Thursday 23. April 1835

A light frost ~~all~~ last night. J. Davidson sowed 1 bushel of Oats & flax seed, Arthur, Meyman, Jacob & John finished ploughing Pat ground, harrowed filled up potatoes &c. J. Johnson in the Garden, Fourney & Ridinger at work, Duncan attending a clear cool day

Friday 24th

Frost last night Jno Davidson sowed rest of Oats in all 4½ bushels, he afterwards cut potatoes & filled sack with hay, Jacob finished harrowing Oats & harbs, Hay &c. Jack Johnson in the Garden & attending Mason, Meyman in the Smith Shop & burning Brick Jno with the Cattle Nathan sick, Duncan sick, Pat sent home breakfast, Fourney, Ridinger, & Lyon at work a clear cool day

Saty. 25th

Last night fair but gloomy, Jno Davidson attending Lyon &c. J. Johnson in the Garden till dinner time Jno Meyman & little Jno Loading & Jacob hauling manure for potatoes, R. Arthur cutting potatoes, Nathan & Duncan sick, Fourney & Lyon at work, Hank at work Jonn sow wa, a quiet much thunder & rain in the evening

Monday 27th

Saturday night & yesterday it rained throughout last night fair, Fourney & Lyon a day each, Arthur & Duncan loading & Jacob hauling manure J. Davidson & Meyman sowed plaister forenoon, in the afto cut potatoes, Jno handed out plaster, went to mill &c. Nathan still sick, fair but cold & gloomy forenoon constant rain from about 2 O'clock, very cold

Tuesday 28th

Last night ~~heavy rain & thunder fair but cool~~ Fourney making a gate the ground full of wet Davidson & Duncan spreading manure &c. Meyman working with Hank, Arthur & Jacob about the yard. Cattle &c. Jno at the mill & Nathan sick a cold blowing day but fair

Wednesday 29th April 1835

Last night fair & temperate, Davidson & Duncan repairing honey locust plants, fencing in the afternoon, J. Meyman in Smith Shop forenoon fencing in the after, Duncan attending Lyon &c. Jacob hauled stones forenoon afternoon well Jno hauled sand, lime, wood rails &c. Nathan doing a little Fourney at the gate now two days, a fine day

Thursday 30th

Last night fair Davidson repairing his own fence Johnson & Duncan sowing plaister Arthur at Sundays Jacob & Meyman hauled two loads of scantling John in the fine yard part of the day, Lyon till dinner time & Nathan attending afterwards Grubs. I went in quest of a Carpenter a warm cloudy day
Fourney at work Since 29th Fourney 8½ At Lyon 6, Ridinger 3½ days

Friday May 1st

A little rain last night & this morning Fourney at work with Gate &c. Meyman hauling scantling manure &c. Arthur & Nathan loading, Duncan whitewashing apple trees &c. Jno in the Shop, Jacob & little John partly unwell, a gloomy day, but fair after breakfast & warm

Saturday 2d

Last night & a little frost J. Johnson, J. Davidson, Meyman Arthur & Nathan hauling & spreading manure working in the Garden, hauling hay &c. attempted to plant potatoes but the ground was too wet Duncan attending Lyon, Hank in the V. yard Fourney hanging Gate &c. a clear warm day

Monday 4th

Fine weather since Saturday Meyman harrowing limed ground, Lyon all day, Ridinger 3/4 Jammy 3/4 day Duncan attending, Fourney painting &c. J. Davidson Hank mostly in the Vine yard a very warm day

Tuesday 5th

Fair & warm last night. Three Masons & Fourney at work Meyman hauled stone & brick J. Davidson harrowing Corn ground, Arthur & Nathan variously employed, Duncan attending Mason, I went to M. M. &c. a warm day a heavy gust of thunder, wind & rain in the afternoon

Wednesday 6

Last night fair & warm three Masons at work Duncan attending Jno Davidson ploughing & harrowing, Jos. Coe, & Jack Johnson fencing, Meyman hauled stone &c. Nathan sand & stone, Jack & Jno still sick, a fair but gloomy day