Monday 22 Feby 1836

This Morning first Bakewell Lamb in 147 days

A slight frost Saturday night Sunday clear & a gradual thaw
Frost last night J. Davidson, Duncan, & A. Arthur Mauling
Rails Hauling wood Jacob hauling N. & Nathan altering Cattle &c.

Tuesday 23

A light frost last night the day cloudy and thawing Duncan and Davidson cutting and mauling rails Jacob assisted by A. Arthur making sundry preparations for Baltimore A. & Arthur cut wood in the afternoon: Wm. Arthur attending to the cattle - Nathan to the sheep John went to Dr Hollands for a sled & drove the carriage into Town to a Temperance meeting

1 Sheep died

Wednesday 24th

Rain last night & a complete thaw to day Jacob went to Baltimore with the waggon A. Arthur & Duncan cutting and mauling rails Jno Davidson came at dinner time & cut wood — Wm. Arthur attending to the cattle - Nathan to the sheep &c John variously employed - Hersh in the shop

Thursday 25th

Last night it cleared up with thunder and lightning and rain; blew very hard and froze - Davidson & Duncan cutting and mauling Andrew Arthur & John hauling wood from the meadow - Wm. Arthur attending the cattle Nathan the sheep - Hersh in the shop - A clear cool day

Friday 26 Feby 1836

Last night it commenced snowing and continued until mid day the snow deep The hands doing very little of consequence

1 sheep died

Saturday 27th

A fine clear day Duncan and A. Arthur hauled in a stack of hay and in the evening cut some straw &c Nathan & Wm. Arthur attending to the sheep and cattle John cutting wood &c Six sheep killed by dogs, two died.

J. Davis 3rd this week

2 sheep died

Monday 29th

Sunday a cold raw day It commenced snowing last night and continued snowing very heavily until mid day. The people doing sundry small jobs

CHERRY

Tuesday March 1st

It rained last night and this morning the day cloudy and thawing Jacob & Andrew cutting wood Duncan in the work shop Nathan attending to the sheep and the shop - Wm. Arthur attending to the cattle and threshing oats with John

Wednesday 2nd

Having set out for Balto on Tuesday last, I came home this forenoon during my absence exceeding bad weather, rain snow, frost & hoar frost. This day the people cutting & hauling wood, attending sheep &c. Clear, hard frost & cold — Trowsetter's Lincoln 27½ yds

Thursday 3

Measurement of Wine Cask Guaged 57 Gallons £5.1 26.5.0 13.5.6 Cont. 828.6 Qt
Hard frost last night the people mauling rails, hauling in hay, Duncan mending a sled &c. a moderate day & a slight thaw

Friday 4

A moderate frost last night Duncan & Andy mauling rails, Jacob & Jno Laulie in Rye & Wood for J. Davidson, Jacob went for rails in the evening, Nathan & A. Arthur attending sheep & cattle moderate

Saturday 5

A very slight frost last night Duncan mauling rails, A. Arthur, Nathan, & Jno at sundrys Jacob brd home 98 rails A. Arthur absent mild

11 Sheep died
2 Ewe alle

Rails in all of Lambert 331 429 at 30 p/m $12.87