Friday 4 July 1831

Hard frost last night the Edwards went for 100 Rails. Will absent his Wife being sick Jno Davidson attending Sheep &c. Winslow sick. Ephram & Jos. cut thatched wood & clear day & then frost

Saturday 5th

Hard frost last night Will absent the people variously employed at flax &c. Thatching wood attending Cattle Sheep &c. Clear then frost

Monday 7

Since Saturday exceeding hard frost. The Edws brought 100 Rails. Will absent Jos. Cutting wood Jno Davidson busy with his Sheep the rest at various jobs the latter part a little mild & gloomy

Sunday 8th

A Keen frost last night Jos. Cutting. Edward hauling wood, & preparing for Tomorrow, Will absent & Davidson attending Sheep, E. McMullen breaking flax & feeding Sheep Pompey Wis boys as usual Ephram & Winslow hauling in, & thrashing hay a moderate day, thawing a little towards evening.

Wednesday 9

Hard frost last night Edward & Jos. went for 100 Rails, Will at the Sheep rank, Ephram & Winslow thrashing Hay, E. McMullen at flax & Davidson attending Sheep, Pompey & Jos. Cattle &c & went to Mr Minute Colonel Gils &c. clear & frosty

Thursday 10

I staid last night at Mr Vanbilliers had frost the people variously employed I returned at dinner time & found that 3 Cows had calved from the Saxony rams being in 147 days or 21 weeks (2 of them died) & clear Thursday

Friday 11 July 1831

Last night a moderate frost Edward & Jos. hauling in wheat, Will working at a Sheep rank, the rest variously employed. A gloomy day & rather mild

Saturday 12

Frost last night as usual Edward & Jos. putting in grain the rest variously employed a moderate day but frost

Wrote Rogers

Monday 14

Brilliant Girth 6 Length 4.11 High 4.4 — 605 Gain 26 lbs

Keen frost since Saturday the morning unusually so Edward & Jos. have finished wheat Will working at a Sheep &c. the rest variously employed a moderate day. Clear & frosty — the pine wood has been burning 5 dead 16 living

I cut a part of the tails off 5 of the ewes, as I think is a chance of being by a Common Ram, that got in the day after the Saxony rams were put to them Judgement when grown

Tuesday 15th

Frost last night Edward & Jos. thrashing wheat, Epht. Cutting. Winslow hauling wood, Will at Sheep rank Jno Davidson, E. McMullen at flax. Pompey at Sundry moderate thaw throughout the day

Wednesday 16th

A moderate rain all last night the people thrashing wheat, cutting wood attending Cattle, Sheep &c. a moderate rain for part, after clear frost at night

Thursday 17th

A moderate frost last night Edward & Jos. thrashing wheat the remainder variously employed a moderate thaw & frost towards evening

Friday 18th

A keen frost last night but calm Edward & Jos finished thrashing wheat, Will making Rank, Jno & Edw. at the flax, the rest variously employed a clear calm but freezing in the shade

Saturday 19th

A moderate frost last night the people cleaning barn hauling Wood, Hay, &c. a gentle thaw & clear