Monday 29. October 1873

Frost on Saturday & last night. The Williams ploughing Corn ground, Pompey sowed 12 bushels of wheat, lined, Hewellyes & Joshua raised Handal Charles thrashed 7½ bushels Rye, Ephraim Malchy a fine clear cool day

Sunday 28th

Frost last night, The Dunlaps ploughing the harrowed in the Corn, Hewellyes harrowed all day, Pompey sowed 9 bushels of wheat Ephraim & Charles, Joshua & hauling wheat & Co. a fine clear mild day

485 Shares 78 lbs = 5 7/8 ½ 60

Wednesday 29th

Some rain last night all hands ploughing thrashing hauling & cleaning Wheat, Pattison & Anthony Corn the day being cool from the beginning totally say from 10 O'Clock that no out works could be done I went to Wm. Irwin 78 lbs. 9 7/8 48 7/8

Thursday 30

Last night mild & fair, all hands ploughing going to mill, raising potatoes, hauling wheat, fencing &c. a clear moderate day

Friday 31st

Hardly had frost last night. The Dunlaps, Charles & Joshua digging potatoes, Hewellyes ploughing, thrashing, Pompey sowed some wheat Ephraim & Burdens cleaning wheat &c. a fine day

Saturday 1st Nov.

Last night mild & Pompey sowed yesterday & today 6 bushels 2d chaff wheat on the first ground & lands not the Corn not lined, the Myers harrowed it, the rest digging potatoes it became wet they quit & were variously employed continued to rain all day

Monday 3 November 1873

Saturday night & yesterday stormy & hard frost last night Calm but hard frost also, the people variously employed, hauling Rye, going to Mill hauling wood, digging potatoes &c. a clear cool day

Sunday 4th

A slight frost last night. The Williams Charles & Joshua digging potatoes, Hewellyes hauling Oats, going to mill &c. Ephraim & Wm. assisted by Pompey hauling Oats a fine temperate clear day

Wednesday 5th

Last night a little rain, the people employed cleaning Oats, thursday the folks about the yard &c. & round mostly all day Hewellyes went to Baltimore with 9 barrels from Mr Lucketts of Oats

Thursday 6th

Last night gloomy but fair ~~[illegible]~~ very same frost, got some Rye thrashed ~~[illegible]~~ in all a gloomy dark day, with a heavy rain about 1 O'Clock, the people variously employed

Friday 7th

Last night gloomy, and dark rain finished raising potatoes thrashed some Rye, & filled two bushels, dark & damp all day

Saturday 8th

A very slight frost last night. The hands employed lifting flax, thrashing Rye, Pompey sowed ½ bushel Wheat, hauled in a load of Corn &c. a fair temperate day