Monday 15 Dec. 1834

Fair & frosty since Saturday, last night accordingly hard. Jacob brought 66 bushels of lime measured 66½. Jamy & Lambert & Johnson 3 pr Tall hands killed 24 Hogs a clear moderate frost all day. Jno Davidson sick

Tuesday 16th

A moderate frost last night all hands feeding in the morng. Breakfast over by daylight. Jack & Arthur Tellerman dis-tributing lime. Jacob went for another load, Arthur Tellerman & Jack up Hogs, Nathan in the kitchen, Jno attending Cattle. Jno Davidson sick. a clear mild day

Wt of Hogs
129
133
134
216
104
135
136
102
105
135
112
133
155
112
129
114
130
100
108
105
140
2880

Wm Taylor
Chas Ó
Jas Cain

Wednesday 17th

A moderate frost last night Jack & Cane horse about. Brought 66 bushels lime measured 73½ afterwards hauled in a trifle of Mill horse, Jack & Jacob a load of wood & attended Cattle Nathan being in the House. Clear forenoon, afterwards gloomy & it commenced snowing slightly. J. Davidson diging

Thursday 18.

A slight fall of snow through out the night the people employed hauling in & thrashing oats. Jno Davidson absent about his own affairs, Jno. hauling his corn fodder afternoon, a gloomy day with slight snow & mild.

Friday 19th

Last night mild with slight snow. Arthur & Alexr Tellerman thrashing oats, Nathan attending Cattle, ~~Arthur~~ J. Davidson & Jacob hauling hay for J. D. the Wagon broke down. Slight snow, & rain alternately, thaw

Saturday 20th

Sam. Napier

The snow declined last night. Arthur Tellerman & John thrashing oats, J. Davidson & Jno. with the teams hauling his hay, Nathan went to mill, attended Cattle &c. a mild day, snow nearly gone

Monday 22

Mild weather & gloomy time. Saturday Jacob brought 65 bushels of lime, Arthur Tellerman with John thrashing oats, Jno Davidson diging drain, Nathan attending Cattle &c. fair till evng. then a little rain

Tuesday 23

Last night mild, there fell very little snow. Arthur & Alexr Tellerman diging drain, Jacob hauling wood, Arthur & Nathan at standing jobs a moderate day & fair

Wednesday 24th Dec. 1834

Last night gloomy but mild. J. Davidson diging the drain, hauling in Hay, & doing sundry jobs about the yard a gloomy day with slight rain occasionally.

American paper Comd. on the 19.

Thursday 25

Last night moderate this being Christmas all hands were idle. A cool & rather windy day

Friday 26

Last night a moderate fall of snow, this morning cool. J. Davidson ditching the out hanging oats & husking Corn & sundry jobs about the yard, a moderate frosty day

Saturday 27th

Last night a very little snow & moderate frost, Jno Davidson diging the out hanging oats &c. a moderate frost all day

Monday 29th.

Saturday night & yesterday frost & thaw alternately. A heavy fall of snow last night. Jno Davidson & the out team cleaning oats & cutting wood &c. it blew & snowed all day

Tuesday 30.

Last night it blew & a very slight fall of snow. Jno Davidson & the rest employed cleaning oats, killing 2 Cows & looking for lost sheep without success. Rogers caught 2 foxes a mild day with a slight thaw

Wednesday 31st

Last night moderate. All hands employed in looking for sheep that were found, cutting Big Wood &c. a clear temperate day a slight thaw

1 Jany. 1835

Excedingly hard frost last night, Jno Davidson & the out, husking Corn, cutting & hauling wood, hauling hay &c. Rogers & the Girls went to Tancytown to the temperance meeting. A clear day & thaw frost

For Inventory of Stock
see next page