Monday 29th May 1837

Fine weather since Saturday Jno Frowfeller returned in the evg having been here just one month formerly, the people all employd in taking rails & making fence

The white Heifer has a Stray R.

Sunday 30th

Property valued this Yr. Land, 19020 Horses 1415 Carriages 700 £20,135

Fair & moderate last night Jacob & Nathan hauling logs to Mr Arthur's Barn, J. Hersh, J. F. & little John finished new fence, & dig occasionaly in the Garden, a clear warm day

Hylas Heifer to Bull

Wednesday 31

Last night fair Nathan set out with a Cow to Balt. Jacob, J. Hersh, & little Jno making a fence at the Bridge forenoon, in the afternoon hauling logs to the Barn Jno Frowfeller in the Garden fair & warm some thunder in the evg No rain

Cows to Clover field

Thursday 1st June

Last night fair Jacob went for Corn to S. Galls forenoon & hauled logs in the evening the boys warped the sheep forenoon & heeled with logs in the evening

Friday 2.

Fair & Clear last night John Harrowing Corn, potatoes &c. Jacob & sitting up Jacob hauled some of the logs forenoon in the forenoon Harrowing Corn afternoon followed by J. Hersh & J. F. a warm cloudy day

Saturday 3

Last night fair Nathan returned from Baltimore with a Cow from Mr Falls Jacob & all hands harrowing & hoeing Corn, Mary Anne 3/4 of a days planted 1 quart of Beans a very warm windy day

Monday 5th

Yesterday Cool & glossy, some thunder & a little rain about bed time. Jacob & John finished harrowing Corn fired by dinner time J. Hersh, M. Anne, J. F. Nathan & James hoeing all day J. Jacob in the afternoon, John at sundrys, a clear day warm afternoon

Tuesday 6th

Last night fair & warm Jacob & Jno Commd harrowing Corn over the road, Mary Anne 3/4 days & the rest finished hoeing the other field forenoon afternoon J. F. & James set up Corn, J. Hersh & ~~James~~ Nathan ploughed & hoeed potatoes in the Garden Warm day

Wednesday 7

Stormy last night Jacob & John harrowing Corn, J. F. & James sitting up, J. Hersh & Nathan fencing, a blowing Cool day

Thursday 8 June 1837

Last night Cool & blowing Jacob & Jno harrowing & Nathan cultivating, Frowfeller & James sitting up Corn, Duncan dig the well till 9 o Clock, it Comd rain the people came in & were variously employd afterwards J. Hersh in the Shop occasional rain & Cool throughout

Friday 9th

Last night temperate & glossy, all hands harrowing, uncovering & planting Corn, a temperate clear day

Saturday 10th

Last night fair & moderate, all hands harrowing & sitting up Corn, a clear dry temperate day

Shelah

Monday 12th

Last night fair but glossy all hands harrowing & setting Corn in the forenoon Jno finished harrowing over the road after dinner it began to rain & Cont. during the afternoon moderately Corn, say

Next the new fence 16 rows without any thing
Next 21 rows planted & ashes 3 to 1
1 rows without
16 rows Plant alone

Tuesday 13th

Some rain last night Jacob & John ploughed potatoes & Corn at P. Creek hill. J. Hersh, J. Frowfeller, Nathan & James finished uncovering Corn over the road a warm Spring day

Wednesday 14th

Last night fair this morning Cool. Jacob & John ploughed potatoes, ground for Mangle W. Seed, & Cultivated Corn Jno Hersh Jno F. Nathan & James uncovered & thinned Corn; a considerable thunder gust in the afternoon a delightfull rain in the evening, heavy Lightning exceeding rain hail & wind

Thursday 15th

Rain early last night, and a great flood that swept away several fences, the people mostly all day repairing them John Hersh absent for his daughter a warm day

Friday 16th

Last night fair Jacob, Nathan & J. Hersh afternoon thinned 3 loads of Wood. J. F. John & James transplanting & sitting up Corn a moderate day but stormy in the evening

Turkey 3/4 g. 3 3/4 H Chop

Hands 3 3/4 3 0 3 0

Saturday 17th

Some rain last night, all hands in the Corn field transplanting & sitting up after the flood except Jacob who laid out Pt. Tobacco drills, & Cultivated between potato rows & Corn a moderate day fair

5 Bushels Corn