Monday 8th May 1837

Last night moderate Jno & M A Hirsh, Robt & Andy Arthur Jno & James Davidson, Jno F. Jacob Nathan & Jno planting Corn a cool dry day with appearance grain

Tuesday 9th

Last night & this morning very cool approaching to frost R & Andy Arthur J Hirsh & Mary Anne Jno Frowfelter the boys laying out & planting Corn, cold & stormy forenoon afternoon mild, a slight shower about 4 O Clock & about 7 a slight shower with a little rain the air mild

Wednesday 10th

Last night mild this morning foggy J Hirsh M Anne & the boys finished planting Corn by 9 O Clock afterwards all hands fencing hauling in Hay &c. say about 5 Tons Corn field over the road Computed to contain 40½ Acres Seed of Tom, Mulato 3.1.6 own White 1.1.4 yellow 0.3.6 = 5.3.0 Planted in rows 4 feet a part, from 3 to 4 feet dist in the row & from 3 to 5 grains in the Hill, being at the rate of 1 Bush. to 7.0.6 a.r.p.

Thursday 11th

Last night moderate Jacob hauled Nathan & J. F. loads & J Hirsh & little John spread 10 loads manure for potatoes a dry clear & tolerably cool day

Friday 12th

Last night moderate, Jacob hauled J F & Nathan loaded & J Hirsh & Jno spread 9 loads of manure finished potatoes &c. a moderate day gloomy in the evening

Saturday 13th

A very little rain last night J Hirsh & Nathan finished spreading manure, repaired fence, cut the ould rails, Jacob hauling rails for Rogers, Jno F. harrowed the lot, little John variously employed, a gloomy day

Monday 15th

Fair blowing gloomy since Saturday, this being a Holiday all hands were idle fair & stormy forenoon afternoon a shady gentle rain wt continued till night with a high wind

Tuesday 16th

a moderate rain last night & this morning early J Hirsh & Nathan Jacob hauling rails. J Frowfelter helped him forenoon, got sick & went home Jno helped him afternoon a dry moderate day

Wednesday 17th

Some rain last night J Hirsh & the boys cutting hauling & hawling rails forenoon afternoon planting potatoes, a fair day pretty cool

Thursday 18th May 1837

Last night fair & moderate Jno Hirsh & Nathan making rails Jacob finished ploughing in potatoes Jno & James planting afterwards ploughed Nuta Bago ground.

Measured Orlando Gith Height Length

1 Acre potatoes Seed 11 Bushels

Friday 19th

A moderate day Jacob finished planting Nuta Bago ground Nathan and Jno Hirsh hauled rails little Jno trimmed pea sticks

Saturday 20th

A pleasant day Jacob John & James helping Rogers to replant corn, Nathan & Jno Hirsh repairing post & rail fence on first creek hill before dinner & in the afternoon staked the fence beyond the corn ground over the road

Shelah

Tuesday 23rd

A warm day Jacob John & James replanting corn until dinner time when assisted by Jno Hirsh Nathan Jno & James Davidson we began to lay the fence across the far side of the corn field,

Wednesday 24th

A tolerably heavy rain this morning. It cleared partially about breakfast time but continued raining at intervals Jacob Jno & Jno Davidson fencing in the forenoon & taking thatch off the old barn Nathan & Hirsh in the Shop

Thursday 25th

A constant and heavy rain all day. The men variously employed — Nathan & Hirsh in the Shop

Friday 26th

A cloudy morning with some appearance of clearing Nathan & Hirsh in the Shop Jacob & James hauling pea rods & repairing vineyard fence

Saturday 27th

The people cutting thatching rails &c. a clear warm day —