Monday 23. March 1835

yesterday cold much rain & wind last night hard frost. J. Hersh repairing tools J. Davidson working in the garden, J. Meyman, Duncan & Jacob hauled 11 loads of stones supposed fully 80 perches now at the barn, R. Arthur cleaning corn fodder in the evening attending to Cattle &c. D. Lambert cutting Rail timber Nathan helping Smith's plowing &c. Jno. at Sundry a clear blowing day & hard frost

Tuesday 24th

A slight frost last night J. Davidson & R. Arthur sowed Clover seed forenoon, in the afternoon Jno. spreading lime, Robert attended to Cattle &c. Hersh & Nathan at the Shop, D. Lambert cut rail timber, Duncan, Meyn. & Jacob hauled 10 loads of stones to Milk house Jno. at sundry jobs, J. Myers pruning apple trees in the evening, a clear & tolerably cool day

Wednesday 25

A very little frost last night Jno. Davidson & R. Arthur sowed clover seed in the morning afterward spread lime Hersh & Nathan in the Smith Shop, Duncan, Meyman & Jacob hauled 8 loads of stones, Dan. Lambert cutting rail timber, J. Myers pruning apple trees, little Jno. went to mill & helped to load stones &c. fair mild

Thursday 26th

Last night moderate Davidson, Arthur & Johnson spreading lime, Duncan, Meyman, & Jacob hauled 9 loads of stones in all 27 loads to the Milk house, Hersh & Nathan at the Shop, Dan. Lambert hauling rails, Jno. went to Union town the mill &c. gloomy in the morning clear mid day & rain about 6 o'clock

Friday 27th

Some rain early last night J. Johnson J. Davidson & R. Arthur spreading lime sowing clover seed &c. Jacob hauled 9 loads of stones to the barn Duncan loaded, & Meyman unloaded & grubbed in the meadow Hersh & Nathan in the Shop a moderate day D. Lambert hauling & cutting

Saturday 28

Last night mild Davidson, Arthur & Johnson finished spreading lime, hauled earth fenced &c. Hersh & Nathan in the Shop, Jacob, Duncan, & Meyman hauled 9 loads of stones & Meyman grubbed a clear fine day D. Lambert

Last night fair J. Davidson sowed Cabbage & Lettuce seed &c. Johnson, Nathan & Arthur fenced attend Cattle &c. John hauled wood went to mill &c. Dan. Lambert sick a cold gloomy day yesterday cold & moderate rain last night cool but fair Jno. Davidson attending his Cow & levelling meadow R. Arthur attending cattle &c. J. Johnson & Meyman making fence, Nathan & Jno. gathering & hauling wood Duncan & Jacob hauled 2 logs to mill & 2 loads of stuff from it a cool blowing day but fair D. Lambert hoops Carts &c. &c.

Monday 30th March 1835

Tuesday 31

moderate last night Johnson & Davidson fencing next the road, Nathan grubbing forenoon after helping to saw with Dan. Lambert who manl'd rails all day, Meyman & Jacob commenced ploughing, R. Arthur mostly after cattle &c. a clear & mudding cool day Duncan & Jno. hd. logs

Wedny. 1st April

A slight frost last night Johnson & Davidson at the fence Duncan & Jno. hauled rails, Wood &c. Nathan grubb. & saw. with D. Lambert who manl'd rails all day R. Arthur about his Garden, Meyman & Jacob ploughed. I went in quest of a Carp. a spring day

Thursday 2

Last night moderate Johnson, Davidson & Arthur occasionaly at the fence Jno. hauling stones rails &c. Meyman & Jacob ploughing Lambert & Nathan hauling rails a moderate spring day Duncan sick, thunder about 5 o'clock

Friday 3 Apr.

Moderate last night Johnson & Davidson finished the No fence next the road, Dan. Lambert manl'd rails Nathan helpd him forenoon, & Jno. to haul stones, & sand afternoon, Meyman & Jacob ploughing for Oats, R. Arthur attending Cattle, & helpd with fence Duncan unwell & unemployed, a fine moderate day

Saturday 4th

Moderate last night, Johnson & Davidson fencing R. Arthur & Jno. put in some hay, attended Cattle &c. Meyman & John ploughed, Nathan at sundry jobs, Duncan sick, Jacob unwell doing trifles in the afternoon, Jno. Hersh this family came up a fair cool day

Monday 6th

Much rain on Saturday night, yesterday a heavy snow forenoon, rain & cold afternoon last night fair & cold J. Davidson absent R. Arthur, Meyman & Jacob hauld in Oats, Duncan making a harrow forenoon, after helpd Jno. with wood &c. forenoon Jno. went to Mill, Nath. & J. Hersh at the Shop, a cool blowing day

+ Jno. Hersh commenced at $10 ⁄ month, & his Garden Spade