the "Cure all" Conditioner of little or no value to any kind of animal. The FAIRFIELD way of compounding A SEPARATE PREPARATION FOR EACH KIND OF ANIMAL is the ONLY way to INSURE positive results.

MR. CHARLES S. SMITH writes: "It gives me pleasure to inform you that I am now using your Egg Producer and am thoroughly satisfied with the results. I find that it is a good investment and heartily recommend it."

MR. WILBUR ELIASON tells us that his hogs would always become infected with cholera whenever it would appear in the neighborhood. Last fall cholera was on all sides of his farm and he did not have one hog taken sick while in former years he would lose all. He attributes this great fortune to the regular feeding of FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONIC FOR HOGS ONLY.

MR. C. C. BROWN, of Pomona, says that he tried for fourteen years to raise ducks, but they always died at the "feathering age." For the past two years he has used FAIRFIELD'S TONIC FOR POULTRY ONLY and raised every duck after he had started feeding this wonderful preparation.

MR. D. B McMENAMIN, who has tested the merits of FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONIC FOR HORSES ONLY says beyond a doubt it is the best preparation of the kind he has ever used. There are scores of others in this county that endorse these meritorious preparations. They are compounded scientifically to meet the peculiar requirements of each animal. You do not run the slightest risk in purchasing these Tonics for if they do not do all that is claimed for them we cheerfully refund your money.

PUBLISHERS AND EDITORS.

SATURDAY, MAY 8, 1909.

Picked Up—The Evening Journal, Wilmington, Delaware, last Saturday said: "Edward J. Jetter, a middle-aged man of Millington, Md., who was picked up by the police, while acting strangely, returned to his home yesterday afternoon. Relatives came here and took him in charge."

We wonder how many of our readers have noticed the difference between the man who has been married several years.

You can always tell a young husband from an old one when a man has been married a few months, you will generally see him working in the garden or fixing up about the house and while he works he whistles, or sings or occasionly looks up toward the window to see if anyone is watching him. A year later he is still working in the garden but the smile has been exchanged for a frown and he occasionally looks up towards the house wondering why in thunder breakfast is not ready. Another year rolls by and his looks would sour milk, but he is still at work stopping occasionally to kick the dog or throw a brick at the cat. The next year we find him sitting on the front porch, smoking a pipe, while his wife does the digging in the garden. Now just watch our young men, as one by one, they are caught in Cupid's net and see if this rule does not work out the problem correctly.

GOOD-BYE HUG BREAKS GIRL'S RIBS.

Pungoteague, Va., April 17.—Lola Wescott, 18 years old, had a rib broken last night, it is said, while bidding her sweet-heart, Elwood Scott, 20 years old "good-night."

Upon taking his departure it is reported that the youthful Romeo clasped the girl in the goodbye embrace, when one of her ribs snapped. The sound was somewhat like the breaking of the crystal of a watch, and Scott at first thought his own timepiece had suffered. The girl at once, however, realized that the accident was more serious and a doctor was summoned.

THEATRICAL CAREER.

The Sunday Sun contained a likeness of Mr. Howard Dyott, a nephew of Mr. Thomas S. Bordley, of Chestertown, and well-known here. The article spoke of him as follows:

"Mr Howard T. Dyott, the young Baltimore singer, who last year determined upon a theatrical career, has just returned home after an extended tour of the country with the "Gay Musician" company. Opening at the end of last August in Boston the company covered an enormous amount of territory, going as far West as Texas and closing a few days ago in New Orleans. The tour included a portion of Canada. Mr. Dyott, besides singing and playing the part of Corker, the father of the heroine of the play, was appointed assistant stage manager.

"Mr. Dyott received his vocal training at the Maryland College of Music from Mr. Eugene Robert, instructor of singing at the college, and tenor soloist at the cathedral."

ORATORICAL CONTEST AT M. A. C.

Big Crowd Hears Youthful Speakers On Important Topics.

The eleventh annual contest of the Oratorical Association of Maryland Colleges was held at College Park Friday night in the handsome assembly hall of the Maryland Agricultural College, which was crowded with an enthusiastic and appreciative audience. The address of welcome was made by Dr. R. W. Silvester, president of the Maryland Agricultural College, and the response was delivered by Prof. R. J. Davis, of St. John's College, Annapolis. Prof. C. S. Richardson, of the Maryland Agricultural College and president of the association, presided. Orations were made by the following, representing their respective colleges:

W. M. Aikenhead, Maryland Agricultural College—"America's College Man of the Future."

William B. Ennis, St. John's College—"The Better Way."

William Raymond Moody, Washington College—"The Case for the South."

John Samuel Turner, Western Maryland College—"Our Present National Crisis."

The alternate representatives were Messrs. M. E. Tydings, Maryland Agricultural College; J. A. Kendrick, St. John's College; R. B. Warren, Washington College; Ronalds Taylor, Western Maryland College. The judges of the contest were Prof. S. T. Moreland, of McDonogh, Md; Mr. Frank G. Turner and Gen. John Gill, of Baltimore. The addresses aroused great enthusiasm, and it was by far the most successful contest yet held by the association.

Maryland Agricultural College won first prize and Western Maryland second.

As heretofore announced in the NEWS Mr. Charles H. Jefferson has purchased from Mrs. George W. Harper the Baker property situate on High street, Chestertown. Price is said to be $4000.
