Tuesday 1. Novem. 1831

Last night gloomy but fair all hands with J. Johnson & his boys from Q Clark gathering Corn I went to Philips Mr. Scott &c. a gloomy cool day threatening rain all day from finished sowing Wheat 54 bushels

Wednesday 2

A Slight frost last night all hands with J. Johnson & his boys at Corn, Edward sowed 6 bushels Eph. & Jos. hauled yesterday & today 6 loads of Corn well stowed a moderate clear day

Thursday 3

Frost last night Edw. sowed 5 bushels of Wheat Ephm. & Jos. harrowed, Mr. Johnson & his boys with Will & the rest gathered Corn a gloomy fair day

Friday 4th

Frost last night Edw. hauled Corn &c. Ephm. & Jos. harrowed Eph. & Con. commenced ploughing, Johnson's boys & the Dutch man this day with the rest husked Corn, a gloomy cool day

Saturday 5

Frost last night all hands the Dutchman & Wife & the 2 young Johnsons gathering their Corn Ephm. & Jos. harrowed sowed 4 bushels of Rye a fine day

Monday 7th

Frosty clear weather since Saturday the people with the Germans & the two young Johnsons gathering Corn ploughing & harrowing about 7 bushels of Rye sowed in the Orch. cut in the upper cut 11 6 Elm They husked Corn in the evening. I went to W. Minerlus

Tuesday 8. Edw. absent 6 days

A smart frost last night. All hands, Johnson & his sons, the German & his wife at the Corn Ephm. & Jos. ploughing I was at the Van Silbers last night came home about 12 a clear fine day

Wednesday 9th

Last night hard all hands with the German hauled in Cont. of Corn & fodder Ephm. & Jos ploughing & harrowing. Will sowed about 4 bushels of Rye a gloomy day threatening rain but kept fair

Thursday 10. Novr. 1831

Last night mild & gloomy Edw. went for lime Will & Davidson digging potatoes, Jos. & Ephm. ploughing & harrowing a mild day damp in the evening

Friday 11

Some rain last night Finished sowing the last of 24 bushels of Rye Ephm. harrowed it Mr. Davidson Will dug the remainder of the potatoes in the Vine yard Jos. ploughed there, & afterwards ploughed Vines, a pleasant day Jos. Edw. bro. 30 bundles of Straw from Nikademus

Thos. 54 Bs. Wheat
24 - Rye

Saturday 12th.

Measured Wilkants 4. 6. 4 & 6. 5. 3 & 4. 5. 6 — 714

Will in the Vine-yard, Edw. S. Davidson, &c. picking Corn hauling wood to J. Davidson Jos. went for Hogs, to Frank's hauled home ploughs &c. I went to Francis a moderate gloomy day, sharp towards evening the Dutch man at the road

Monday 14th

Fair & pleasant weather since Saturday, frost last night Edw. & Jos. hauled 5 loads of stones to the road Mr. Davidson husking Corn, Will thatched & went to the Vy. the boys variously employed a cloudy fair day

Tuesday 15

Frost last night Will in the Vineyard, Edward hauled Corn, Wood &c. got all the Corn husked, stowed away, Wood cut &c. a clear tolerably cool day

Wednesday 16.

Hard frost last night Edw. & Jos. hauling in Hay Mr. Davidson absent, Will in the Vineyard, the boys variously employed — clear & fine weather

Thursday 17.

Frost last night I went with some of the family to a meeting near Enotsburg & returned on ~~Thursday~~ the evening found that Jos. had been ploughing & Will working in the Vineyard — Edw. being with us, Ephraim at Hudson's & Mr. Davidson absent both days, fair this day on Friday slight rain