Wedenesday 8 June 1836

Sent to N. Ferrel to be delivd. to Richard Gillson who lives on the Mountain Twas Loaded with Nails 5 Bales Wool Wt he is to deliver in Balt. the paid 82 by Lyman Reed & Co.

Last night mild Faire A. Arthur & Jacob ploughing Sam. Jameson took wood down to Ferrels afterwards ploughed potatoes Worked in the Garden, R. Arthur in the Garden all day, & Nathan & Jno. occasionaly Jno. Hersh in the Shop a clear warm day

Climson Straw

Thursday 9th

Last night fair & mild Andy Arthur & Jacob ploughs R. Arthur, J. Jameson, Nathan, John, & Sammy in the afternoon planting Corn a clear warm day R. H.

Friday 10th

Last night fair & mild. A. Arthur sick J. Davidson in the Garden R. Arthur, Nathan, Jno & James replanting Corn. J. Jameson & Jacob ploughing Jno. Hersh about the Coal pit a clear warm day

Saturday 11th

Last night fair & moderate Jno. Davidson in the Garden, R. Arthur, Nathan, Jno. & James replanting Corn, J. Jameson & Jacob ploughing in the forenoon which was fair & warm about 2 O'Clock came on a thunder gust with a very heavy rain that stopt all work & continued raining most of the evening A. Arthur sick

Monday 13th

~~yesterday~~

A heavy rain on Saturday night yesterday & last night fair but gloomy. Jno. Davidson in the Garden, Sam. Jameson, & Jacob ploughing. R. Arthur, Nathan, John, & A. Arthur 3/4 finished replanting Corn, John Hersh mending a Barrow & burning Coal a gloomy day & fair young Sow yesterday

Tuesday 14th

Last night moderately Cool, this morning Blossom & Star John Davidson in the Garden, J. Jameson & Jacob ploughs R. Arthur, Nathan & Jno pulling Rye, A. Arthur ploughed potatoes in the Garden & weed Rye, Jno. Hersh attending Coal pit a fair temperate day

Wednesday 15th

Last night fair & moderate Jno. Davidson in the Garden, Sam & Jac. ploughing, R. Arthur & Nathan weeding Wheat, A. Arthur harrowing Corn, John selling Rye, Jno. Hersh at the Coal pit a fine tempt. day

Thursday 16 June 1836

Last night mild & fair, Jno. Davidson & R. Arthur planted potatoes, Wan planted Corn & Jacob ploughed, A. Arthur & J. Jameson harrowed Corn & potatoes Nathan & John set it up. Jno. Hersh at the Coal pit a clear temperat. day

Friday 17th Ther. 82°

Last night fair & warm Jno. Davidson in the Garden J. Jameson, Andy, Arthur & John Cultivating & harrowing Corn R. Arthur, & Nathan selling it up. Jacob hauled wood from the Mill & to Sammy Town a warm day

Saturday 18

Fair & warm J. Davidson in the Garden Sam Jameson harrowing A. Arthur Cultivating R. Arthur & ~~Nathan~~ Jno. & Jacob ~~ploughing~~ went to Climson's for Straw ~~John~~ at ~~Sunday~~ hauling Coal pits a warm day

Wan goes thro' to day

Monday 20th

yesterday forenoon very warm, a thunder Gust with very heavy rain in the afternoon last night & this forenoon very warm J. Davidson, R. Arthur, Nathan & Jno. Hersh in the afternoon at Ritchew's raising a Barn, A. Arthur & Jno. Cut & hauled a Log to mill forenoon, J. Jameson & Jacob ploughing a heavy gust of thunder & rain between 4 & 5 O'Clock the ploughmen quit. Sam planted Cabbage & Andy & Jacob mowed a little Clover in the afternoon

Tuesday 21st

Heavy rain early last night this morning Stormy & damp, Jno. Davidson Robert & Jno. mowed Clover before breakfast, afterwd. J. Davidson planted Cabbage &c. R. Arthur & Nathan Cut Grass filled Gutters &c. Jno. hauled A. Arthur, J. Jameson, & Jacob ploughed. fair forenoon afternoon heavy rains

Wednesday 22

Last night fair Jno. Davidson in the Garden R. Arthur & Nathan finished mowing Clover in the Lawn afterward Robt. helped with Barrow & spread Manure Nathan raked Hay &c. Jno. & J. Jameson hauled Manure, afternoon Sam. ploughed, A. Arthur ploughed all day Jno. Hersh in the Yard a gloomy day Rather Cool all day

Thursday 23

Much rain last night & this morning with a considerable flood. The people employd at hilling jobs Jno. Hersh & Nathan hoeing a new hay Carriage rain throughout, in the evening heavy with thunder