Thursday 30th March 1837

Frost last night Jno Davidson planting Currant bushes N. Arthur & John hauling Stones, Jacob & Nathan ploughing Jno Hersh gathering & burning Brush. I attended Hayters Sale & bought 2 Cows. a cool day a slight Snow in the evening

Friday 31st March

Last night gloomy & Cool N. Arthur & James fencing Jno capitis thawing rails Jno Hersh burning brush, a cool day rain after

Saturday 1st April

Last night fair N. Arthur fencing & spreading dung Friday Jacob & Nathan hauling rails John hauling manure &c with the Carriage a clear cool day

Monday 3

Frost Saturday night yesterday clear & cool, last night a slight frost Jacob ploughing in the Lot Nathan cultivating Corn ground Jno Hersh & little John gathering wood Stones &c. a clear blowing day

Tuesday 4th

Last night cool Jacob ploughed, Nathan cultivated J. Hersh & little Jno hauled Stones & manure forenoon & commenced after dinner when it began to snow & continued till evening Cold day

Wedny 5th

A slight frost last night Jacob & Nathan harrowing Oats Jno & James variously employed, Jno Hersh in the Blower in the Shop, a cold damp day the snow melted clear in the evening

Thursday 6th

Sent Mr Lambert about 600 Hay bale for his kind expense frost last night Jacob ploughed after dinner & assisted Nathan in the morning with the oats — John Hersh assisted with the oats in the morning & he & Nathan spread manure after finishing the oats — John hauled manure in the morning & attended the cattle after dinner

Friday 7th

A cloudy day Jacob finished ploughing in the Lot & ploughed the garden Nathan cultivating corn ground John Hersh & John repairing the fence around the above field & making the garden fence Whitebach calved this morning a heifer calf nearly white. It bleeds out of its brilliant

Saturday 8th April 1837

Some rain & a heavy Gale of wind last night I slept at Mr Van Cibbers, the morning clear, it commenced raining about 8 o'clock & continued rain & snow till about 1. I stopt in Mr Minster till half past one & got home after 3 o'clock — & found that Jacob ploughed in Potatoes Nathan cultivated Corn ground forenoon, & they hauled rails afternoon Jno Hersh in the Shop & little John variously employed a fair

Monday 10th

Moderate Weather since Saturday Nathan ploughed all day Jacob in the afternoon John & James at Sunday Schl, John Hersh fenced in the Colt Stable a clear moderate day

Tuesday 11th

A middling hard frost last night Jacob & Nathan ploughing John hauling manure &c. Jno Hersh at sun dry forenoon after in the Garden a clear spring day 1 Bs flour

Wedny 12th

Frost last night Jacob & Nathan ploughing Jno Gardening & helping in the Garden John Hersh in the Garden planted Vines, Beans, peas &c. a clear warm day.

Thursday 13th

Last night moderate Jno Davidson & Jno Frowfeller sowed 17 Bs of Oats in Corn ground Jacob covered it with the Cultivator, Nathan ploughed, little John hauled Stones for Rogers, Jno Hersh digging in the Garden James assisting him a clear spring day Jno Frowfeller commenced at $4.50 per mth till

Friday 14th

Last night moderate Jno Hersh sowed 13 bushels of Oats 1.30 acre Jno Frowfeller attended Set the Stakes Jacob covered with the Cultivator Nathan ploughed, Dan Lambert put up 17 panels rails of P & rail fence Jno hauled rails to garden fence & posts & rails to new fence a clear cool blowing day

Saturday 15th

Frost last night Dan. Lambert hewed some rails & put up 13 panels of P & rail fence, Nathan finished ploughing the field over the road, & Jacob harrowing Oats, for the evening put in some Hay Jno Hersh in the Garden digging & sowing seeds, Jno Frowfeller & little John variously employed, a clear temperate day

Monday 17th

Last night moderate Jacob hauled J. Frowfeller & little John loaded 9 loads of manure for potatoes, Nathan ploughing in the lot, Jno Hersh in the Garden James attending Calves &c. a clear blowing moderate day

Tuesday 18th

Nathan finished lot ploughed J. Hersh's Garden Jacob hauled 2 loads of manure & hay, Jno Hersh in the Shop & spread manure J. Frowfeller & little Jno dig in the Garden & spread manure & the rest with Hay a fair cool day