Thursday 19 Sept. 1844 Frank

Last night moderate after the Guest Jno. Parker hauled Sean Forenoon, Spread Manure after dinner Jno. went to Mill forenoon, Frank Manure afternoon Jas. Frank assisting Jno. Davison this day gathering Apples a fine day

Friday 20th

Fair as usual last night all hands hauling Manure a clear warm day

Saturday 21

Last night as usual All hands hauling Manure only Frank that harrowed afternoon Windy but fair Warm throughout the day some thunder the day Equinoctial Carp. finished

Monday 23

Fair & Cool since Saty. last night a slight frost Jno. & James cut Buck wheat in the morning after all hands hauled out Manure Lime Compost a Cool Clear day

Tuesday 24

Last night clear & moderate Jno. Davison & all hand hauling & Spreading Compost Jno. & James having cut Buckwheat in the morning a fine day

Wedesy. 25th

Last night gloomy, but fair Jno. & James Cut Buck wheat, afterwards Jno. Davison & all hands (Jno. ploughing the orchard) hauled & spread Compost, gloomy but fair till evening then a slight rain Lastly Clear

Thursday 26

Last night pretty Cool Jno. Parker sowed about 8 B. of Wheat James cut B. wheat & ploughed Jno. Davison the last ploughed hauled & spread Manure & a clear day,

Friday 27th 3 Masons 1 day

Last night Clear & fair Jno. & James fini. Buckwheat then all hands harrowing Manure, hauling & spreading Lime &c. a gloomy moderate day 2 Masons

Saturday 28th

Fair & Gloomy last night the people set up B. Wheat & commenced hauling Manure it came to rain about 10 O'Clock & continued all day heavy & cold in the evening 2 Masons quit at 10 O'Clock

Monday 30

The Saturday night & yesterday till afternoon continued rain; last night clear & day the people fencing & thrashing Clover, 3 Masons at work a fine day

Tuesday 1st October 1844

Last night clear & moderate all hands raising potatoes 29 B. a moderate clear day

Wedesy. 2

Fair last night gloomy this morning all hands raising potatoes Sowed some wheat I was at the Election potatoes 17 B. 2 Little Parkers

Thursday 3

Clear & moderate last night Jno. Davison & the rest potatoes 38 Jno. Ridinger & Lewis forenoon. Sam. afternoon, 2 Little Parkers a moderate fine day

Friday 4th

Much rain last night the ground too wet for hauling the people cleaning Clover seed &c. a fair moderate day

Saturday 5

Fair last night Jno. James & Frank hauled 3 Loads of wood Jas. Parker & Pompey at Sundry jobs a fine day

Monday 7th

I left home for Baltimore & returned on friday the 11th. & found the rest of the potatoes had been raised, Buckwheat hauled in, the ground ploughed & about 8 Bushels of wheat sowed fair weather this morning. Wd. cont. to about 1 O'clock & cloudy

~~Tuesday~~ 8

Frost last night all hands hauling compost sowed & harrowed the Buck wheat ground &c. a moderate day

~~Wednesday~~ Monday 14th

Last night fair but gloomy - the people hauled out the rest of Compost. It began to rain & cont. for 2 till night the people thrashed Buck wt. afternoon

~~Thursday~~ Tuesday 15th

Much rain last night all hands thrashing Buckwheat forenoon but after fair

Wedesy. 16th

It blew hard last night the people finished thrashing B. wt. & spreading Compost, Jno. hauled a load of wood &c. fair & moderate

Thursday 17

Last night gloomy but fair Jno. Parker sowed the orchard being all but the Clover lot Jno. ploughed Frank harrowed all that was sowed James dug about the Apple trees they afterwards cleaned B. wheat gloomy & threatening forenoon rain about 4 & continued Rain Sleet & Snow

Friday 18th

Rain during last night Jno. & James cut in 2 loads of wood & worked in the smith shop, Jno. Parker, Frank & Pompey Cleaning B. wheat a moderate rain all day

Saturday 19

It blew & rained heavily last night Jno. hauling logs for dinner Jno. Parker Frank & James cutting wood, Frank went to Mill Mild day