Friday 14th Octr. 1836

Last night fair but gloomy Jno Davidson & the rest gathering apples, cleaning Buckwheat, hauled in 2 loads of wheat & hauling Wood &c. fair till about 3 o'Clock from thence Slight rain. Respondent came home, wrote Mr. Roberts I would take the £105 for Brilliant

Saturday 15th

A Slight frost last night Jno Davidson & all the rest hauling in & thrashing ~~apples~~ Buckwheat gathering apples & hauling 2 logs to Mill a clear calm fine day

Monday 17th

Heavy rain latter part of Saturday Night & yesterday morning afterwards clear & stormy frost last night J. Davidson R. Arthur & John cleaning, hauling & thrashing Buckwheat & Jno mowing Jacob & Nathan Cutg. & hauling Wood, a clear blowing day

Tuesday 18th

Seed to Hysteow 3 Bushels Rye, 13 of Wheat
Land 5½ do. do. 8½ do.

Jno Davidson sowed 9 Bushels of Wheat Jacob & Nathan harrowed R. Arthur & Sam husked Corn, Jno went to Mill for Cyder &c. Jno Hersh at his potatoes & formerly for Corn &c. equal to Fridays a fine clear drying day

Wednesday 19th

Last night fair & moderate J. Davidson sowed 9 bushels of Wheat Nathan & Jno Harrowed forenoon, Jacob killed an Ox forenoon & harrowed afternoon Sam & Robert pulled Corn & Jno hauled in 2 Cart loads afternoon Jno Hersh killed Jacob to Mill afterwards in the Shop a clear blowing day

Thursday 20th

Last night fair & stormy it commenced raining this morning about 6 o'Clock & continued till 11 my own people at sundry jobs it being too wet to harrow, stormy but fair afterpart

J. Davidson Jr.

Friday 21st

A pretty keen frost last night Jno Davidson & Nathan harrowed some wheat uncovered since Wedy. Jacob went to Dr. with Bey & Ride Jno hauled wood forenoon, afternoon J. Dav. crop cut posts, Nathan grubbed bank took wood to Mrs Reid Jno went to Mill R. Arthur & Sam cut wood

a clear cool day

J. Hersh Sick

Saturday 22nd

Hard frost last night too wet for harrowing the people employed hauling Corn fodder, Wood, apples &c. a clear cool day Sam Jameson went away Jno. 30 formerly 50 today

Monday 24 Octr. 1836

Frost on Saturday night yesterday calm & clear last night mild a heavy dew this morning Jno Davidson sowed 3 bushels of wheat in the forenoon & helped R.A & Jno to thrash & clean about 2½ bushels from 12 sheaves Jacob & Nathan harrowed Jno Hersh at the sleigh & scaping apples a clear dry day

Tuesday 25th

Last night cool & clear Jno Davidson sowed 3 bushels wheat beyond the Gutter in all 26 bushels Jacob & Nathan harrowed in the afternoon J. & R.A & Jno dig basket fulls of potatoes J. Hersh ironing the sleigh a clear cold blowing day

Wednesday 26th

A hard white frost last night — The people with Jno Davidson employed hauling wheat in the morning afterwards Jacob & Nathan harrowed, Jno Davidson R. Arthur & Jno dig potatoes, Jno went to Mill &c. Jno Hersh ironing & painting the sleigh clear fair forenoon, afternoon gloomy

Thursday 27th

Frost early last night soft & gloomy towards morning Jacob & Nathan harrowed till dinner notwithstanding it snowed from 9 o'Clock J. Davidson, R. Arthur & Jno Hersh dig potatoes In the afternoon the people hauling wheat putting potatoes down the stable &c. J. Hersh mending the roof of the House &c. It commenced snowing about 9 till afterdinner & rain afterwd.

Friday 28th

A hard white frost last night, Jno Davidson & all hands hauling & cleaning wheat digging potatoes &c. a clear cool day — A Strange Name 28th

Saturday 29th

Last night moderate Jno Davidson sowed 4¾ bushels of wheat in the Vineyard Jacob & Nathan harrowed it Jno Hersh & the rest finished digging potatoes & cleaned the rest of wheat. a clear moderate day

Monday 31st

Hard frost last night fair & water furrowing grain Jno Davidson & all the rest hauling Pumpkins & Corn fodder — Jno Hersh ironing the sleigh a clear cool day

Tuesday 1st Nov.

Hard frost last night Jno Davidson & the rest piling Garden stuff gathering Corn &c. Rogers commenced ploughing on his own account a clear fine cool day

Wednesday 2

Last night fair but gloomy the people brought in a load of Corn, some husked & some husked, in the afternoon killed two Bucks it commd. raining about 12 & continued till day cold & windy