Eb: Cattle off
10 days over

Saturday 27th July 1839

Fair last night Jno. Hersh in the Shop with James in the morning the rest bound up some wheat & hauled in 6 loads the last of my winter Grain a clear fine day but rather gloomy in the evening Ther. 80

Monday 29th

Some rain yesterday, & last night Guyton Jno. & James Cradling Wheat, frequent showers prevented it from being bound

Tuesday 30th

Fair last night E. Guyton & Jno. Cradling Oats, the rest raking &c. also bound some Wheat a fine fair temperate day

Wednesday 31

Heavy rain during last night E. Guyton & Jno. finished Cradg. Oats the others raking Binding Shocking &c a heavy shower about 3 O'Clock afterwards fair & warm Ther. 80

250 lb Hp.

Thursday Aug. 1st

Last night fair & clear all hands raking, binding, & shocking Oats & wheat, ploughing roots &c. a fine warm day

Friday 2d

Some rain early this morning W. Coulthard occasionaly throughout, the people thrashing Rye, hauling wood, &c. James in the Shop

Saturday 3d

Last night fair My own people hauling leaves from the woods in the forenoon. Afternoon Binding & shocking rem. of Spring Wheat & hauling Hilderbridds Grain & Flax. Jno. Hersh repairing ploughs &c. forenoon fair but gloomy afternoon fair & clear

An Account of my own Crop, what rec.d from others 1839

From Whom	Whe.	Rye	Oats	B W.	Corn	Hay
	Bus	Bus	Bus			Tons
George Lambert	86.8	80.0	13.0		109
My own 13 L. 96. 156 W. 207. 53. 163	622.0	291.0	337.0	10	687	32
John Hilderbridds	9.0	56.0
Jacob Marker			18.0			6
Foglesongs meadow		36.15			118	14
Robert Arthur	21.0	14.0	64	1	49
Joseph Coe		37.5			36
Hawen's Inidan						4
	738	550

Hay Stacks
No. 1 Bottom 40 feet wide 60 feet long middle 2 Bottom 40 feet wide 60 feet long middle
3 Bottom a little less 40 feet wide, 60 long middle

Monday 5th August 1839

Fair weather since Saturday Jno. Hersh howeing Turnips all day James Cultivating Turnips & potatoes forenoon all the rest employed in hauling Oats, Hay & Wheat a fine clear temperate day

Tuesday 6th

Strawberry yesterday

Last night fair & warm in the begining this morning Cool John Hersh weeding Turnips all the rest hauling Wheat, Hay & Oats Clear forenoon, gloomy afternoon, a slight rain about 5 O'Clock

Wednesday 7th

Fair last night Jno. Hersh weeding Turnips, the rest handling Hay & Oats hauled in 2 loads of each a fine day

Thursday 8th

Last night fair this morning gloomy & a little rain Joseph Lambert mowing pitching Hay &c. the rest throwing stacking Hay, howing Turnips, handling & hauling in Oats &c. rain & sun shine by turns, the afternoon fair but occasionaly gloomy

Friday 9th

Last night an exceeding heavy rain, with thunder Wind &c. Reuben, Guyton, Lambert James, with Patrick & Jno. occasionaly mowing, the rest hauled in Oats the last & hoed Turnips, spread Hay &c. a fine clear drying day & cool

Saturday 10th

Last night fair & moderate Reuben mowing & stacking Hay Guyton mowed &c. till dinner time the rest raking hauling in 3 loads of Hay, J. Hersh howing Turnips & helping with Hay afternoon a fine day & moderate throughout

Monday 12th

Fine weather since Saturday, Reuben, Guyton & James mowed all day, the rest curing Hay & hauled in 2 loads fair weather till 5 O'Clock, then a heavy shower, hoed Turnips afternoon Jno. Hersh in the Shop forenoon thrust Hay Turnips

Tuesday 13th

Last night mild & fair Reuben, Guyton Lambert & James mowing at Foglesongs, J. Hersh Dennis, Patrick Jno. & Pompey spreading Hay, howing Turnips & hauling load of Hay fine Week

Wednesday 14

Last night mild & fair Reuben, Guyton, & Patrick mowed all day James till dinner time Jno. cut Oats in the morning afterwards hoed Turnips, hauled in 2 loads of Hay & mowed about the garden in the evening Dennis, Hersh J. Davidson, Pompey & James in the afternoon raked Hay, hoed Turnips &c. a fine temperate day